Middling cotton in New Orleans 4 15 16ths, and declining.

Thursday, Nov. 29th, is Thanksgiving Day, and up to present writing our turkey has failed to put in its appearance.

The Boston clothing store has been moved from the Lichtenstein building to the L'Herisson building on Washington street.

Notwithstanding the hard times a few of our pretty girls and handsome young men have been patronizing the photographer.

Mr. C. L. Devarenes is having his stable recovered. There is plenty of such work to be done. Let others follow Mr. Devarenes example.

Stop! Stop!!

LEMEE & TUCKER, Agents.

A prominent People's party man in ward 3, got into a spirited political discussion while milking one morning, and left his calf tied to a post for two hours before noticing it.

A runaway horse attached to a wagon caused quite an excitement up town Tuesday morning. It belonged to our friend Mr. Winbarg, and was stopped before any damage was done.

Go to E. V. Deblieux, Jr.'s Shoe Store and examine his elegant line of shoes. Children, Ladies' and Men shoes, at 25cts. 75cts. and $1.00 per pair.

A number of Winn parish farmers have hauled their cotton to this place, as the river is so low and rates so high, that they won't and can't ship. The prices offered are no inducement, but as it is all they can get, they take it.

A number of our young men and farmers are discussing as to whether it would pay to raise tobacco in this parish. Hunt up your statistics boys and get to work. Anything will beat raising cotton at the present prices.

A sad accident occurred in a saw mill at Provencal on Tuesday, in which Mr. P. C. Blanchard, an esteemed resident of this city, was killed by the machinery. Deceased was a cousin to Senator N. C. Blanchard, and leaves a wife, two sons and many other relatives and friends to lament his untimely death, to whom we extend our sympathy and condolence.

From the numberless horse, mule and ox wagons engaged in hauling wood, the people of Natchitoches are not going to freeze this winter. Notwithstanding the hard times and the general scarcity of money, the same old prices prevail, $2.50 to $3.50 a cord. This is quite high as good wood is plentiful and near here.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Dr. B. H. Tolbot, formerly of Ganville, La., is now located on Cane river about seven miles below Natchitoches, where he is prepared to practice his profession. We welcome the Doctor among us, and trust he may be successful.

From a former resident and property owner of Rapides parish, we learn that his taxes on forty acres of swamp land, valued at $40, amount to $2.94—not quite 7 1/2 per cent., and this too under Democratic administration.

The regular session of the Parish Institute convened on Saturday morning last at the court house. The attendance was rather slim, necessitating a change in the program. The question of corporal punishment and of supplementary reading for the fourth grade was discussed rather spiritedly. The next meeting will take place on Saturday, Dec. 22d.

The postmaster requests us to state that owing to the fact that the tap road and the T. & P. failed to make connections last week, the Montgomery and Winn parish mail failed to leave twice.

The street commissioners have a gang at work cutting down the hill and fixing the street near the Baptist church. Now is the time for such work, for the advent of winter with the usual heavy rains will put a stop to that kind of work.

Two of our sportsmen, Messrs. J. Emile Breda and Mike Levy, astonished their friends by exhibiting a couple of wild turkeys, the result of an evening's hunt. They saw a flock of ten or twelve near Camp Salubrity and fired into the flock, securing a couple of fine young gobblers.

"Clouds Pinned Back With a Star."

Dr. Alphonse DeSeay will deliver his interesting lecture, entitled "Clouds Pinned Back With a Star," at the Comus Club, on Friday, November 23rd, at 8 p. m.

Dr. DeSeay is delivering this lecture throughout the State for the purpose of raising funds for the construction of a Science Hall at the Louisiana Chautauqua. The object of this lecture will appeal strongly to the people of our city. Natchitoches has always been a friend of the chautauqua, and will, upon this occasion, no doubt sustain its reputation as a centre of educational movements tending to the betterment of our educational system. Let the home of the Normal respond to this appeal in a manner that will uphold its past record in educational matters.

In addition to the lecture, a musical programme will be rendered by local talent and students of the Normal school. General price of admission is fifty cents. Students of the Normal and Grammar schools and Convent, will be admitted for 25 cents.

A prominent democrat in these "diggins" was chiding his brother for voting the Populist ticket, when he remarked: "I wear the Cleveland badge: my elbows and knees sticking out, three different colored patches on my pants and a stick in the rim of my hat to keep it from flopping off."

The death of Mr. Remy W. Harkins which occurred at his residence on Jefferson street Wednesday morning, cast a feeling of deep regret among his many friends. His mortal remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery, and followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowful relatives and friends. The POPULIST extends its heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved ones.

We wish to call the attention of our readers, who wish to take a great national paper, great in every department, to the American Nonconformist.

No Populist paper has so many able correspondents or so large a circulation. And its success is deserved, as no expense is spared to make it the best, most readable paper in the country. The fraud and rascality (winked at and unpublished by the old party papers), unearthed and exposed by its Washington correspondents during the last session of congress was a revelation to every honest man. Its scathing and fearless editorials are a terror to evil doers. Every one of our readers who wishes the news of the whole Populist movement should subscribe for this great paper. Price $1.00 a year. Send direct to Indianapolis, Ind. Sample copy sent upon request.
