THE GREAT FIRES.

THE DESTRUCTION IN WISCONSIN.

HUNDREDS BURNED TO DEATH.

FEARFUL SUFFERING OF THE PEOPLE.

FOUR FIRES IN CHICAGO ON FRIDAY.

INCENDIARIES AT WORK.

A SHORT SHIFT TO SUSPECTED PARTIES.

JANESVILLE, Wis., October 13.—Gov. Fairchild telegraphed the following from Green Bay, in relation to the Wisconsin fires, to-night:

The appalling calamity has not been exaggerated. Over 3,000 men, women and children are now destitute. The loss of life has been very great—not less than 500 persons have been burned at Peshtigo and vicinity, and 300 on the eastern shore.

Scores of men, women and little children are now in temporary hospitals, burned and maimed, in want of money, clothing, bedding, boots, shoes and provisions of all kinds not cooked, also building materials and everything needed by a family to commence life with.

The people are responding nobly, but there is no danger of being too much received. The destitute must be provided for during the winter.

MILWAUKEE, October 13.—Col. D. Robinson, of the Green Bay Advocate, telegraphs to the mayor as follows: Northern steamer just in. Doctor Nichols of your city and other passengers bring the terrible news that 470 dead bodies have been found at Peshtigo and vicinity, and it is thought that the loss of life will reach 700. This is exclusive of the east shore where the loss of life is fearful

COMBUSTIBLE MANUFACTORIES.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—The mayor has issued the following proclamation:

All sash, door and lumber manufactories, and other manufactories from which danger by fire is to be apprehended, are hereby prohibited from operating or running until public notice is given of a full supply of water throughout the city mains.
(Signed) R. B. MASON, Mayor.

FIRE ALARM SOUNDED.

There was quite an excitement caused this afternoon at about two o'clock by the discovery of a fire in the sidewalk of Madison street, between Union and Halsted streets, caused, doubtless, by the dropping of a cigar stump. The flames were quickly extinguished by the passers.

A SECOND ALARM

came a few moments later from three miles west of State street, caused by the discovery of flames issuing from a small barn situated on Western avenue. The building was isolated so that the fire could not extend, but the house was consumed. Great apprehension was felt down town, however, as the wind was blowing almost a gale at the time.

Still later a fire broke out in a stable on the South Side, near the corner of Michigan avenue and Peck court. The engines hurried to the spot, and by pumping water from the lake, succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

THE WORK OF INCENDIARIES.

There is little doubt that in these two latter cases the fire was the work of an incendiary.

BANKS WORKING.

Most of the banks resumed business today, and will pay depositors 15 per cent immediately, and the balance in installments.

SUMMARY PUNISHMENT.

Many cases are reported where alleged incendiaries and extortionists have met a violent end, and among others, it is said that a cigar dealer on the south side employed a teamster to haul his wares for a short distance, and while going towards a place of safety was stopped by a special policeman, who, on learning that the teamster demanded ten dollars for moving one load, shot him on the spot.

A SCARE.

At the fire on Michigan avenue General Sheridan was present. Many families in the vicinity packed their trunks and moved portions of furniture into the street, near the scene.

The Commercial insurance company, of Chicago, have put their assets into the hands of a receiver.

NO OIL AND NO SMOKING ALLOWED.

The mayor has issued an order restricting the use of kerosene oil, and also forbidding the smoking of pipes and cigars in the streets. This last order is caused by the fire under the sidewalk on Madison street, which was caused by a lighted cigar, and came very near producing a disastrous conflagration.

REPORTER IN TROUBLE.

The reporter of the Mail, named Fitzgerald, was last evening by a citizen patrol in the south side as an incendiary, and an excited crowd of roughs tried to hang him. Before being rescued by the military he was badly bruised and his head cut.

BAD PLACE FOR ROGUES.

There is considerable excitement throughout the city to-day, relative to the reported incendiary attempts to-day. The Chief of Police has issued strict orders to arrest all suspicious persons.

LEAVING THE CITY.

It is estimated that twenty thousand persons have left the city in the last twenty-four hours.

The Pittsburg fire engines left for home to-day.

LADIES AT WORK.

Miss Phoebe Couzins and other zealous ladies have been actively at work in relieving the necessities of the needy.

ANOTHER FIRE

occurred at half past eight o'clock tonight, but was promptly extinguished. There is a widespread fear that the city is overrun with incendiaries, and there are fourteen suspected parties now in custody.

There have been instances where innocent parties have been roughly handled, but the feeling is in favor of all who are unquestionably caught in the act.

RELIEF FRAUDS.

Father McMullen, a leading Catholic priest, to-day requested the relief committee to discontinue relief to the Irish, as frauds were being perpetrated. All such cases were to be referred to him.
