Mr. E. J. Gamble, of Natchitoches, has kindly consented to act as our agent in soliciting subscriptions, advertisements, job work, and also collecting. And we give special notice that he is fully authorized to collect and receipt for all bills and also to contract for the paper, either in subscriptions, job work or advertising.

Mr. J. N. Arrington called on us Wednesday.

Mr. A. E. Lemeé was in our sanctum Monday.

Mr. S. H. Garner greeted our sanctum on Wednesday.

We were pleased to receive a call on Monday from Mr. S. D. Kearny.

Mr. L. Chopin, President of the Natchitoches Oil Mill, called on us Wednesday.

We were pleased to receive a call from Mr. Rudolph Bernstein, of Richardville, on Tuesday.

On Saturday last a car load of cotton was destroyed by fire on the Natchitoches Railroad at Brevell's station.

Mr. A. K. Glover, of this city, who has been sick some days, is out again, and paid us a pleasant call on Monday.

We publish a letter this week from a planter at Couley, which we think is entitled to the consideration of professional men.

Dr. N. J. Little was in our office on Wednesday, and reported his wife and daughter, Lina, right sick. Hope they will soon recover.

Dr. W. T. Williams, our genial young friend of Cane river, greeted our sanctum with his presence on Wednesday. Come again Doctor, glad to see you.

Messrs Albert Jackson and B. O. McCain, two model young men of Montgomery, were our visitors Sunday. Come often young gents, we are always glad to see you.

Rev. Chas. Thorp, of Alexandria, will hold divine services at the Trinity Episcopal Church, Tuesday night, 16th inst., and Wednesday, the 17th, at 11 a. m.

Mr. Chas. Marder, of the Boston Clothing Store, has returned from Boston and New York with a large stock of clothing, which he will sell to his customers at hard time prices.

Mr. James O. Maybin, of Ward 3, called on us last Monday and reports that the People's party is gaining rapidly. Mr. Maybin is very enthusiastic, and says that the people are going to see a fair count this time.

The Comus Club has the thanks of the POPULIST staff for complimentary tickets of admission. This club is strictly literary and social. We were told by Mr. Glover that gambling and drinking were excluded from the club.

Grand Rally and Barbecue

At Natchitoches, La., on Friday, the 26th day of October, 1894. The meeting will be addressed by Hon. Evan Jones, of Texas, Hon. B. W. Bailey, of Winn, and other prominent speakers. There will be an abundance of provisions on the ground and everybody is invited to come and hear these prominent gentlemen discuss the issues of the day from the People's party standpoint. Come one, come all, and bring your friends. No matter what your politics may be you will hear something to your interest. Don't fail to be here.

DON'T FORGET

To register, and if you have already registered go and see that your name is on the books right. The Registrar will be at the court house from now until the election. Then be sure you go and vote and see your vote counted.

A white frost was visible on the morning of the 8th, the first of the season.

The editor has been sick this week and we trust our readers may overlook any shortcomings in the paper.

Messrs. Harry Gamble, W. Nelson and Leopold Kaffie, left for the State University at Baton Rouge last Wednesday.

Col. L. F. Copeland, "Prince of Orators," will deliver his Normal course of lectures at the Comus Club on Friday, Oct. 26th, 1894.

Mr. J. A. Ducourneau, Jr., has gone to New Orleans, where he expects to lay in a large supply of winter goods for his hosts of customers.

Middling cotton in New Orleans Wednesday shows another decline of 1-16th and is ruling at 5 11-16ths. Don't you think you had better vote her straight.

Our fellow-townsmen Mr. M. H. Carver, is all smiles this week on account of the arrival of a second daughter, who made her appearance on last Thursday morning.

Mr. J. B. Tucker, of the firm of Lemeé & Tucker, insurance agents, left Wednesday morning for Alexandria, Boyce and Colfax, soliciting business for his firm. We wish him success.

We inadvertently neglected to mention last week that that enterprising merchant of St. Maurice, Mr. E. W. Teddlie, was in the city on Saturday. He came over to bring his step-daughter, Miss Alma Milling, to the Normal school.

John A. Williams, Esq., the rising young attorney of Colfax, called on us Wednesday. We always have a hearty handshake for our genial friend "John," and trust that he may make it convenient to call often.

Mr. E. D. Townsend, of Eastern, Texas, is here with a lot of fine horses and mules for sale or to trade for cattle. It will pay you to see his stock and get his prices, which you can do by calling on him or Dr. N. J. Little, agent, at Natchitoches, La.

We are unable to get the vote in the late primary election. It is considered, however, that the vote is very close and will require an official count to determine the result. But so far as can be ascertained now, Hon. H. W. Ogden is the nominee.

Mr. W. S. Greneaux has been appointed by Mr. H. M. Hyams, Clerk of the Court, as member of the board of supervisors of election. This is an excellent appointment and we believe one that will give satisfaction to all. We believe that if it is in his power Mr. Greneaux will give us a fair election. Our Clerk is to be congratulated upon his selection.

We call special attention to the card of Messrs. Lemeé & Tucker, which appears in another column of this issue. These gentlemen have associated themselves together in the business of fire and life insurance, as well as notarial work. They are well qualified and we cheerfully recommend them to our readers for anything in their line.

DIED:

SCHUMAN.—At his residence on Cane river, at 5:40 o'clock p. m., Thursday, October 4th, 1894, HENRY T. SCHUMAN, aged 36 years.

Mr. Schuman was a native of Natchitoches parish, and having lived a consistent, honorable life, was endeared to all who knew him. He died in the faith of the Catholic religion by which church he was buried. He leaves a widow and six children, besides a host of friends to mourn his loss and to whom we extend the sympathies of the POPULIST.

NOTICE.

There will be public speaking at Pace's school house in Ward 4, Natchitoches parish, La., on Saturday, the 20th day of October, 1894. Hon. H. L. Brian and Judge M. F. Machen will address the people upon the issues of the day.

J. W. TUCKER and others.

A white Democrat shot and killed a white Populist in Atlanta, Ga., over a political dispute, and both factions are arming themselves and serious trouble is expected.

We have received a letter from our friend Mr. J. W. Self, Jr., of Waco, in Ward 10, this parish, giving us encouraging news. He tells us the People's party is on a boom and will give a large majority for Hon. B. W. Bailey. Our friend "Whit" is a hustler and knows what he is talking about.

The Police Jury have authorized its president to contract with Mr. L. S. Leversedge, agent of the Youngstown Bridge Company, to construct an iron bridge across Bayou Natchez below Bayou Natchez Station, to cost $1,975.00. The proceedings of the Police Jury will appear next week.

We were highly honored on Saturday with a visit from a bevy of charming young ladies, consisting of Misses Mattie Williams, Jennie Jackson and Lelia Holston. The first two are accomplished young ladies from Montgomery, and the latter the estimable daughter of our highly esteemed citizen, McK. Holston. Come again young ladies, your bright smiles and cheerful countenances have a tendency to "drive dull care away."

Mr. John Trichel, Sr., one of our genial merchants, called around Monday and gave us a pleasant chat. He is President of the Police Jury and says in regard to road matters the Police Jury have made as strong laws as possible and yet the roads are not worked. We are glad this road question is assuming a prominent place in public sentiment, for if there is anything that serves as an index to the public spirit of a country good roads certainly are one. We hope this question will not rest here.

We learn with sadness of the death on the 8th inst., of Mrs. Elmina Harrison, wife of Mr. W. O. Harrison of Montgomery, La. The subject of this sketch was the daughter of Judge A. V. Ragan, who died a few years previous. She was for a long time prior to her death a consistent member of the Methodist church, living as she hoped to die. She leaves a husband, seven children, a brother and two sisters, as well as a host of friends to mourn her loss, to whom we extend the sympathies of the LOUISIANA POPULIST.

DR. TICHENOR'S ANTISEPTIC.

For Wounds, Burns, Bruises, Scalds, Sprains or Injuries of any nature, Colic, Cramps, Diarrhea, Flux, Sore Throat, Sore Eyes or Inflammation of any character, stands to-day without a peer. For Colic, Bots, Foot Evil, Fistula and Scratches in stock it has NO EQUAL.

MONTGOMERY, La., June 9, 1894.

Sherrouse Medicine Co.: My trade decidedly prefers Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic to any thing of its kind on this market, and they will not accept the imitations when they can help themselves. JOHN I. MCCAIN.

My experience with the use and sale of Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic has been indeed satisfactory. I can strongly endorse it as a good medicine. W. O. HARRISON.

I have been using Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic for years, and can highly recommend it as a most excellent family medicine. I decidedly prefer it to any of the imitations. GEO. L. ETHRIDGE, P. M.

For cuts, burns, bruises, etc., there is nothing better than Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic. MAJOR H. V. MCCAIN.

Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic is so well and favorably known throughout this section that it hardly needs any recommendation. I always carry it in stock and find it the best seller I handle in that line. J. W. DYSON.

I have handled Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic for several years, and found it decidedly the best seller of its kind I ever saw. I have also handled the imitations but the large majority of my trade preferred Dr. Tichenor's. B. A. FORTSON.

ST. MAURICE, La., June 9, 1894.

I can strongly recommend Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic, for I have used and sold it for years and therefore know it to be all they claim for it. E. W. TEDDLIE.

CLARENCE, La., June 8, 1894.

I have been using and selling Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic for years with entire satisfaction to myself and trade. I am never without it in my house or store. None of the imitations will take with my customers. W. A. RAGAN.

It is but justice to ourselves and the public that we warn you against the many imitations of Dr. Tichenor's Antiseptic. Remember his is the original and best. Respectfully, Sherrouse Medicine Co., New Orleans, La.
