Charlie Taylor and his family will leave Saturday in his new car for Southerland, Nebraska, where they will live for some time, Charlie having an interest in some Government work.

Most of the candidates got a late start but they are making up for lost time. If you see a big dust kicked up in the road anywhere you may know that it is some candidate trying to beat another to a voter.

Mrs. Chas. Stender of Cumberland arrived Sunday morning for a visit to her sons and other relatives. Bill Stender was on his way to Iowa to see his mother and ran across her at Moberly and returned with her.

Jimmy Preston had some sort of an abscess form under his tongue and was a pretty sick boy the first of the week, but is all right now and able to talk to as many girls as he can get in his automobile for a joy ride.

Miss Jimmy Ewing was a guest of her sister Mrs. T. H. Carskadon at Dalton the first of the week.

Miss Winona Phelps and Tom Richardson of Salisbury were guests of Miss Jessie Richardson Sunday.

Mrs. Will Richards, Mrs. Algie Harding and Miss Juanita Carskadon are on the sick list with the new brand of fever which is about to put all Brunswick to bed.

Mrs. W. G. Agee will leave Saturday for Kansas City to be absent several weeks, visiting and recuperating by assisting her sister Mrs. Minnie Hurt at her boarding house.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nichols left our city yesterday for Brunswick where they will make their home for a time at least. We regret to lose this estimable young couple but understand that our electric light service will not suffer on account of being without a local manager.

Lost

Between Clifton Hill and Huntsville a dark green coat. A release card from the draft bearing the owners name in one pocket. Finder please notify or leave at this office. Reward.

Miss Edith Freeman of Salisbury came Wednesday for a visit to Miss Ninnie Garnett.

Miss Elizabeth Agee was a guest of Miss Mary Herring south of town last week.

Mrs. Eliza Veatch is a very sick woman and only her wonderful vitality is in her favor.

Ed Givens of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting the family of his uncle, C. L. Herring this week.

More house cleaning, papering and painting appears to be going on at this time than in the early spring.

R. W. Cox returned from Ames, Iowa, Wednesday. He says his son Ernest is the finest looking soldier boy he ever saw and that Ernest and all the boys are in the very best of condition even though the training given has been of comparatively short duration.

For Sale

A serviceable work team ten years old. Also, buggy and harness will be offered at public auction on streets of Dalton Saturday June 22nd if not sold previously. See

T. H. Carskadon.

Rev. B. G. Rudd came in Friday for a three days visit to old friends. Each and everyone of them at home was very glad indeed, to see him. He left the first of the week for Australia where he will join the Y. M. C. A. Flying Squadron, and then take wings for France. He is now a flyer but the Y. M. C. A. will take none for service under 21 years of age and Rev. Rudd was precluded from going under that banner in this country. We all wish him success and a safe return.

Trustee's Sale

Whereas, John B. Pollard and Frances K. Pollard, by their deed of trust dated the 5th day of December, 1915, and recorded on the 4th day of January, 1916, in Book 46 at page 63, in the office of Recorder of Deeds of Chariton County, Missouri, conveyed to the undersigned trustee all of the southwest quarter of Section Sixteen (16) and the southeast quarter of Section Seventeen (17) and Fifty (50) acres off the west end of the north half of the northwest quarter of Section Twenty-one (21) all in Township Fifty-four (54) Range Sixteen (16) containing in all Three Hundred and Seventy (370) acres, situated in the township of Salisbury, in Chariton county, Missouri, in trust to secure their promissory note therein described.

And, whereas, said note is long past due and unpaid and default has been made therein,

Now, therefore, at the request of the legal holder of said note, public notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned Trustee will, on the Saturday, the 13th day of July 1918, between the hours of 9 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m., sell said real estate or so much thereof as may be necessary at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash at the East front door of the Court House in the City of Keytesville, Chariton County, Missouri, to satisfy said debt, interest and costs of executing this trust.

Robert E. Hurt
Trustee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Robinson and children of Brunswick and Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson of north west of town were guests of Uncle Joe and Mrs. Robinson Sunday.

We are authorized to announce George T. Johnson a Candidate for presiding Judge of the County Court of Chariton County subject to the action of the democratic primary election August 6.

J. F. Stowers has for sale a pure bred Scotch Shorthorn Bull calf. Aconites Stamp No. 550,400 calved July 15 1916. Mr. Stowers purchased this calf from the famous herd of Leonard and Son Bunceton Mo. when 6 months old. He is an excellent individual and has as good blood strains as can be found in the state. Anyone interested should call at the farm east of town or phone 62.

THE ST. LOUIS STAR MAKES ANOTHER MASTER STROKE IN NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE

Secures Exclusive St. Louis Rights to World's Greatest Foreign News War Cable Service.

The St. Louis Star has heretofore been supplying its readers with news far more thoroughly and much more quickly than any other St. Louis newspaper through the United Press, International News, London Time's War Cables and Special Correspondents. Now, with the addition of the St. Louis Star-Chicago Daily News Combination, every possible source of news is constantly in telegraphic or cable connection with The Star. This enables readers of the Star to get the news fresh from under the guns, and to get it first in the Star.

No other newspaper in the world, not excepting the leading London and Paris journals, now excels The St. Louis Star in the strength, excellence, completeness and timeliness of its war news. This great foreign staff, posted in the principal capitals and cities abroad, waits at every source of information that may contribute to the completeness of the "war story" as it is related day by day. Contributions of individual members of this staff have been regarded as masterpieces of war reporting and its collective work has not been equaled by the foreign service of the world.

Thirty additional correspondents now gather war news for readers of The Star, and seven more seasoned writers are covering the western front for The Star. Following are the names and locations of each of the thirty new correspondents of The Star:

- Junius B. Wood at Pershing's headquarters.
- Paul Scott Mowrer at the French fronts.
- E. Percy Noel at all Allied aviation bases.
- Paul Ayres Rockwell at French headquarters.
- Jno. F. Bass at Paris.
- A. R. Decker with Allied patrol boats.
- Eunice Tietjens at the French fronts.
- Andre Blumel at Paris, France.
- Mrs. W. J. L. Kiehl on the Holland Frontier.

Oswald F. Schuette on the Swiss Frontier.

Holger B. Angelo at Copenhagen, Denmark.

Peter Daase at Christiania, Norway. Hjalmar Lundberg at Stockholm, Sweden.

Edward Price Bell at London, England.

Louis Edgar Brown at Petrograd, Russia.

Edgar Ansel Mowrer at Rome, Italy.

Bassett Digby at Stockholm, Sweden.

Reue Feibelman on the German Frontier.

Lars Lea at Bergen, Norway.

J. H. Warner at Oxford, England

W. L. Manson at Glasgow, Scotland

William H. Brayden at Dublin, Ireland.

John McBride at Belfast, Ireland.

Tancred Zanghieri at Milan, Italy.

Constantine Stephanove at Sofia, Bulgaria.

William R. Giles at Peking, China.

Ernest W. Clement at Tokio, Japan.

W. A. Curtis at Kobe, Japan.

James L. Butts at Shanghai, China.

Percy B. Meggy at Sydney, Australia.

This great combination of overseas writers in addition to The Star's other world-wide news connections consisting of the following: United Press, International News and London Times Cables.

The Star's subscription rates for a limited time only are as follows:

By agent in forty-mile zone, per month 45c
By agent, elsewhere, per month 55c
By mail, three months $1.25
By mail, six months $2.00

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Mr. Hupner of near Brunswick has what appears to be a fine wheat field of one hundred acres. Experts who have examined the crop say that his wheat is full of stinking smut and is practically worthless. Too bad when a quarter's worth of treatment would have prevented such a heavy loss.

The administration at Washington has announced that in the future no claims shall be allowed for shrinkage on live stock that arrived at market on the day it is due regardless of whether it arrives too late for that day's market and has to be held over and fed until the next day. There is no redress if delayed as long as stock reaches the market the day upon which it is expected.
