Ever notice how much less funny Charlie Chaplin is since he got married?

"Were you punished for flirting when you were a girl, Mama? "Look at your father and see if I was not."

The next thing some of our charming girls will find out will be that another at some distance has captured one of our favorite young men and made off with him for good. Yes, we predict that there will be a wedding very soon which will surprise a few.

J. S. Asbury and E. E. Buck went to Salisbury Monday to represent the Farmers Mutual telephone co. and work against raising the rates. We trust they will do what is right and work for the company. It looks like the public service commission and the big company are working together. We believe the small company's will pull through all right if let alone. People are not in a position to stand any unnecessary high rate and we believe that the two men above mentioned will do their part in behalf of the small company.

Dr. Dryden of Purden, Mo., went to Des Moines, Iowa, last week to see Francis Wisdom who is in a hospital there. He was wounded in France by a German shell. He went to Camp Funston a year ago last September and has never been home since he enlisted. We hope for his speedy recovery and to see him home soon.

Bert and Rut Smith and families spent Sunday with home-folks near the Grove. They found their father in very poor health.
