KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI

Friday, November 8, 1918

Another such democratic state committee as the one which managed the last campaign and democratic names on tickets will be a joke.

Senator Wilfly was sent here last week by the state committee. He came from Carrollton on a train arriving at 2 a. m. A conveyance was at the station because of passengers leaving or the Senator would have had to walk two miles to town or hang out at the station. He had difficulty in finding quarters when he got up town. Next morning he perambulated to find that no one knew of his being here or that he was to be expected. An efficient state committee will receive the hearty thanks of the Senator and courteous acknowledgements from this city.

After saying what he did about Senator Wilfly, how will also-ran Jo Folk thank the Senator for the untiring efforts on his part to elect him?

Folk says organized Germans defeated him. His dry followers say it was the whiskey element. But Folk placed Wilfly among the German defects and Folk also enlisted the help Pendergast the whiskey boss of Kansas City. The fact is he got things and himself badly mixed but he is straightened out now alright, permanently.

The election Tuesday resulted as might have been expected in this state. Jo Folk worked his own political destruction by coming back to the state and undertaking to discredit every one who did not agree with him, that is, support him. He is sure a politician without a job and with no future in his state. However, Jackson Johnson, head of the sho trust, can take care of him. Let him do it.

The legislature so far as the house is concerned, is undoubtedly republican. Republican leaders are claiming a majority of five in the United States senate and something like thirty majority in the House; but there is lots room to doubt this. It isn't hard to see what brot about the land slide nor very obscure as to the fate of other high-up democrats. Fads and too much bossism will floor any individual or party, sooner or later.

Prohibition is defeated in this state, tho the majority is not out of the doubtful column yet. The democratic city papers seem to concede that the state ticket is defeated and republican leading papers appear to have no doubt of it. All of which is a devil of a mess at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Shinn and daughter Fontelle and son Leroy came Saturday evening from Hale and spent the night with Mr. and Mrs. Ans Phillips north of town. Sunday all visited Jim Phillips and family at Oil City.

Miss Elsie Keeting accepted a position at Moberly with the Wabash R. R. as time keeper and left last week for that place.

Corporal Horace Elliott has been promoted to Sergeant.

The many friends of Miss Catherine Sigloch congratulate her on passing the examination for assistant pharmacist.
