And we give special notice that he is fully authorized to collect and receipt for all bills and also to contract for the paper, either in subscriptions, job work or advertising.

Tickets for the Congressional election can be had at this office. Don't fail to attend to this important matter.

The mails have been late for the last few days.

Leon Tujaek is seriously ill. We hope he will soon recover.

The big show and all the wonders will be here Tuesday, Oct. 30th.

Mr. P. F. L'herisson is demolishing his old store with a view of rebuilding.

The police jury met on the 23rd inst., and established a new and cheaper rate of ferrage at Grand Ecore.

Special low prices on every thing in the house, for the next 10 days. The Boston Clothing Store.

The extreme drought has brought about a scarcity of water, and many are now hauling from the Pump spring. This would suggest the propriety of establishing waterworks.

Ready mixed Paints, Oils, Turpentine, Varnishes, White Lead, a full supply always on hand at J. A. Ducourneau & Son.

There will be singing at the Baptist church from 10 to 11 o'clock a. m., Sunday, the 28th inst., by the singing society of the country.

We are informed that Hon. Joseph Henry & Son shipped thirteen bales of cotton from Derry to New Orleans last Saturday, and the proceeds of one bale would not pay the freight on the lot.

We represent none but first-class companies that pay all losses with promptness.

LEEMEE & TUCKER,
 General Insurance Agents.

We are informed that many of the public schools of the country have failed to open on account of the children having to be kept at home to pick cotton, and also that in some instances the people were unable to buy clothes and books.

Mr. S. Nelken, a prominent merchant of this place, came near having a serious accident last Saturday, caused by the explosion of a coal oil lamp, from which the fire spread and resulted in the loss of about $35, by the burning of furniture, and a damage to his house of about ten dollars. Furniture not insured. The damage to the house covered by insurance.

The most remarkable and interesting wild animal performance ever witnessed, will be seen with Howe & Cushing's shows at Natchitoches, Tuesday, October 30th.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Louis Ethridge, one of our old Montgomery friends, was in the city on Wednesday on business and paid us a pleasant call.

Mrs. Eugenie Prudhomme, of Campiti, spent Tuesday in the city, the guest of Mrs. Kearney.

Mr. S. D. Kearney was a pleasant visitor to our sanctum this week.

Gen. J. H. Cosgrove honored our office this week with a pleasant call.

Messrs. M. E. Jackson and J. W. Bunderick, of Winn parish, was in our sanctum on Friday last.

Mr. M. H. Holloway, of ward one, paid us a pleasant visit on Tuesday.

Dr. B. H. Harrison is on a business trip to Montgomery this week. Success Doctor.

Mr. A. J. Babers, accompanied by his daughter Mrs. Mollie Mixon, was in the city on business Monday, and paid us an appreciated call.

Too Late for Him, Not for You.

One of the best business men in town had an inconsiderable fire on his premises some few days since, which damaged the house a little and destroyed $35 dollars worth of furniture. When he looked at his policy it only covered the house, so he lost enough in 15 minutes to pay for a policy on his furniture for 3 years. He called in next day and put a line on his furniture, but it was like locking the stable after the horse was gone. But its never too late to do good, so we advise our friends to call on Alexander, Hill & Brezendale, and insure their property, as they represent the best and strongest Companies, and adjust all losses themselves.

Economy.

We are told that the Natchitoches Railroad had to stop and get the passengers out to picking up clips and sticks to raise steam to travel with.

Stop! Stop!!

Come to our office and have your gin house and residence insured.

LEEMEE & TUCKER, Agents.

Mr. W. B. Gewin, a contractor and builder of this city, visited our office Wednesday with unusual cheerfulness. Inquiry elicited the fact that he had a new arrival at his house in the way of a fine boy born last Sunday. The mother and babe doing well. He also informed us that he expected to treat his dwelling to a new coat of paint in the course of the next week.

Don't miss the great bargains on clothing and shoes, offered at the Boston Clothing Store for the next 10 days.

Clothing! Clothing!!

For Men and Boys. Lowest prices, at J. A. Ducourneau & Son.

The houses of Mr. C. C. Beebe Frank and Tom McLaughlin, near Chopin station, on the T. & P. railroad, were fired into on Saturday night the 20th inst. Mr. Neville Procell, constable, brought in the city under arrest Warren Fuller, Charlie Powell and Lee Thompson, charged with the crime. There are supposed to be others connected with the shooting. No further arrests have as yet been made. We did not learn the particulars.

The latest styles of Hats for Men and Boys are to be had at J. A. Ducourneau & Son.

There will be an entertainment at the Montgomery high school building on Saturday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock p. m. It will be given under the auspices of Mrs. Meyers elocution class, assisted by the music class of Miss Eva McCain. The time honored fame of Montgomery for success in all of its public entertainments, is sufficient guarantee that all who attend will be well pleased. Admittance free.

Mr. E. J. Gamble is one more of the many men who has the courage of his convictions and dares to speak what he believes to be right. Mr. Gamble is a prominent merchant of this place, and being a man who thinks for himself he has been reading and investigating the present conditions and their causes, and after due deliberation he came to the conclusion that relief must be sought outside of the old parties. Be sure to read his reasons, which are published elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Gamble has heretofore been a Democrat and he now comes to the Populists because he believes they are right.

Special reduction on clothing, furnishing goods, boots and shoes, for the next 10 days, at the Boston Clothing Store.

NECROLOGY.

MR. HENRY GENIUS of Alexandria, La., died at his home on the inst.

Mr. Genius was formerly a resident of this city for many years, and was well thought of and highly respected by all who knew him. The writers acquaintance with the deceased was very limited, but during this short acquaintance we learned to esteem him very highly as a social, genial friend and companion. To his bereaved friends and relatives, we extend the deepest sympathies.

DIED:

MRS. CATHERINE HUGHES, (nee Hubley) wife of John Hughes, at her residence on Tuesday, October 23rd, 1894, at 4:30 p. m. The funeral took place Wednesday at 4 o'clock p. m.

The deceased was born in this city in 1859, and was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. Fred Hubley. She had a large concourse of friends who followed her to her last resting place. The sincere sympathies of the POPULIST is extended to the bereaved family and friends.

MONTGOMERY, La., Oct. 21, 1894.

EDITOR POPULIST:
 Well the problem for hard times is settled. A merchant in Montgomery took one of his customers into his ledger and showed him where he had lost seventy days coming to town after tobacco, concentrated lye and "sich." So all this worry may now cease. Balm of Gilead to a storm tossed people! But in two hours afterwards he explained to another one who came growling about hard times and who owed but little and made big crops, that there was to do—much cotton made—over production. Let us all now be thankful. The cause discovered, very clear. Lazy, work more. Industrious, produce less.
CALAMITY HOWLER.

On October 22nd, Judge Andrews appointed Messrs. Joseph Henry, Charles A. Bullard, M. F. Buvens, J. Alph. Prudhomme and Patrick Coffey, Jury Commissioners for this Parish.

Beginning to Fall Into the Hands of the Money Trusts.

A money trust and loan company has closed out a widow woman in upper Red river. A few years ago she mortgaged her plantation worth from $50,000 to $75,000. A short time since we failed to pay the interest, and the mortgage was foreclosed and the property was sold, and bought in by the money lender for $8,000. No other bid on it. It is said that there was a residence on this place worth $10,000. This is the way landism is to be established in free America.

Sale of Ferries in Grant Parish.

On Saturday, the 17th day of November, 1894, I will offer to sell and lease, at public auction, in front of the court house door, in the town of Colfax, at 12 o'clock m., to the highest and best bidder, the following public ferries:
 Colfax, on Red river.
 Planter's Landing, on Red river.
 Mouth of Darro, on Red river.
 Cockfield ferry, on Red river.
 Donnahue's ferry, on Little river.
 Greer's ferry, on Little river.
 Simmons' ferry, on Little river.
 Thompson's ferry, on Little river.
 All the above ferries will be leased for the period of one year, except the Colfax ferry, purchasers to give bond for faithful performance of duty, and have possession from Jan. 1, 1895.
 The Colfax ferry, by agreement between the parishes of Grant and Natchitoches, is to be sold for a period of two years, beginning Jan. 1, 1895, and ending Dec. 31, 1896, both of the said parishes concurring in and guaranteeing the sale of said ferry.
H. G. GOODWYN,
 Pref. Police Jury of Grant Parish.
 Colfax, La., Oct. 12, 1894.

With cotton very low, and money scarce, the Boston Clothing Store came in the nick of time with the greatest bargains ever offered in Natchitoches.
