

Compare flavor and crispness! KELLOGG'S against any Corn Flakes you ever ate!

Takes the rough edges off hopping out of the covers these snappy mornings just thinking about that luscious bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes waiting down-stairs! Big and brown and crispy-crunchy flakes—a revelation in appetizing flavor, wonderful in wholesome goodness—the most delicious cereal you ever tasted!

Instantly you like Kellogg's, not only because of appealing flavor, but because Kellogg's are not "leathery"! Kellogg's are a delight to eat, as the little folks as well as the big ones will tell you! And Kellogg's ought to be best—they're the original Corn Flakes! You have only to make comparison to quickly realize how perfect they are!

KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes for tomorrow morning's spread! They get the day started right! Insist upon KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes in the RED and GREEN package—the kind that are not leathery!

WHY THAT LAME BACK?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Keytesville resident's example.

Louis Huss, farmer, says: "I suffered with my kidneys. My back was in an awful condition and I could only work about one-third of the year. In the busiest time of the season I was laid up with my back. Every time I move I suffered. I was bothered with disk spells. My kidneys were weak and irregular and I had to get up often at night to pass the secretions. The secretions were filled with sediment and burned in passage. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me. The cure has lasted, too."

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

Default having been made in the payment of the note described in a certain deed of trust, executed by Ernest B. Hamner and Lucy Hamner, his wife, dated January 8, 1919, acknowledged January 8, 1920, and recorded in Deed of Trust Record, Book 51, at Page 230, in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Chariton County, Missouri, wherein they conveyed to the undersigned trustee to secure said debt, the following described real estate, situate in said County and State, to-wit:

All of the Northeast quarter of the Northeast quarter of Section No. Thirty-three (33), in Township No. Fifty-three (53) of Range No. Eighteen (18), except a private right-of-way 15 feet wide on north side and except 4 1/4 acres in the northeast corner heretofore conveyed by deeds appearing of record in Book 82, Page 509, Book 93, Page 360, and Book 94, Page 345, to which reference is made for a more particular description for the parts so excepted. The land conveyed under said deed of trust being the same acquired by deed from Lettie Spence, dated February 1, 1915, recorded in Book 105, Page 128. All of said Deeds appearing of record in the Recorder's office of Chariton County, Missouri, to which reference is made. And I will, on Friday, April 28, 1922, at the Court House door in the City of Keytesville, Chariton County, Missouri, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the above described lands, for the purpose of paying said debt, and the costs of executing this trust.

LEGS

Legs to the right of us,
Legs to the left of us,
Legs in front of us,
How they display them!
On they go trippingly,
Daintily and skippingly,
Frost that bites nippingly
Does not dismay they.
Straight legs and bandy ones,
Bum legs and dandy ones,
Awkward and handy ones,
Flirt with the breezes.
Round legs and flatter ones,
Thin legs and fatter ones,
Especially the latter ones,
Showing their kneeses.
Knock-kneed and bony ones,
Real legs and phony ones,
Silk-covered tony ones,
Second to none.
Straight and distorted ones,
Mates and all sorted ones,
Home and imported ones,
Ain't we got fun?
