The Paducah Board of Trade is not a success. Nobody attends the meetings. A meeting was called for last night, the object of which was to divide the funds and dissolve the organization. What action was taken we have not learned.

As I contemplate engaging in the tea trade exclusively, I will give great bargains in groceries, dried and canned fruits, candies, etc., to close out my stock. Tea at New York prices.

WHY IS THIS TRUE?—Elijah Hughes, Ballard county, informed a Paducah editor that he greys a number of cattle to the Cairo market last week, but being unable to sell them was compelled to drive them home again. Did Elijah Hughes demand more than his cattle were worth or will sell for elsewhere, or did our cattle buyers refuse to pay the general market price? We should like to be informed?

EVERYBODY must bear in mind that the fair and festival by the ladies of the Catholic congregation, will open in Phillips' hall on Monday evening next, and continue until Wednesday evening. A fine album will be awarded to the most popular young lady in the city, and splendid prizes offered, reserved places will be raffled off—five hundred chances at one dollar per chance. D. LAMBERT, Ohio Levee, between Eighth and Tenth streets, has enlarged and improved his shaving and hair-dressing, and is prepared to shave customers in first class style.

Clean towels, sharp razors and courteous attention are among the attractions of the establishment.

PAT KELLY was on a terrible "tear" yesterday and last night, defying arrest and doing pretty much as he pleased. He was finally arrested, however; but the squire being absent, he put spurs to his horse and left town.

Two strange negroes visited the fruit stand of Binaldo White last night, and being unable to purchase two pies for five cents, seized an empty lemon box, smashed White's windows and made their escape. Arnold made search for the ruffians to-day, but could gain no clue to their whereabouts.

In these times of high prices, it is well to remember that children can be supplied with shoes for less than half the usual annual cost by wearing metal-tipped shoes, any nothing of stockings destroyed and health endangered by wet feet, arising from the childlike habit of wearing out their shoes at the toes first.—Boston Journal.

CAIRO BARREL FACTORY.—Forty-five gallon lard tierces $1.80; pork barrels $1.60; tierces with two iron hoops $2.09; whisky barrels, full bound, iron hoops $2.25; dry bacon and ham tierces, 20 inch hoop, very stout, $1.50; beer kegs, 8 gallons, $2.40; 4 gallons $2.60; half barrels $3.00; barrels $3.75. Whisky half barrels and kegs of all kinds, iron bound.

dec 5d6t J. W. STEELE.

An old Englishman who arrived from Paducah yesterday, got on a tender and at 2 o'clock to-day found himself with empty pockets, a cracked head, bloody face and under arrest for disorderly conduct.

About noon he undertook to effect an entrance into a down town house by smashing in the door. The "lady of the house" stood, poker in hand, to receive her visitor, and when he thrust his knob inside, she smacked it, cutting his scalp and causing the blood to spurt all over his face and clothing. When we last saw him he was awaiting trial for disorderly conduct.

The oyster supper in the lecture room of the Presbyterian church, last night, called out one of the largest crowds that has been seen on a like occasion during the year past. Everything was most admirably arranged and satisfactorily managed—the results being entirely satisfactory to all concerned.

Considerable merriment was occasioned by the sale of a bale of hay that formed the donation of a lover gentleman, the sale being coupled with the condition that if the hay was not removed within five minutes, it would be resold for charges. The proceeds of the sale amounted to about $85.00.

The affair was so eminently sociable that everybody seemed loth to leave, when the hour for parting arrived.

The ladies charged with the management deserve much praise for the cheerfulness, industry and alacrity with which they performed their trust. The affair could not have been managed more successfully—even by the men!

THE CAIRO COUNCIL AND THE WOOLLEN JACKET.—Councilman Mendel appeared in the council chamber at Cairo in a brown woollen jacket, and upon being asked why Sunday went to church with a fine black coat on, said that the council brought him nothing in, and he went to church for business.—Chicago Free Press.

To parties who are personally acquainted with Mr. Mendel it is unnecessary to say that the editor of the Free Press has slandered him. There is not a more liberal hearted or unselfish gentleman than Mr. M. in the city of Cairo, and that his attendance on church or council is through a desire for pauper pay, is so out of harmony with his character that we can scarcely "compose ourselves in patience" while we rebuke so unjust an imputation. While Mr. Mendel goes to church or council in black cloth dress coat or brown woollen jacket, the idea of adding anything to his business does not enter his head.

Against no man of our acquaintance, at least, could such a charge be more unjustly lodged.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS AND HOLIDAY GOODS.—The best assorted, finest and most attractive stock of gold watches and chains, lockets, finger rings and jewelry generally ever displayed in Cairo may be found at E. & W. Buder's, corner of Eighth street and Washington avenue. A large portion of their present stock was purchased with an eye special to the holiday demand, and will be sold at a small margin over cost. Silver and silver plated ware also form a feature of the establishment worthy of particular notice, especially of those who may desire to make lasting and appropriate Christmas presents.

To parties desiring to purchase pianos, organs or any kind of musical instruments no place in the city presents greater advantages than the store of Messrs. Buder. Go there before permitting yourself to be persuaded into the purchase of an instrument, and you will thank us for this suggestion.

THE CENTRAL MEAT MARKET.—Messrs. Fred Koehler & Co., of the Central Meat Market, desire it understood that they keep all kinds of meats, beef, pork, mutton, lamb and veal; that they buy and slaughter the best and fittest animals brought to this market; dress and serve out the meats in a neat and cleanly manner, and deal with everybody fairly and squarely.

Market baskets of customers delivered free of charge to any part of the city. Fresh chickens on sale every morning. Buy your meats, then, at the Central Meat Market, near the corner of Tenth street, on Washington avenue.

LOCAL BREVITIES.—The Rev. Mr. Sweeney proposes to protract his stay in the city through the winter.

F. M. Warr employs the columns of the BULLETIN to tell the people that he deals in coal as well as wood, and is ready to deliver the former, anywhere in the city at the low price of four dollars and a half per ton. His office is over Beerwart, Orth & Co's stove store.

The Rough and Ready fire company are fully installed in their new engine house, and have everything most costly and conveniently arranged. A harder working & more efficient fire company cannot be found in Illinois.

Our fellow-citizen, W. A. Sloe, Esq., was married yesterday, to Miss Abbie Goss. The ceremony was performed in Kalamazoo, Michigan. His friends in Cairo will unite with us in wishing him a world of domestic bliss.

The Athenaeum was filled to overflowing last night—the gift feature of the entertainment drawing out citizens who never before attended pieces of public amusement. The principal cash gift ($25 in greenbacks) was drawn by Mr. Schwank. The chief gift to-night will be a lumina in greenbacks.

Dr. C. Gerricks whose "mysterious disappearance" formed the subject of considerable speculation for St. Louis reporters, has "turned up" sound and hearty. He had merely been out of town on business—went out without "telling anybody"—and being missed, nobody could account for his absence. Hence the "mysterious disappearance."

STOLEN MONEY RECOVERED.—A THROUGHOUGH SEARCH.—Something over a week ago Bob and Jim Allison, two notorious outlaws, robbed Mr. Bruce Woodard, of Smith county, Tennessee, of sixteen hundred dollars cash, and giving their wives part of the money, left by rail for Memphis where they expected to meet their women who were ordered to come on by river.

Detective Ryan, of Memphis, arrested the Allison on their arrival, and telegraphed Arnold and Shannessy to keep a look out for the women. On the arrival of the steamer John Kyle, yesterday, Arnold and Shannessy went on board, found the women, took them to a hotel and searched them. A diligent search failed to disclose any portion of the stolen money, and the search was about to be abandoned.

As a last resort the women were ordered to divest themselves of their drawers. Their apparent consternation at this order confirmed the officers in the opinion that they were at last on the right track. The women protested it "was a shame," but the officers were inexorable. The undergarments called for were handed over, and securely sewed up in one pair of them, were $230 of the stolen money—a portion of which was identified by Mrs. Woodard as his own.

The women were sent back to Nashville, last night, where, within the walls of a prison, they will, probably, be permitted to join their husbands.

Closing Out Sale. Twenty-five thousand dollars worth of ready-made clothing, hats, caps, boots, shoes, trunks and valises are offered for sale by P. Neff, 79 Ohio Levee, at ACTUAL COST PRICES, it being his intention to close out in that line and embark exclusively in the furniture and merchant tailoring business.

This closing out sale furnishes an opportunity to secure clothing cheaper than ever before offered in this market.

A BRICK DWELLING HOUSE FOR SALE. A two story brick residence, admirably arranged, with large grounds (4 lots), situated on the corner of Holbrook avenue and Twenty-third street, will be sold on the most reasonable terms. It is located on high ground, in an excellent neighborhood, the grounds containing bearing fruit trees, vines and choice selections of shrubbery. It is, in short, one of the completest ones in the city.

Apply to W. H. THOMAS, At Thomas, Gre and Alden's

A beautiful Album, to be awarded by ballot to the MOST POPULAR YOUNG LADY in the city. A VERY FINE NEW PIANO which cost five hundred dollars, to be raffled for at one dollar per chance.

Nothing will be left undone to please all. Supper, fifty cents; admittance, 2 cents.

The public are invited to attend. Doors open at 7 o'clock p.m. Dec. 2 & Tue. F. & 19, 20 & 21.

LECTURE. As heretofore announced, the Rev. W. A. Bartlett, of Chicago, will deliver a lecture at the Athenaeum, on next Tuesday evening, the 20th, at half past seven o'clock.

Subject: "John Chinaman." Admittance 50 cents. Tickets for sale at the book store of W. B. Beckwith & Co., and H. A. Hannon.

Mr. Bartlett ranks among the first lecturers known to the country; and it is hoped that the universal satisfaction he gives when he lectures here three or four years ago, together with the importance and interest of the subject to be treated of, will bring out a large audience to hear him this time also. The evening certainly cannot be spent more profitably or pleasantly than by listening to the talented and eloquent gentleman.

By order of the Lecture Committee, Y. M. C. A.

The annual meeting for the election of five Directors will be held at this Bank, Tuesday, Jan. 16th, 1871, between the hours of 10 o'clock a.m. and 4 p.m.

C. H. HUGHES, Cashier.

RAFFLE AND FREE BALL.—A splendid gold-headed cane will be disposed of by raffia at Mrs. Gibson's, corner of Fourth and Commercial to-morrow evening at 75 cents a chance. A free ball will be given to which all are cordially invited. The cane is a very handsome and valuable one.

Customers may send their children and any kind of meat called for will be furnished, full weight and at the rates ruling the market. Patrie asks a share of patronage, and will guarantee full satisfaction in every instance.

The splendid run of custom enjoyed by Messrs. Goldstone & Rosenwater, 138 Commercial avenue, is due to the fact that they keep exactly what the trade demands, and sell everything at the lowest possible figures. Their Winter supply of ladies' dress goods, Irish poplins, merinos, lustras, alpaca; mix and other fine, black and brown shetlands and domestics, is unusually full, attractive, and will be sold at lower prices than like goods have been offered during the season.

They desire to call special attention to their stock of clothing, a large addition to which was received this day. Every article is of the best make, and the variety is so general that no one can fail to suit himself in style, quality of goods and price.

A large stock of white, colored and variegated yarns are offered at greatly reduced prices. In short, for anything in the dry goods and clothing line it will pay to go directly to Goldstone & Rosenwater, as they are in a condition to serve customers with anything in that line in the most satisfactory manner.

RIVER NEWS. ARRIVALS. Arlington, Columbus, Lida Norrell, Paducah, John Kyle, Cincinnati, W. B. Brown, Pomeroy, New York, St. Louis, H. Miller, Evansville, Grand Tower, St. Louis, J. Van Dine, Memphis, W. H. Brown, St. Louis, J. Van Dine, Memphis, St. Joseph, Memphis.

DEPARTURES. Arlington, Columbus, Lida Norrell, Paducah, Memphis, Memphis, John Kyle, Cincinnati, W. B. Brown, Pomeroy, New York, St. Louis, H. Miller, Evansville, Grand Tower, St. Louis, J. Van Dine, Memphis, W. H. Brown, St. Louis, J. Van Dine, Memphis, St. Joseph, Memphis.

The weather is again clear but the thermometer remains about the same. The thermometer indicated 32 degrees this morning, and the clear sunlight had not succeeded in raising it very much at noon.

The river is about stationary. The Mississippi is stationary at St. Louis, with six feet water above Cairo and ten feet below.

The Ohio is about stationary at Pittsburg, with eight feet water in the channel. It is rising at Louisville with three feet six inches in the chute down the falls and six feet over Fortland bar.

The Cumberland is falling with three feet on Harpeth shoals.

Business here continues good. The John Kyle, a new, splendid and capacious steamer, received 300 tons here for southern points.

The Mary Miller reloaded 40 tons assorted freight for points below Memphis, and received 10 tons here for Memphis.

The Norvell brought out 50 bbls hubs for Cairo, 11 caddies tobacco for I. C. R. R. 5 bbls tobacco, 57 bbls hubs, 23 pkgs hides, and dried fruit for St. Louis, 5 tons sundries for other points.

The Idlewild brought 300 bbls potatoes, 60 bales hay, 60 crops poultry, for shipment to New Orleans, and 25 tons assorted freight for other points.

The St. Joseph discharged 422 bales Eastern cotton, 300 sacks dried fruit here for the I. C. R. R.

Over 3,000,000 bushels of coal has left Pittsburg on the present water. About half a million bushels will come below Louisville surely, unless ice interrupts, and perhaps more can be spared from Louisville.

Captain Pogram's mammoth side wheel steamer, James Howard, is expected to descend the falls next Monday, and leave for St. Louis about the middle of the week.

Capt. Perry's new sternwheeler, John Howard, is completed at Louisville, and is about ready to start for the Arkansas river. She is to run between Little Rock and New Orleans, and is built expressly for carrying cotton.

The Mollie Able and W. J. Lewis are over due for New Orleans.

The Colorado is the regular packet for Memphis and Vicksburg this evening.

The Quaktop is the regular packet for Evansville to day.

The Lida Norvell leaves daily for Paducah.

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE. That Peter Neff, No. 79 Ohio Levee, is closing out his large and well selected stock of clothing, boots, shoes, hats, caps, trunks and valises, at and BELOW COST. It is his purpose to embark more extensively in the merchant tailoring and furnishing goods business—hence the desire to close out the stock above enumerated.

Boys, Girls, Parents, Everybody, Look Here! Boys, girls, fathers and mothers—these two paragraphs are especially dedicated to you. P. Neff, 102 Commercial avenue has brought on the largest stock of toys and confectionaries ever opened in Cairo. We shall not attempt to enumerate. We shall only say that the supply embraces everything yet invented to please, instruct and entertain little boys and girls. Many of the toys are highly ornamental; others are very curious, and all are fully forty per cent. cheaper than like articles were ever before offered in this market.

Little boys and girls, even folks of mature growth, find it impossible to pass Neff's establishment without stopping. The attractions inside are irresistible. And no wonder. Think of twenty-six large cases of toys—steamboats, locomotives, soldiers, horses, dogs, cats, elephants, dolls, toy furniture—toys that walk and cry—do everything but think and talk—animals that howl and bark and squeal and bellow—balls, marbles—things curious, things ingenious, things ornamental and all so cheap that anybody can secure a full supply for Christmas!

Then again there are the confections—the largest and best stock ever seen in Cairo. Candies, mint and gum drops, fancy candies and kisses—everything in the candy line, and all of the purest quality and most popular brand. But enough. If you want toys and confections for the holidays or any other days, there is one place where you can suit yourself beyond doubt, and that place is at P. Neff's 102 Commercial avenue.

Commercial

Thursday Evening, Dec. 15, 1870.

The general aspect of business remains unchanged, and there is not that activity which characterized the market last year at this time; but the same complaint is heard from every direction. The spring-like weather that has prevailed since the opening of the present season has had an effect upon business, and has not contributed anything to the advantage of our market. But there can be little doubt that, in a short time, the Mississippi above us will be rendered unnavigable by ice, and then we may anticipate an active and driving business campaign in Cairo.

It will be seen by our quotations, that the low grades of Flour find ready sale at improved prices, and that in the higher grades, although dull, a firmer feeling exists.

We report little activity in Oats, while Corn is in good demand.

FLOUR.—The demand for the low grades is good. The stock in the market of these grades is much reduced, and arrivals find ready sale at improved prices. The better grades are still dull, and find sale only as orders require, but we note a firmer feeling. The sales were—

50 bbls Low Super.....$4 10
100 " Super (winter wheat) from store 4 25
315 " Super to XXX.....4 00 to 50
50 " XX (winter wheat) from store.....4 75 to 50
200 " XX.....5 00
150 " XXX.....5 75 to 60
100 " XXXX (winter wheat) from store 5 75
100 " XXXX.....4 50 to 50

From City Mills we have reports of the following sales:—

50 bbls Super.....45 00
50 " Low Super.....4 75
100 " X.....5 25
150 " XX.....5 50
150 " XXX.....6 00
100 " XXXX.....7 00
50 " Family.....7 50

OATS.—Buyers and sellers apart, and no activity in the market. The sales reported were—

50 sacks, on order.....46
5 cases, on order.....46
[Oats are always quoted in this market in sacks and never in bulk. The printer made us quote them in bulk last week, and merchants have been considerably annoyed by the mistake.]

HAY.—Choice is in fair demand, but the lower grades are neglected. Sales were—

11 cars Mixed, delivered.....$16 50 to 20
" " on track.....17 00 to 18
" " Choice, on track.....18 00

CORN.—Is in fair demand, and receipts, we believe, find sale at quotations. Holders are generally firm. Sales were—

2 cars White, on order, delivered.....45
1 " Mixed, delivered.....45
50 sacks Mixed, delivered.....45
3 cars Mixed, in bulk.....42 to 44
1 " " from store, delivered.....50
4 " " (new harvest) " " " " 52 to 53
1 " " from store.....50

WHEAT.—Is in fair demand for milling, but receipts are very light.

CORN MEAL.—50 bbls. Steam Dried City Mills at $3.25, and 100 bbls. Kiln Dried at $3.00 comprise the sales since our last report.

BRAN.—70 tons from City Mills sold at $18.00 in sacks.

BUTTER.—The demand is very light. We have reports of sale of 4 1/2 bbls. Choice Northern at 32c, and 8 pkgs. Choice Southern Illinois at 30c. per lb.

EGGS.—The sales comprise 4 bbls, 2 boxes and 3 pkgs at 30c.

POULTRY.—Nothing doing in chickens. 5 coops turkeys sold at $15.00 @ $18.00 and 4 dozen Geese at $6.00.

APPLES.—25 bbls. Ordinary, sold at $2.50 @ 3.00, and 100 bbls. at $4.00 @ 4.50, according to quality.

POTATOES.—50 bushels Northern sold at 80c.

SUNDRIES.—3 bbls Sugar sold at 11 1/2 @ 14c; 5 bbls. Onions, from store, at $3.00; 25 bushels Common White Beans at $1.50; 10 bushels Choice Navy Beans at $1.75 @ 2.00.

SACKS.—Gunnies, 2 1/2 @ 23c; re-sewed Gunnies, 2 1/2 @ 24c; Burlaps: 2 1/2 bushels, corn, 15 @ 16c; 4 bushels, 16 @ 16c; 4 1/2 bushels, 18c; 5 bushels, 18c.

FREIGHTS.—Unchanged.

Faith Well Founded. In old times, at the commencement of every season, it was the fashion to take a strong cathartic as a safeguard against a change of temperature. It was a worse than senseless practice. The people of our day understand the matter better. Instead of depleting the system they reinforce it in the method they adopt they exhibit a wise determination. Instead of resorting to the vitiated stimulants of commerce, or any of the compounds derived from them, they put their faith in the only absolutely pure invigorant procurable in the market—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Their faith is well founded. Never has any tonic medicine been prepared with such scrupulous precision and conscientious care. It is a vegetable compound of which every ingredient is sound, wholesome, and "in-tention" in the true sense of the word. Now, we have three prominent national complaints. One-half the adult population of the United States suffer more or less, either from diseases of the stomach, derangements of the liver, or affections of the kidneys.
