country take a notion to use their heads for something more than hat racks they will have better times.

pects to sell to suit the hard times.

Hon. G. W. Bruce, of Loyd, La.,

To All People's Party Men!

DO NOT go to the Democratic primary election and tie yourself to the Democratic nominee, but hold yourselves aloof, so you can vote as freemen on the 6th day of November, 1894.

Curiosities Never Cease.

There are two vegetable beans at the land office in Natchitoches that exhibit animal life, it is said that these beans came from Mexico and that there is only one tree that bears the fruit.

Mrs. Levy, wife of our esteemed fellow-townsmen Judge C. H.
Levy, returned from a visit to Nacogdoches, Texas, last week,

We have information from all over the Fourth Congressional District that the People's party is growing stronger and stronger every day. This is certainly encouraging and should stimulate every one to do their utmost to carry the good work forward.

Mr. W. C. Cox, of Robeline, has been appointed Police Juror for the sixth ward of this parish, vice A. V. Carter, resigned. Mr.
Cox is one of the best citizens of this parish and the Governor could not have made a better appointment.

This has been a great week for Populism in old Natchitoches.
Speeches have been made at the court house, Robeline, Provencal, Cloutierville, Beulah, Oak Grove and Harmony, and great enthusiasm is the result.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Mr. C. H. Levy.
Mr. Levy is agent for all kinds of machinery and is wholly trustworthy in every particular, and all persons needing any machinery or fittings, will do well to call on or write to him.

Mr. Chas. Devarennes being always prepared and ready to accommodate the traveling public with first-class teams and conveyances, takes occasion in this issue of the POPULIST to let the people know that he has an eye to business and is not afraid to use printer's ink to do so. See his advertisement in another column. We cheerfully recommend him to our readers who may need anything in his line.

DIED.

J. PRUDHOMME TRICHEL, at his residence, on Sunday the 23rd day of Sept., 1894, aged 35 years, 11 months and 3 days.

The deceased was a native of Natchi-toches parish, where he had spent his life as an honest and highly respected citizen. Mr. Trichel died in the prime of life with bright prospects of a hopeful future, but alas! the grim monster Death has no respect for the anticipations of man, but by his stern decree brings all to the level of the grave and the most that man can do is to prepare for this important journey through the valley of death.

The subject of our sketch a short time before his death, in fact, after he had been seized by the icy cold arms of the terrible destroyer, stated that he was going to heaven; what a grand assurance to the departing soul. He leaves a wife and four children, as well as a host of friends to mourn his loss. May they for consolation trust in Him alone who can give it. The POPULIST extends its sympathy to the bereaved family and friends.

Mr. J. H. Normand, of this city, in addition to his boarding house in Natchitoches where the travelling public is entertained with good meals and comfortable quarters, has established a restaurant at Cypress station, where meals can be had at all hours at reasonable rates.
We wish him success in his new venture.

The American cemetery is badly in need of attention owing to the weeds and briars that have grown up in it. We suggest that our citizens take some steps to have the same cleaned off. Mr. Downs, of the firm of Downs & Newman, dealers in marble, at Shreveport, has kindly offered to clean the marble slabs and renovate them free of charge, and we think our people should take advantage of this liberal offer.

Miss Lee Cartell, the charming little grand-daughter of Mrs.
Garza, presented the POPULIST office with an elegant bouquet of beautiful flowers. Such kind remembrances never fail to dispel the monotony that surrounds the editorial sanctum, and for this kind recognition the POPULIST staff extends its many thanks to the little donor.

Sherrone Medicine Co.:
My trade decidedly prefers Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic to any thing of its kind on this market, and they will not accept the imitations when they can help themselves.
JOHN I. MCCAIN.

My experience with the use and sale of Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic has been indeed satisfactory. I can strongly endorse it as a good medicine.
W. O. HARRISON.

I have been using Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic for years, and can highly recommend it as a most excellent family medicine. I decidedly prefer it to any of the imitations.
GEO. L. ETHRIDGE, P. M.

For cuts, burns, bruises, etc., there is nothing better than Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic.
M. J. K. H. V. MCCAIN.

Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic is so well and favorably known throughout this section that it hardly needs any recommendation.
I always carry it in stock and find it the best seller I handle in that line.
J. W. DYSON.

I have handled Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic for several years, and found it decidedly the best seller of its kind I ever saw. I have also handled the imitations but the large majority of my trade preferred Dr. Tichenor's.
B. A. FORTSON.

ST. MAURICE, La., June 9, 1894.

I can strongly recommend Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic, for I have used and sold it for years and therefore know it to be all they claim for it.
E. W. TEDDLIE.

CLARENCE, La., June 8, 1894.

I have been using and selling Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic for years with entire satisfaction to myself and trade. I am never without it in my house or store.
None of the imitations will take with my customers.
W. A. RAGAN.

It is but justice to ourselves and the public that we warn you against the many imitations of Dr.
Tichenor's Antiseptic. Remember his is the original and best.
Respectfully,
Sherrone Medicine Co.,
