State Normal School Kirksville

The Normal School opens Wednesday September 12. The people of Kirksville welcome the students into quiet homes and add all they can to the opportunity for study.

Hundreds of boys have gone to war and many others are in state and national service. Their vacant seats must be filled. The demands for service outrun all the means for preparedness. Difficult undertakings in the community and the nations are increasing.

This Normal School has for half a century prepared teachers and other community leaders. It issues elementary certificates valid for two years, also life diplomas and the bachelor's degree. It is well known in the state and the nation. Its graduates are in great demand—greater than can be met.

It is a full grown college for teachers, and a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It exchanges credits hour for hour with all the approved school of the state.

It feels keenly the call of the community and the nation for well trained men and women. With faculty and facilities unexcelled, it says to the young ambitious Missourians: "Will you not respond to the call of national need and the challenge of near-by opportunity?" "Will you not only do your bit but your dead level best?" For bulletins and for any desired information write to the Registrar, the Field Service Chairman, the President, or any faculty member.
