

Judge Chas. H. Mayer

It appears a logical conclusion to support Judge Chas. H. Mayer for the Democratic nomination for governor. Any one receiving the endorsements such as Judge Mayer has from his home country, almost a neighbor of this county, is certainly worthy of serious consideration, especially when that endorsement is backed by the high achievements of the man. Judge Mayer is a lawyer, 44 years of age, a native of Boone county, has been city attorney of St. Joe, State Senator, circuit judge, special judge on the supreme court bench and is yet always, an able christian gentleman. He has made no declaration of his stand on the wet and dry question but all understand him to hold liberal views while an enforcer of the law when in authority. Judge Mayer supported a bill in the state senate intended to prevent tax dodging and against the bill which undertook to muzzle the press. The public record of Judge Mayer is so clean, clear to even the near sighted, void of any suggestion of pussyfooting and free from mercenary bias and if the Democrats of the state can secure more or as much, in either of his opponents, the fact has not been disclosed so far. Yes, Judge Chas. H. Mayer is worthy the support of all and if he does not get the nomination, it will surprise some of his opponents as well as his supporters.

The national labor board has granted an increase to railroad men which will amount to six hundred million dollars a year for the two million employees of railroads. Railroad heads are asking the board to permit them to increase freight rates 18 per cent. Labor organizations have not yet accepted the raise offered but it is felt that they will do so. Car shortage may be relieved by the adjustment but just how, is not stated by the press. The raise in passenger and freight rates asked by railway managers will make, if granted, about a billion dollars increase in gross receipts which have to be paid by the public. For every cent they lose, railroads want a dollar returned to them, it seems.

Hay seems to be und the impression that he is running against senator Reed. He may congratulate himself that he is not; tho he he has much before him to keep in sight of his actual opponents in the race. He was asked to withdraw in favor of Long but nix was his answer. The request was made by drys.
