Editor Got Riled.

A west Texas editor got tired of being called a "liar" because of an occasional typographical error or slight disarrangement of the facts in publishing a commonplace news item, says the Dallas Pitchfork. In his wrath he announced in boldface type as follows:

"A lot of people in this town fall out with the editor and brand him as a liar when the ordinary human mistakes of life show up in a newspaper. You have a little charity and fellow feelin' for every man in town but your editor. You claim that you want the facts, and blamed if I don't give 'em to you. Read the next issue of this sheet and you will see some facts with the bark left off. I'll admit I have been a liar, an editorial liar, ever since I have been editing this sheet, but I have never printed a lie in these columns except to save somebody's feelings from being hurt. I'm not afraid of any of you and I'll be blamed if I don't print the plain truth from now on, or until you get out of the habit of calling me a liar everytime I make some little unavoidable typographical error. Watch my smoke!

Here are some paragraphs culled from the next issue:

John Bennin, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Belleville.

Rev. Sty preached last Sunday night at the Christian church. His sermon was punk and uninteresting except some stuff he quoted from Bob Ingersoll for which he failed to give Bob credit. He also recited a few passages from one of William E. Munsey's sermons and had the gall to palm it off as his own.

Married: Miss Susie Scruggs and Horace Griffin last Saturday at the Methodist parsonage, the Rev. James C. Williams officiating. The bride is a very ordinary town girl, who flirts with all the traveling men she meets and never helped her mother three days all put together in her whole life. She is anything but a beauty, resembling a gravel pit in the face, and walks like a duck. The groom is a natural-born loafer and bum. He never did a lick of work until his step-daddy ran him off from home last fall. He went to the county seat and just before starving to death accepted a job as chambermaid in a livery stable. As soon as his ma found out where he was she went and got him and brot him home. He now resides at the home of his wife's father and says that he has no definite plans for the future. Susie will have a hard row to hoe.

Hog Production Campaign

It is desired to hold meeting at 15 points in the county as follows.

Dec. 3, 10; a. m. Indian Grove; 1: 30 Triplett; 7:15, Brunswick.
Dec. 4, 10:00 a. m. Mike; 1:30, School House north "Chicago" Smith; 7:15 Rothville.
Dec. 5, 10:00 a. m. Sumner; 1:30 Whitham; 7:15, Mendon.
Dec. 6 10:00 a. m. Dalton; 1:30 Keytesville; 7:15 Salisbury.
Dec. 7, 10:00 a. m. Prairie Hill 1:30, Bynumville; 7:15, Mussel-fork.

This trip is for the purpose of getting before farmers the best information that is obtainable relative to hog production.

Mr. Paul Culver of Ray Connty a highly successful farmer will be with us on our trip. I cannot say at this time who besides will be with us.

I hope each person who reads this will do his best to advertie the meeting and get as large an attendance as possible since the question beircs us is one of vast importance and everyone should welcome all the information that he can get. All persons are invited and urged to attend. The meeting however will depend on whether or not the roads are passible. With the way matters are shaping themselves it seems that we are sure to get a good price for hogs and it seems evident that the food administration sees very clearly that this must be, if we are to go the limit on hog production.

Salisbury Scribblings

Our town is being scourged with fires. Friday night between eleven and twelve o'clock fire was discovered in the Case Livery barn, on West second street, and while the department was doing all it could to confine the flames to that building, the Staats barn on East second Street was found to be in flames and that too was destroyed. This looks suspicious but may be only a coincidence. If we have a fire bug here steps should be taken at once to ferret it out. Fortunately the barns were insured and no loss in that direction will be sustained, but the hay in the Case barn was not insured and will be a total loss to the owner, A. S. Rucker of the People's Bank. What we need now is a night guard, with riot guns and orders to shoot night prowlers who cannot give satisfactory accounts of themselves, or who flee when called on to halt.

Miss Mamie Pile of this city and Ray Walker of Clark, Mo., were united in marriage Sunday at the home of the bride, Rev. Mosely officiating. We tender our best wishes.

Mrs. Nettie Conner leaves this week for Hot Springs, Ark., to take treatment for asthma and other troubles.

Victor Stark, who lives over on the East Fork, took membership with the Christian church Sunday night. He is a splendid man and will be a valuable addition to the congregation.

Gilbert Lamb and Mrs. More-dock went to Paris Monday to look after some legal matter pending in Circuit Court there.
