TO THE "AD" KILLER

The man who stops his little "ad" is but a blooming fool, beaded! Because his advertisements tell the public what he has to sell, and if his "ad" is not on deck, the people pass him up, by heck! For none of them will hesitate to trade with people up to date. To stop your "ad," we would remark, is just like winking in the dark—you may know what you mean, but, gee! nobody else can ever see! So do not for a moment think that when you cut out printer's ink you're saving money on the side; 'tis only "business suicide."—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

PICNIC AT THE CUT-OFF

The famous Keytesville-Brunswick band made the trip to the cut-off Sunday afternoon when they furnished the musical entertainment for the crowd which had gathered there. Owing to the rain early in the day many who had planned to go stayed at home and had it not been for the rain the crowd would have been immense. This was the first time that the band played at the cut-off, but they will try to arrange for a concert quite often. The music where they furnished the music was splendid and enjoyed by the good sized crowd. The boys went boat riding and swimming and at the proper time enjoyed their supper on the tables on the grounds. They returned to town about 9:30 in the evening feeling fine.

MOBERLY STANDS SHOW OF LANDING HOME

Members of the Moberly delegation who presented the application for the state school for dependent children before the Board of Charities and Corrections at Jefferson City Friday feel very confident that the board will make its decision to the best interests of the state as a whole, and that Moberly has a very good chance to procure the location here.

With the exception of Jefferson City the city of Moberly was the only city making application for the school that sent a representative body to meet the board. All other cities merely sent their propositions in on paper for the consideration.

Dr. Boving and Mrs. Kimbrough went to Jefferson City early Thursday afternoon, and were able to get there in time to have personal interviews with each member of the board. The board made favorable mention of the newspaper articles which had been received by them from the local papers, thus getting them better acquainted with Moberly's proposition.

The members of the Moberly committee were gratified with the reception accorded them, and their being allowed to give an oral presentation of their proposition before the entire board. The present board is made up of people of high personality, who are looking to the best interests of the children of the state in selecting the location for the school.

It was generally conceded that the home would ultimately be located with a view to serving the best interests of the children committed to the home, but there seemed to be a disposition on the part of a number on the board to consider a proposition where there was a building that could be temporarily used as a home for the children in charge of the state, who are boarded in private homes in Kansas City and elsewhere.

The committee upon learning this, immediately got busy with the chairman of the local committee, G. O. Perry, and were able to offer them a smaller acreage of land, on what is known as the Green Terrill mansion. The proposition was signed by Oak Hunter, and was as follows:

"In the event the proposition submitted to your honorable board by the city of Moberly whereby they agree to furnish the state of Missouri one hundred acres of land to serve as a location for the state home for dependent children, does not meet your approval regarding the immediate demands and requirements of the state, we desire to supplement that offer by a proposition that we will furnish a lesser acreage of land with an eighteen-room, three-story brick mansion.

"This offer will be placed in more definite terms as to acreage in time for your consideration when you visit Moberly on your location tour. Very respectfully submitted in behalf of the city of Moberly and the Chamber of Commerce."

It is expected that the commission will visit Moberly within the next few weeks, and will go over each location separately, after which a final decision will be made.

The public spirited citizens of Moberly are to be commended for their aggressiveness in this matter.

CUT OFF HAND TO AVOID WAR SERVICE

Martin E. Carlson, a vocational student this afternoon admitted and made affidavit to the charge that he laid his left hand on a railroad track purposely and cut off the hand to keep from serving in the army in France. He is being held by Sheriff Brown for federal authorities.

Carlson cut his hand off over three years ago and since has been a charge of the government. His wife is suing him for divorce. At the time he lost his hand and subsequently he has led army officers and his comrades to believe that he lost the hand in an accident.—Columbia Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Drace and daughter of Centrals are visiting Mrs. Drace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. White.

AN EXCITING ACCIDENT

At the farm of Geo. Thornburg some three miles south of the city, a very exciting accident occurred. A young man was driving a team hitched to a load of sheaf oats and smoking a pipe. The mules started to run and looking back for the cause he saw that the back end of his load was blazing high. The driver was thrown off and dragged some distance by the lines. The team ran close to another load of oats but the driver pulled out of the way of the blaze. The mules ran with the fire getting hotter, toward the gate on the road, but the wagon caught on the post and held the team. The driver on the other load ran to the mules but they were kicking so that he could not unhitch the traces. He therefor unbuckled the hame straps and both mules stepped out of the harness. The mules were unhurt except one had his tail singed and the other had the hair scorched off his hip. The mules were heading for the barn with the burning load and if they had not been caught by the gate post would, no doubt, have set the barn on fire.—Moberly Democrat.

QUIT THE WORRY CLUB

The county agent of Le Flore county, Okla., tells in his report about one farmer in his county who has found out a way to stop his worrying. They have had tremendous rains down in that section of the world and there was too much mud for plowing. The agent met this man and said, "I don't understand why you are looking so much happier than you did the last time I saw you, what's the matter?" He replied: "Nothing is the matter. I got nothing left to worry about—crops all gone, money all gone, credit all gone, food's about played out, so I've got nothing to worry about and have stopped worrying."

25 PER CENT CUT IN EASTERN GRAIN RATES

The first peephole through the wall of high freight rates that has confronted the western grain grower made its appearance Friday when the eastern railroads announced a voluntary cut in the rate on export wheat, corn and rye amounting to approximately 25 per cent.

The reduced rate goes into effect only from lake points, such as Buffalo, to the seaboard points, and amounts to 5 cents a hundred pounds on wheat, corn and rye, or close to 3 cents a bushel in the case of wheat.

This is regarded by shippers as the first move of the railroads America over to reduce freight rates. The next move will be of great interest to a suffering, outraged public, and especially to the producer in the great agricultural districts of the west and middle west where the excessively high rates make shipping with a profit practically impossible.

REDUCED RATES TO FORT DODGE, IOWA

Nearly 100,000 mid-west service men, who trained for war service at Camp Dodge, will have their final opportunity next month to inspect the historic cantonment before its complete demolition, it was announced from Des Moines the first of the week.

Over 6,000 veterans will take a final look at the camp during the Eighty-eighth division reunion, which is to be held in Des Moines, August 26, 27 and 28. Every man who trained at Camp Dodge is entitled to attend the reunion, it has been announced. The cantonment, now being demolished rapidly, will be thrown open for inspection on these three days. Local committees have made arrangements to provide free automobile transportation from the city to the cantonment for the men who trained there.

Work is to be started on a great tent city at the fair grounds where the service men will be housed free of charge during the reunion. A reduced railroad rate of fare and one-half for all points in the mid-west has been granted the camp Dodge men.

WILLIE SURVIVED

Father's lost his whiskers;
 Coat's in ashes, too;
 Nose is in court plaster,
 One eye black and blue;
 They cut his shirt off of him
 To graft skin on his back
 For he was showing Willie
 Why his crackers didn't crack.

Uncle's in his bedroom,
 Minus lots of skin;
 Thumb and finger missing,
 Splints upon his shin;
 They turned the hose upon him
 In time to save his eyes,
 For he was showing Willie
 Why his rockets didn't rise.

Mother's feeling awful,
 Moaning in distress;
 Says it simply ruined
 Back breadths of her dress;
 She also lost her collar,
 An eyebrow and a curl,
 For she was showing Willie
 Why pinwheels didn't whirl.

Grandpa goes on crutches
 When he goes at all—
 He collided with a
 Roman candle ball.
 But what about young Willie?
 When do they bury him?
 Why, Willie came thou safely—
 Unscathed in life or limb.

BOY SCOUTS ARE ALWAYS PREPARED

What to do in cases of panic is one of the many subjects in which Boy Scouts are trained. Out in Colfax, Wash., the boys had a chance recently to show that the training was the real thing. A fire broke out in a moving picture theatre crowded with women and children. The Scouts present took instant charge of the situation, distributed themselves quietly at different points in the house, and got the frightened crowd out in safety, marshaling them in groups and marching them out with military precision.

Has Never Seen Their Equal
 "I have used Chamberlain's Tablets for stomach trouble, biliousness and constipation off and on for the past ten years. I have never seen their equal yet. They strengthened my digestion, relieved me of headaches and had a mild pleasant action on my bowels. I take pleasure in recommending them." writes H. D. F. Parmenter, Cridersville, Ohio.—Adv.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
