LEWEE & TUCKER, Agents.

We call special attention to the advertisement of Mr. R. L. Lowe, merchant, of Montgomery, La., which appears in this issue. Mr.
Lowe is an honest, courteous, pains-taking gentleman and will leave nothing undone that will be buying elsewhere.

of boys shoes in another column.

We regret very much to learn of our young friend Mr. T. H.
Milton, of Red River parish, with the misfortune of losing his gin by fire.

companies that pay all losses with promptness.

The "Harvard Quartette" will be delightful and popular entertainment to be given at and under the auspices of the Comus Club at 8 p. m., Friday November 2nd 1894.
The highest praises bestowed upon the Quartette and the assistant singer Elizabeth Gleason is sufficient guarantee for success. We cheerfully recommend them to the public.

Prof. Wm. C. Stubbs delivered a lecture in the Court House on last Saturday upon the culture of sugar cane and its manufacture into sugar. Mr. Stubbs handled his subject well. His lecture was delivered with the view of showing the profits to be derived from the cultivation and manipulation of this one great product of the south and from his stand point there are a great many reasons for considering his plans plausible and feasible.

day by showing his genial presence at our office. By the way Dr. McCain is a brilliant young disciple of Esculapius and bids fair to make his mark in the world.

ENTERTAINMENT.

According to previous announcement Mrs. Carrie Myers, assisted by Miss Eva McCain, entertained the citizens of Montgomery last Saturday evening by exhibiting the wonderful development of local talent in both the arts of music and elocution. Mrs. Myers but a short time since took a class in elocution as one of the branches of the Montgomery High School, and the exhibition last Saturday evening displayed a wonderful and commendable progress in this department and speaks volumes in favor of Mrs. Myers as a teacher.

The music class Miss Eva Mc-Cain also come in for a large share of the praise attending the success of this entertainment. Many of the participants in elocution being called to the stage again by the audience. We regret that want of space will not permit us to make special mention, but suffice it to say, that all participants have the thanks and admiration of those present.

Prof. Copeland.

A large per cent. of the citizens of Natchitoches were highly entertained on Friday night last by Col. L. F. Copeland, the renowned prince of orators on the subject, "Handsome People." To our regret we were unable to attend, but we have heard the lecture very highly praised by those who were there. We are told that the Professor elegantly portrayed those beautiful traits of character that make men noble and place them in the highest rank of civilization and moral worth.

Cotton Burned.

About 12 o'clock last Saturday, the alarm of fire was given, and excitement ran high. It was eventually learned that the cotton on a platform at the Natchitoches railroad depot had caught fire and was burning. The fire engine was run to the depot, but the cotton, or most of it had been separated and rolled off the platform when the engine reached the scene, though it did valuable service in extinguishing the burning cotton. Some 25 or 30 bales were burned pretty badly; we do not know the exact loss. The fire originated from a spark from the engine.

Don't miss the Harvard Quartette, Comus Club, Friday November 2nd 8 p. m.

Too Late for Him, Not for You.

One of the best business men in town had an inconsiderable fire on his premises some few days since, which damaged the house a little and destroyed $35 dollars worth of furniture. When he looked at his policy it only covered the house, so he lost enough in 15 minutes to pay for a policy on his furniture for 3 years. He called in next day and put a line on his furniture, but it was like locking the stable after the horse was gone. But its never too late to do good, so we advise our friends to call on Alexander, Hill & Brassela, and insure their property, as they represent the best and strongest Companies, and adjust such losses themselves.

Mr. C. Howard, of Marthaville, La., is holding a copyright for the celebrated Howard Hog Remedy, which he is selling. It is claimed to be a perfect cure for all diseases of hogs and guaranteed to keep hogs in a perfectly healthy condition all the time, this will certainly be a great boom to the people of this country if it is successful, any how the cost is but 75 cents and is therefore worth trying. Mr.
Howard left a few of the recipes at this office and if any one desires to try it, he can do so by sending us 75 cents.

Well, the big show has come and gone, and a whole lot of money went with it, and if the people ever entertained any very high opinion of it, that went along also, as it seems there is not a great deal left behind it. While there were some features of it that did very well, when you compare the advertisements with the actual reality, it might be termed a fake.
We have been told that the original show divided up and one part went to Alexandria and the other came here. We do not know how true this is. Those who didn't attend can console themselves with the fact that they didn't miss much show nor any sleep.
