

BUY EARLY

BUY NOW

Christmas Shopping do yours today

You cherish the spirit of Christmas giving and yet this year above all others you do not care to indulge in useless gifts.

Like necessities, gifts should be selected with an eye to economy and to solid worth.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

At this store you will find useful gifts for the entire family, from the smallest child to the grandmother and grandfather.

A Hart Schaffner & Marx suit or overcoat would make a wonderful gift for your father or brother.

And we are urging you to buy early while we have this merchandise at the right prices, as much of it could not be bought at any price now.

Brunswick, Mo.

Knight & Rucker

way to park the cars. Merchants were too busy to look up. It looked like old times.

The old post office building is being put in order for the Hurry Undertaking Co. and will be occupied in a few days.

F. W. Dooley of Ardmore, and his three sons, visited his father W. A. Dooley and sister here last week. They drove over in their car.

The work of clearing away the debris with a view to rebuilding the "burnt district" has been begun in earnest and will be pushed as rapidly as possible.

Mrs. Edna Wilson on Saturday sold her 127 acre farm north of town to Joseph Fischer of Blackwater Mo. for $10,000. The deal was made thru Chrane Bros. and others.

Miss Cassie Carlstead is convalescent and will soon reopen her studio for business.

Hamden Items

Earl Penrod made a business trip to Wein Monday.

Will Case and Fred Lain were in Hubbard Monday.

J. R. Price and wife are the proud parents of triplets, one girl and two boys.

J. C. Case and wife, Frank Rafferty and family and Leo Harlan and family of Salisbury spent Thanksgiving with Arthur McSparren and family.

Walter and Tom McCurry returned from Nebraska Saturday.

Revs. Gallon and Russell of Kansas City started a meeting at Bynumville Sunday.

Gilbert Prather returned to his school duties Sunday.

Everett McCart who has been here on a furlough returned to Camp Funston Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Price have our sympathy in the loss of their little baby girl. The two little boys are doing nicely.

Lost

Auto crank some where between McGinty's Bridge and Theodore Woods. Finder please return to this office. 45

White Wyandottes

A few very handsome White Wyandotte Cockerels for sale at $1.50 each if taken soon.

Mrs. A. S. Taylor. 45 Phone 18

Santa Fe Watch Inspector. Established 1888. Musical Instruments Sheet Music

POTTS JEWELRY COMPANY

MARCELINE MO.

HIGH-GRADE WATCHES
DIAMONDS
JEWELRY CUT GLASS
HAND-PAINTED CHINA

We have the largest stock in this part of the country.

It will pay you to inspect our

ELEGANT XMAS LINE

We are again giving away, FREE, $75.00 diamond ring, $20.00 chest of silverware and $10.00 umbrella. Every dollar purchase entitles to a free ticket.

You may have other cameras but you need an Eastman vest pocket kodak. The Rexall Store, Salisbury, Mo.

For your sweetheart in Camp a beautiful wrist watch. The Rexall Store, Salisbury, Mo.

A. Schupbeck visited his daughter, Mrs. Milda Flick Friday and Saturday at Moberly.

Mrs. Dr. Beard of Kahaho, Clark County visited Mrs. John Bushnell and Mrs. McNally, sister-in-law last week.

Fresh candies of all kinds at the Rexall Store, Salisbury, Mo.

Lets motor to Salisbury and shop at the Rexall Store.

18 MORE SHOPPING DAYS

UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Brunswick COX'S Missouri

The Store with Many Gifts

Salisbury Scriblings

As soon as the room can be made ready the Democrat will move back into its old quarters. This is a convenient location and just suits for a print shop.

Claud Duff, son of W. B. Duff and wife has resigned his position in the public schools in Ogden Utah and joined the coast artillery.

Miss Willie Jackson has taken a position in the law office of J. A. Collet, as stenographer.

Mr. Mankoff, manager of the Hope Lumber Co., and wife have moved to Kansas.

L. T. Jackson of Brunswick is here helping out in the Botkin and Shupe barber shop during the absence of Mr. Shupe.

One of our hunters shipped a fancy dog here from Tenn. last week, but it seemed to have been hurt in transit some way and died soon after it arrived. The loss was $25.

The work of repairing the buildings, damaged by the fire last week, occupied by the Democrat and other parties has commenced and will be pushed to completion as soon as weather conditions will permit.

Miss Ardes Chitty who has a position in Kansas City spent Thanksgiving with homfolks. She is well pleased with her position.

The Trustee of the J. M. Coffman stock announces a final division on the claims allowed of ten percent and has sent out checks for the money. Coffman is now in business in Kansas City.

Mrs. Ella Moredock is visiting the family of Charles Thomas near Huntsville this week.

Mrs. E. J. Moredock and son visited in Moberly the first of the week.

Miss Edith Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Standley, who lives a short distance south of town, was united in marriage to Charles T. Closser Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. P. Rice officiating. These are fine young people and we offer our best wishes for their future happiness.

The Missionary Pageant at the Christian Church Sunday night is said to have been one of the greatest attractions ever pulled off here. The crowd was immense, the entertainment fine, the collection good and the whole affair a great success. There was a big meeting just across the street of the Red Cross at the same time, but the church was jammed just the same.

Our city was full of people Saturday afternoon, there being hardly enough room on Broad-

RIGHT NOW

RIGHT NOW

On the threshold of unprecedented demand for popular priced Christmas goods, our enormous stock represents to you a full measure of saving on your Christmas purchases.

BOOKS FOR BOYS, GIRLS, MEN AND WOMEN
Bibles Toys Wagons Hobby Horses Sleds
Doll Carts Toy Mechanical Railroads Handkerchiefs Blocks
Hand Bags Beads Jewelry Ties
Scarfs Scarf sets Cut Glass Fancy Glass Fine China
Queensware and hundreds of
OTHER USEFUL AND ACCEPTABLE XMAS PRESENTS

We have 6,000 pounds of exceptionally fine, pure, wholesome Candies, enough variety to please all.

SPECIAL SALE
ON SAMPLE LINE OF BLANKETS

TRY THE
Cash Variety Store
Salisbury, Missouri

McGinty's Bridge Topics

Mrs. Jen Peterson visited with Jack Welch and folks last week, returning to her home in Kansas City last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Leach jr. spent Friday and Saturday with his parents near Shannondale.

Mr. and Mrs. Bush Etherton and Mrs. Luella Shively and baby spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Smith and daughter, have returned from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Warner Kelso who lives in Newton, Kas.

Corn gathering is the order of the day.

Ben Littler had the misfortune of cutting his knee open with an ax.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jackson and children spent Thanksgiving with Will Collet and wife.

Miss Flora Haston, our school teacher visited with her sisters, Mrs. Jack Bills and Mrs. Frank Payne, during Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Price are the proud parents of triplets, one girl and two boys. Later. The little girl died, but the little boys are doing nicely.

Holiday gifts of candy, stationary, toilet articles and something for all the family at J. D. Brummall Drug Co., Salisbury, Mo.