

BAUMAN & HAUENSTEINE, CIVIL AND MECHANICAL ENGINEERS AND ARCHITECTS. Bross' Building, corner Eleventh st. and Commercial ave., Cairo, Ill.

THE BULLETIN. Published every morning, Monday excepted.

SINFUL AND SEMI-RELIGIOUS. (Brief Notes of what we saw, Heard and Thought Yesterday.)

—Capt. Halliday is at St. John's. —Safford is "visiting around" in New England. —Paul G. Schuh sells Rattinger's medicines. —Many of our citizens are absent at the state fair. —The Cairo Knight Templars have been lost by the way-side. —Shrives celebrated 11 o'clock lunch oysters at Jorgensen's. —A quorum of the city council could not be obtained last night. —The telegraph wires were down last night and we obtained no report. —The work of repairing the sidewalks is being rapidly proceeded with. —Judge Baker adjourned court yesterday evening until Monday morning. —The proposition to build a new jail is gaining friends. It will be voted up. —The letterist, in all its pretense glory and liveliness, appears in our columns this morning. —Col. Taylor is still in New York. He will return home about the middle of next week. —The services at the Methodist church last night were of a very interesting description. —Halley is doing a rushing business in heating stoves. He sells the best at the lowest prices. —Work on the new Catholic church is progressing rapidly. What has Hughey to say about it? —Business is becoming decidedly more active. Our merchants "look as smiling as a basket of chips." —The St. Louis fair is the coming sensation. A large number of our citizens are making arrangements to attend it. —Our minister has no hesitation in saying that Stratton & Bird's mackerals are the best he ever tasted, and he is a judge. —Policeman Sumner has resigned his position on the police force, and Henry Martin is an applicant for the vacant place. —Hooper, who made the temperance talk yesterday morning before the Methodist Conference, has a forcefully and wonderfully sing-song voice. —When we got through with the preachers we shall take occasion to reply to some of the captious objections that have been made to the proposed system. —City Clerk Howley was engaged yesterday in removing the "city traps" to the new quarters of the council, on the corner of Commercial avenue and Twelfth street. —There was not one ordinance broker before the police court yesterday. Ato we to attribute this gratifying fact to the absence of the Methodist Conference in our midst? —Brother Tolle informed us yesterday that since the day he flogged a school mate, he has never been afraid of anything that walks on two legs—except a woman. —We stated that Brother Houts was the oldest member of the conference, but we were mistaken. If Houts is the father, the venerable Vantrees is the grand father of the conference. —J. Burger, the enterprising dry-goods merchant, appears in our advertising columns this morning. He has one of the most complete and finest stocks of goods ever before brought to Cairo. —It was suggested by Dr. Hitchcock that one of his debtors would no doubt turn up all right. A presiding elder responded that he would, because the debtor was a downright man. Rather good for a presiding elder. —McHale is not being patronized as he should be. Prisoners come to him now only at long intervals. He is not making his salt information which will, doubtless, make the breast of Councilman Wood glow with intense satisfaction. —We have been asked to retract our assertion that the laymen are uglier men than the ministers. We can't, unless it is admitted that "handsome is as handsome does." Under this rule our decision would be that the laymen are handsomer than the preachers. —State's Attorney McCartney has been very successful during this term of court. None of his indictments have been quashed. He has a right to. We hope he may improve the shining hour and gather honey all the day from every opening flower. —Mr. Miller, the radical candidate for county treasurer, has been told by somebody who is not well posted that his calling and election are sure, and he has learned to believe what somebody has told him. Miller, dear, lay not this flattering unctuous to your soul. You cannot succeed. You are Billy Martin's meat. —Dr. Bond, of Grand Tower, is the best looking lay delegate in the city, and Brother Houts the most comely minister. We are unable to decide which lay delegate is entitled to the credit of being the ugliest, but we conscientiously believe that Brother Tolle can hold his own in uncomeliness among the preachers.

have their money dropping on by one, and which shall seem to us its poor one hold we cannot guess. It is not to insure your life—in the "Life Association of America." —The most popular shoe shop in town is on 20th street opposite the court house hotel, where Wm. Ehlers manufactures boots and shoes for his customers, warranted to be of the best French calf, kip or morocco, and which he guarantees to give entire satisfaction. Call on him and you will know how it is yourself. —Our friend, Ward, since he was butchered by the radical clique, has become as modest as we are. He shrinks from the public gaze, and is attempting to persuade himself that it is his duty to kiss the rod that flogged him in such a shameful manner. A pat or two from the hand of Munn—a little smooching down—will bring him to town. —Mr. F. Rose has removed his tailoring establishment to his new store, at No. 104 Commercial avenue. He keeps on hand a splendid assortment of piece goods which he will make up for his customers in a manner warranted to suit. He employs only the best workmen, and gives his personal attention to the business. Perfect fits guaranteed. Prices reasonable. Call and see him. —The man, Hooper, who sang a temperance speech before the Methodist conference yesterday, is like a smooth-bore gun and scatters terribly. Starting on temperance he denounced the Catholic church and democratic judges, and puffed whisky-drinking sinners with lots of money. To such sinners Hooper declared he "swung on." —The Chicago Beer Saloon, Wm. Schick, proprietor, Nos. 26 and 28 Eighth street, is a favorite place of resort with all lovers of Weiss Beer, Liquors of every description, and all kinds of foreign and home wines. No ordinary liquors are dispensed at the bar of the saloon—only the very best, and guests find in attendance polite and accommodating waiters. A free lunch is spread every day at 10 o'clock a.m. —Brother M. L. King, who wanted his satchel, writes to us as follows: "As you noticed in your paper of this morning my inquiry after my satchel, I wish to say that I have found it; and as I expected, it was taken purely through mistake. All right." Brother King must permit us to congratulate him. His satchel was necessary to his happiness. A Methodist preacher without his satchel is like a toper without his toddy. —Peter Saup has opened a bran new oyster saloon, 102 Commercial avenue, where he will keep on hand constantly fresh oysters, the largest and most delicious in the city, which he will sell by the case, can or dozen. The saloon has been fitted up with the express view of supplying gentlemen and ladies with a place where they may enjoy a meal of these toothsome bivalves quietly, without being disturbed by the bustle and noise incidental to the commonplace restaurant oyster room. —ARRESTED.—A well-known citizen of this city was a day, or two since, before one of our city magistrates for being drunk and disorderly. He was fined the usual amount—$9.00. After the trial was over he might have been heard soliloquizing, thusly: "Now, this is the second time I have been up before a magistrate for the same offense. I might have known it if I had gone to Alva's in the first place and got one of those smooth, clean, delicious shaves that Alva is known to give to every one who patronizes him, this would not have happened." Therefore, reader, take warning and always go to Alva's barber shop, Commercial avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets. —"A Catholic," in this issue of THE BULLETIN, pays his respects to the Rev. Mr. Hughey, who, by his persistent industry knocking chips off the shoulders of his Christian neighbors, has earned the reputation of a very quarrelsome "worker in the vineyard." Of late days, Mr. Hughey has somewhat modified his combative disposition, and even announces that, in his opinion, a democrat may be a passably good man—honest and true. There is, therefore, we venture to predict, hope for Mr. Hughey, and we expect that, when he has retired from the work of annihilating Catholicism and driving from the earth King Alcohol and the devil, he will have tamed down into a very gentle and amiable follower of his Master, whose example of meekness and love, Mr. Hughey has thus far in life entirely neglected to follow. —The Pulaski Patriot says: "A Sabbath day in Cairo is not without interest to one who desires to make human nature, and find depravity, a study. It is here we find the conglomerate, incongruous nondescript not elsewhere to be found out side of — The heathen Chinese can be distinguished by three-score-in ways that are dark." Whisky and profanity are the order of the Sabbath day. In point of morals, Sodom or Gomorra could beat them by a baker's dozen, and have a few left. Yet we are not severe on Cairo, as a whole, for brothers Oberly, Davis and Moses the good, likewise some other God-fearing, and it is hoped, righteous and well-disposed persons are around there. This is rascally abuse, and we challenge the Patriot man to produce the proof. There is not, we assert, a more orderly city in the country than Cairo, or a city in which there is less intemperance. The Patriot editor, when he visits Cairo, seeks the companionship of debauchees fresh from Paducah, and lays at our door all their sins and vileness, which he is competent to discount a hundred per centum and then beat out of sight; but we deny that he can find among the resident population of Cairo anything to justify his defamation of our city's good name. For years THE BULLETIN labored to make Cairo, and our laborers were crowned with success. Our city now shines with unrivaled brilliancy, a fact which give to us great pleasure and justifies us in claiming for THE BULLETIN the title of the great moral and religious journal of Egypt.

FOR RENT.—Five rooms over the city council chamber. Enquire of Jacob G. Lynch.

THE CONFERENCE.

REPORT OF THE THIRD DAY'S PROCEEDINGS. ELECTION OF DELEGATES TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE. THE CHARACTER OF TURNEY, THE GENIUS AND PRODIGY. Conference convened at the stated hour. Minutes were read, corrected and approved. BROTHER JOHNSON. Brother Robbins moved to reconsider the vote by which the relation of Brother Johnson was fixed, and he admitted without a claim. Carried. On motion, the words "without a claim" were struck out, and the motion to admit Brother Johnson adopted as amended. RETIRED. The committee on examination of candidates for admission into full connection were permitted to retire for the purpose of examining Brother Cecil. GREETING TO THE LAYMEN. Brother Houts moved a committee of three to extend the congratulations of the conference to the electoral conference of laymen. Carried, and brothers Houts, Corrington and Hill named as the committee. INTRODUCED. Brother Hooper, of the Illinois Conference, was introduced. RE-ADMITTED. Presiding Elder Massey moved that Brother W. M. Owen be re-admitted to the traveling connection. Carried. REPORT. The stewards made a report in reference to widows of ministers who are beneficiaries of the conference. COMMUNICATIONS. A communication from the Illinois Conference on the temperance question was read, and Brother Hooper, the bearer of the communication, addressed the conference. The communication was sent to the committee on temperance. A communication in reference to temperance was referred to the appropriate committee. A communication in reference to a Methodist daily paper was sent to the appropriate committee. A communication from the book agents and bishops in reference to the expenses of delegates to the general conference was read. The estimate made was as follows: Expenses Ministerial Delegates, $25,000.00 Expenses of Lay Delegates, 12,000.00 Expense of Delegates from Asia Africa and Europe, 8,000.00 Total, $45,000.00 Of this amount, $4,350 were assessed on Illinois, as follows: On Southern Illinois Conference, $ 750.00 On Illinois Conference, 1,300.00 On Central Illinois Conference, 900.00 On Rock River Conference, 1,400.00 Total, $4,350.00 The communication was referred to the Presiding Elders with instructions to apportion the amount assessed on Southern Illinois Conference among the districts. ORDERED. It was ordered that Brother Robinson's conference sermon be published in the Central Advocate. BROTHER CECIL. Nothing against him. Missionary collection, $10. Committee reported, and he was admitted to full connection and elected to deacons' orders. BROTHER TURNEY. When the case of Brother Turney was taken up, Presiding Elder Morris said that he could not give a full description of the peculiarities of this peculiar man. During the past year Turney had been appointed to the Woodburn circuit, and he (the elder) soon became convinced that Turney was the wrong man in the right place. "Within four weeks after Brother Turney commenced his work," said the elder, "I received a communication signed by three-fourths of the people of Woodburn circuit, asking the young man's removal. I could not remove him and induced the disgusted people to agree to bear their burden. At the end of six months I was compelled to request Turney to resign. He complied. Turney is a prodigy in many respects. He has a wonderful knowledge of the bible and of other books. It seems to me he has but to read a book to have it at his tongue's end. In an argument he is able, but is too combative. Before he went to Woodburn I told him of his failing and he promised to be wise, but he got into trouble immediately. He professes to be devoutly religious, but I do not wish to decide that question. It seems to me many of his acquaintances that he is not as good as his professions indicate. At one place he conducted services without a word of prayer. He had forgotten all about prayer. In short he is peculiar." Brother Houts moved to continue Brother Turney. Brother Van Winkle thought the conference would do itself an injury by continuing Brother Turney. "There is," said Brother Van Winkle, "no hope for him. In the committee we asked him to give Watson's definition of a miracle. He turned to a book of manuscript of his own, and read his own definition of a miracle. He then informed us that the definition was not Watson's, but was a great deal better. Finally he became so disgusting that the committee were compelled to inform him that he must not be so insolent. Brother Turney will not do. He is a man of too much uncommon sense for this conference." The Bishop here put in a word about Brush college. Brother Hooper said: "My heart quivers for Brother Turney. I once conducted services without prayer, and then went into the woods and made up for the mistake." And more of the same sort, all of which hadn't much to do with Turney. Brother Corrington was for Brother Turney. He thought he might be saved. Brother Houts also wanted to save Brother Turney, who was a genius, a prodigy. Brother Hughey had talked to Brother Turney. "Brother Turney is, I admit, eccentric, but he has elements of power, such as no other young man in the conference has. His book upon the Sabbath is a wonderful book. There is hope for the man. He knows his deficiencies, and is trying to improve. He said to me: 'I know I have no common sense; learn me how to learn sense.'" Brother Blair wanted to know. Brother Phillips wanted to talk about Brother Turney's improprieties in families. "They are terrible," said Brother Phillips and closed his eyes, while an expression of regretful horror irradiated his countenance. As he was about to proceed he was cut short by a motion that laid Brother Turney over for future consideration. THE ELECTION. The conference then proceeded to elect five delegates to the General Conference. Brothers Phillips, Hughey and Powers were appointed tellers. Brothers Corrington, the elder, said he had decided nine months ago to not be a candidate for delegate, and he didn't want a single vote. It was decided that the five members receiving the highest number of votes should be the delegates. The first ballot resulted as follows: Whole number of votes, 119; necessary to a choice, 60. R. Allyn, 169 J. W. Hughey, 98 J. Vanceleve, 100 C. P. Joy, 76 C. J. Houts, 32 B. R. Pierce, 55 B. J. Grant, 27 W. S. Sly, 17 J. S. Morrison, 17 J. H. Robinson, 21 J. W. Lane, 4 H. Sears, 4 J. W. Phillips, 3 J. H. Eaton, 3 Jno. Hill, 4 G. W. Corrington, 2 G. W. Robbins, 2 Jas. Johnson, 1 A. B. Nesbit, 1 J. W. Lowe, 1 J. C. Green, 1 F. L. Thompson, 2 J. C. Finley, 1 T. H. Herdman, 2 L. A. Harper, 1 L. B. Dennis, 1 J. D. Gilliam, 1 J. B. Corrington, 1 J. P. Davis, 2 L. C. English, 1 Brothers Allyn, Hughey, Vanceleve and Joy were declared elected. A second ballot was taken and Brother D. R. Pierce elected the fifth delegate. Brothers Houts and Robinson were then elected reserved delegates. THE EIGHTH QUESTION.—Who are the superannuated preachers? Brother C. P. Clifford was laid over, and Brother J. B. Curen made effective. The present relations of Brothers G. W. Culloms, F. M. Woodard, J. W. Caldwell and Nelson Hawley were continued. ADMITTED. Brother A. C. Fleisher, Missionary collection, $19. Committee reported, and he was admitted to full connection. Brother W. M. Morrow, Missionary collection, $20. Elected to elders' orders. Brother Westman, Missionary collection, $36.90. Elected to elders' orders, and placed on the supernumerary list. THE LAYMEN. Messrs. J. B. Turner, D. A. Bond and F. N. Waggoner, a committee for the Electoral Conference of Laymen, appeared before the conference and announced that their body was ready to receive communications and advice. The Bishop instructed the committee, and they retired. THE FOURTH QUESTION. The committee reported on the following brothers, who were examined for the third year, and it was announced that there was nothing against either of them. Brother W. H. Tiner; missionary collection, $70 Brother D. W. Phillips; missionary collection, $50. Brother W. S. Sly; missionary collection, $34.50. Brother R. Fahs; missionary collection, $29. Brother R. Thatcher; missionary collection, $25. Brother C. E. Cline; missionary collection, $31.50. Brother J. J. Boyer; missionary collection, $9.75. Brother W. F. Whitaker; missionary collection, $29. Brother C. W. Sabine; missionary collection, $29. Brother J. R. Reef; missionary collection, $26. RETIRED. The Bishop placed Brother Corrington in the chair and retired. PETITIONS. Several petitions for permission to sell church property were read, and the prayers granted. ALLY'S ADDRESS. It was ordered that Brother Allyn's address on ministerial education be spread at length upon the minutes. APPOINTMENT. The committee appointed to apportion to the several districts the amount of $1,300 asked for to liquidate the indebtedness of the missionary treasury reported as follows: To Lebanon, $225 To Alton, 225 To Vandalia, 200 To Olney, 225 To Mt. Vernon, 175 To Du Quoin, 150 To Cairo, 100 Conference adjourned. CIRCUIT COURT. [Judge David J. Baker, presiding; J. P. McCartney, prosecuting attorney; Jno. G. Harman, clerk; A. H. Irvin, sheriff.] Most of the day, yesterday, was consumed in the argument of the case of the people vs. McElvey. At about 5 o'clock the case was given to the jury, who returned a verdict of manslaughter, and fixed the term of confinement in the penitentiary at three years. A motion for a new trial was made. A full panel of petit jurors was ordered to be summoned by the sheriff and court adjourned until Monday morning next. JUST RECEIVED.—W. W. Thornton Tenth street between Commercial avenue and Poplar street, has just received and in store 1,000 doors and 1,000 windows and mouldings.

THE LAYMEN.

REPORT OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THEIR CONFERENCE. ELECTION OF TWO DELEGATES TO GENERAL CONFERENCE. The Electoral S. I. Conference of Laymen went into session at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian church. The business of the body was preceded by a prayer meeting for one hour, conducted by Brother R. L. Smith, of Eddyville. The singing was hearty, and earnest prayers were sent up to the heavenly throne for that guidance which would enable the conference to do all things in their deliberations to the glory of God and the furtherance of the interests of the church. Immediately following the devotional exercises, Brother Col. Peters, of Metropolis, was called to the chair and Brother E. Callahan, of Robinson, appointed temporary secretary, after which a committee of eight was selected on credentials, each district selecting one committeeman. The following members composed the committee: Lebanon, Judge J. B. Manners; Alton, E. Butler; Vandalia, Dr. H. F. Hamilton; Mt. Carmel, Wm. Kingsbury; Du Quoin, Wm. Easterly; Cairo, V. G. Kimble. While the committee was out, by order of the conference, a collection for incidental expenses was taken up. The committee examined credentials of delegates and made their report, which was accepted. On motion, one from each district was appointed on a committee on permanent organization. The following members were chosen: Lebanon, J. Loter; Alton, Thos. Kirkland; Vandalia, D. W. Wood; Olney, Jason Carson; Du Quoin, Chas. T. Pace; Mt. Vernon, W. W. Peck; Cairo, John Mitchell. After consultation the committee reported the following officers, which were unanimously confirmed by acclamation of the house. President, Benj. Hynes, of Lebanon; Vice President, Braxton Parish, of Benton; Secretary, E. Callahan, of Robinson; Asst. Secretary, Jas. P. Turner, Shawneetown. A committee of three was next appointed by the chair to wait upon the South Illinois Annual Conference now in session at the M. E. church, to notify them of the permanent organization of the Electoral Conference of Laymen. Dr. Bond, Bro. Turner, and Dr. Waggoner were selected as such committee. The following committee on resolutions was chosen, and ordered to report at 2 o'clock. Lebanon, Benjamin Hughes; Alton, John Smith; Vandalia, Isaac Bunday; Mt. Carmel, J. B. Turner; Du Quoin, Wm. Peck; Mt. Vernon, Wm. Stoker; Cairo, Wm. Looney. At 11 o'clock, a committee, composed of Rev. C. P. Houts, J. B. Corrington and J. B. Hill, from the Conference of Ministers was presented, and extended their grateful greetings to the lay conference. Rev. C. J. Houts said he was authorized by the Convention of Ministers to extend the greetings of that body to the Conference of Laymen; that he was willing to give laymen a trial in the general conference, and heartily welcomed their presence among them; that the present state of the church demanded their co-operation; that he congratulated them upon this their first lay conference; that he was authorized by the Bishop to say that he would be glad to receive a delegation from the laymen and hear anything that they might wish to say, and wanted the laymen to engage in a united meeting to exchange congratulations and fraternal greetings of brotherly love. Rev. Mr. Corrington, said that the laymen's conference was in its incipency—its unformed stage; that he voted for the lay delegation; that they ought, in his opinion, have a voice in the business of the church; that they have talented men, etc., among them, which they are willing to consecrate to the church, and ought to be represented; that they will operate as conservators. He heartily and cordially hoped they would have abundant success in all their efforts to help promote the interests of the church through this channel. Rev. Mr. Hill said he was glad to meet the lay delegation, with Brothers Corrington and Houts; that he voted for the lay delegation, and thanked God for gathering around them such a company of laymen. He was glad to have their co-operation in extending the gospel over the world. A committee of three was then appointed to convey fraternal greetings to the S. I. Conference of Ministers, at the head of the body of laymen, at 3 o'clock. Brothers E. Callahan, Dr. Bond and Johnson were appointed as such committee. Adjourned to 1 1/2 o'clock. The session closed with the song, "A Charge to Keep I Have." AFTERNOON SESSION. The conference met at half-past one, and immediately proceeded to elect two delegates. The first ballot resulted as follows: Total number of votes, 83; necessary to a choice, 42. E. Callahan, 44 J. B. Turner, 33 Benj. Hughes, 23 John Stoker, 29 N. Bond, 18 E. Lilliston, 4 Jno. Wilson, 2 Jno. Mitchell, 2 S. K. Turner, 1 V. Kinball, 1 W. Waggoner, 1 R. P. Johnson, 1 H. T. Hart, 1 W. Peck, 1 Dr. McCurdy, 1 Dr. Parrish, 1 E. Easterly, 2 E. Callahan, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared duly elected, and the conference proceeded to vote again. The ballot resulted in the election of Wm. Stoker, who, on motion of

FOR THE ST. LOUIS FAIR.

The Fair steamer R. P. Whit, Capt. W. H. Blake, will leave Cairo Sept. 30, at 10 o'clock p. m., for St. Louis, arriving Monday morning. Sol. Silver, Passenger Agent. RIVER NEWS. PORT LIST. ARRIVED. Steamer Colorado, Vicksburg; James Fisk, Paducah; Oceanus, St. Louis; Illinois, Columbus; John Kyle, New Orleans; Virginia, New Orleans; A. Baker, Cape Girardeau. DEPARTED. Steamer Colorado, St. Louis; Jas. Fisk, Jr., Paducah; Oceanus, New Orleans; Illinois, Columbus; Virginia, St. Louis. The Ohio is still falling slowly, and since our last report has fallen one-half inch with ten and one-half inches on Back Rock. At Evansville the river has risen a couple of inches, which is caused by slight rise in Green River. At Louisville it is on a steady decline, with less than foot on Portland bar. The Mississippi again falling. The arrivals and departures were so limited yesterday that the levee presented dull appearance. The weather was clear and cool, with a slight frost in the morning. The James Fisk did not arrive until a early hour yesterday morning on her Thursday trip. She took the trip of the Dick Johnson at Paducah, and started down, drawing several inches more water than there was on the Chain, and the result was, she got aground and was detained about thirteen hours. Her trip consisted of about 100 tons assorted shipping freight. The Colorado came up light from Vicksburg. There is only 2 1/2 inches water in the channel to St. Louis than during the low water of 1863. Captain John Crane is a lucky man; more than one command of the fine steamer Belle Memphis, which is one of the most popular boats on the river. Lucky because he has the people's favorite, Billy Blanke for his cashier, and lucky again because he has won the thousand dollar horse on a buggy of Flem Calberts at a raffle in Memphis, which he got for the small sum of ten dollars. Charley Parsons, the great, held the "posish" of first clerk on the Silver Bow at the time she sunk. He is now in our city patiently awaiting her arrival. The physical "phiz" of Phil Howard, the great steambait butcher, is to be seen every steamer that comes into this port. Phil is going to write a book, entitled "What I know about music (not in a horn) but in a hot shell." He will have 1,000,000 copies struck off, so that each of his friends may get one. The Virginia reported 6 feet to Memphis, and yellow fever had at Vicksburg, and Natchez. The Oceanus had a fair trip for New Orleans and added considerable here. She landed at the Silver Bow and reported that she can be easily raised. The water did not get over her main deck, but just came up to the mooring. All the freight on deck will be saved, in good condition, but that in the hold will be damaged. The John Kyle arrived during the afternoon, from New Orleans, with a barge in tow, and had about 600 tons of freight on board. She will not go to St. Louis, but takes the Merrill's load and goes back from here. The Merrill did not depart as was reported. Her captain received a dispatch from Commodore Davidson telling him to wait for the Kyle and reship his trip on her. The Merrill will probably be put in between here and St. Louis, to bring out freight for the Davidson line. The Malle Ragan was behind at Paducah and turned back from there and reshipped her trip on the Fisk. The Kellogg is still here, awaiting the arrival of the Atlantic. She will take the three barges being brought out by the Atlantic, and the Atlantic returns to St. Louis. The Virginia discharged here 30 bbls oil, 50 bales rags and 14 bbls hides. The Louisville had got off as she passed Point Pleasant. THE best medicine for chills and fever is Dr. Rattinger's fever drops. The best medicine for biliousness, costiveness and impurity of the blood is Dr. Rattinger's vegetable Liver Pills. se 27d&wlv FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE FOR CAIRO PROPERTY.—I HAVE ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY acres of first-class improved land in Johnson county, which I will sell on reasonable terms, or exchange for Cairo city property. CHEAPEST AND BEST.—Mrs. Whitcomb's Syrup for children is sold by druggists for 25 cents a bottle, and is an admirable preparation for infantile disorders.
