THE DOLLAR WEEKLY BULLETIN. John H. Oberly & Co. have reduced the subscription price of the Weekly Cairo Bulletin to One Dollar per annum, making it the cheapest paper published in Southern Illinois.

STATE TICKET. For Representative in Congress for the State-at-Large. S. S. HAYES. For State Senator, WILLIAM G. BOWMAN. COUNTY TICKET. For Treasurer and Treasurer, WILLIAM MARTIN. For Surveyor, JOHN P. HELY.

TUESDAY, next, is election day. DEMOCRATS, vote on Tuesday next. DON'T NEGLECT TO VOTE for Hely for county surveyor.

VOTE FOR WILLIAM MARTIN for county treasurer. He has been and will be a faithful officer.

MERTZ was a know-nothing, and is a hater of all foreign-born citizens—except during a political canvass.

TUESDAY, next, is election day, which fact let all democrats be careful to not forget; and, remembering it, on Tuesday do not forget to vote.

MERTZ is an inciter of riots, a disturbing element in his community, and just the man of all others who should not have a seat in the Illinois senate.

THE WASHINGTON woman's reform club have formally resolved that in the political enfranchisement of women lies the chief and radical remedy for the social evil.

VOTE FOR WILLIAM G. BOWMAN, democratic candidate for the state senate. He will make an honest, intelligent and diligent representative of his constituents.

DON'T VOTE FOR BEVERIDGE, radical candidate for congress. He is a free love advocate, a woman's suffrage champion, a sort of a he-woman. He will never do.

VOTE FOR HAYES for representative in congress from the state at large. He is the man to represent Illinois in the lower house of congress at this particular juncture in our affairs.

IT IS SAID a five-year-old girl of Cambridge, Mass., sent her three dolls to Chicago. She should have done like her Boston neighbors and telegraphed first to ask in what manner she could aid the sufferers.

FATHER YOUNG, a venerable priest of Washington City, D. C., who performed the marriage ceremony of the Hon. Thomas Ewing in the year eight hundred and twenty, attended him in his dying hours, and assisted at his funeral.

IT WOULD be a shame to ask Mr. Miller to give up the commission and forwarding business to do the duties of treasurer and assessor of Alexander county. It would be a great shame to make this request. Vote for Martin and allow Miller to continue on in the even tenor of his business way. By doing so you will oblige him.

DON'T VOTE FOR OLD MERTZ! He would be a senator that nobody would be satisfied with—that everybody in the first district would be ashamed of. He is distinguished only by a plentiful lack of ability and as the possessor of a wonderful amount of personal and political malice. Old Mertz senator! Heaven and the voters of the first senatorial district forbid!

MR. MILLER, republican candidate for treasurer don't want to be elected, and cannot attend to the duties of the office if he should be. He was nominated by men who wish to get control of the county's money—not for dishonest purposes, we admit, but as an aid to their business. That is all Miller's nomination meant. Don't vote for him.

MR. BEVERIDGE, radical candidate for congressman for the state at large, is a very earnest advocate of woman's suffrage, is a correspondent of Woodhull and Claflin's low paper and endorses the free love doctrines of those pestiferous strumpets. He is, at best, very little of a man, possesses no manliness and is out of his proper fellowship when he is not among the woman-right suffragists—women who walk with long steps, and men who part their hair in the middle. MR. HAYES, democratic candidate for congressman from the state at large, is an able man, with a reputation not restricted by state lines, while Mr. Beveridge is generally known as a very weak man, unfit for any office which requires ability above the dead level of mediocrity. Beveridge in congress would be lost to view, but if Hayes were returned, he would make his mark and exercise an influence which would be effective and of great benefit to the country.

MR. WILLIAM MARTIN, democratic candidate for county treasurer, is a gentleman well-known in Alexander county, where he has lived many years, and in the prosperity of which all his hopes are centered. His life has been pure, and his honesty is above reproach. He has many warm friends and is respected by all his acquaintances. In the office of assessor he has been impartial, and has performed its duties faithfully. There is no good reason that can be urged against his re-election. We hope his friends will turn out and vote for him on Tuesday next. If they do, his majority will astonish the radical ring who have nominated Mr. Miller for the purpose of getting control of the revenues of the county.

OF ALL the thieves of the radical party, it has been reserved for Secretary Boutwell to carry off the palm. Other stealings, though called pretty good things, yet all come under the head of what has been denominated "trash" by the immortal bard. But Boutwell stole the product of another man's brains, and for two years has been sailing under false colors as the man whose financial genius placed gold on a par with greenbacks. Two million dollars is rather a high price to pay for the theft, but this is the amount of damages claimed by Mr. Galin, the man who proclaims himself the originator of Boutwell's scheme. He will scarcely recover the amount, but if he learns from this bit of experience never to "dicker" with a radical office holder—and the more prominent he is the more danger—the knowledge will be worth a million or so to him during his life.

WE earnestly urge the democrats of Cairo and the country precincts of Alexander county to go to the polls on Tuesday next and vote the democratic ticket. If there could be secured a general rally of the democratic party at the polls the state would give to Hayes, the democratic candidate for congressman from the state at large, a very large majority; but the danger is, that apathy may keep too many from casting their ballots. This fact should be borne in mind; that it is the duty of every voter who believes the country unsafe in radical hands to cast his ballot at every election in the direction of his belief. The faithful performance of this duty will inevitably result in the defeat of the radical party; but if each conservative, discouraged by defeat, shall say: "Let others save the country, I am tired of making effort," the battle is surely lost to the friends of good government. Turn out, then, conservative friends, on next Tuesday, and vote the entire democratic ticket.

THE ANTI-WOMEN WOMEN of Washington City have determined on a movement by which they hope to knock the pins from under the plans of the Woodhull and Claflin faction. Mrs. Admiral Dahlgren, Mrs. General Sherman, and other prominent ladies, have the matter in charge. They propose to appropriate the sixteenth amendment to themselves, but instead of making it one giving the right of suffrage to women, they intend that it shall embody a provision for a uniform system of divorce throughout the United States. They argue that since the courts in all other states are compelled to recognize the legality of Indiana divorces, fraudulent though the most of them are known to be, that state now enjoys a monopoly of the divorce business to the peril of the rights and happiness of every married woman in the country. The agitators avow that their measure will give to American women all the rights they care to possess and save them from many of the wrongs they now suffer. The ladies intend to have the matter introduced into the senate first and will get Senator Trumbull to engineer it for them.

THE CONDUCT of a drunken desperado on a passenger train on the Mobile and Ohio railroad on Monday last, an account of which we find in the Memphis Avalanche, calls for more than a passing notice. It is a fair specimen of the rule of the ruffians, whose sway, for the good of society, it is high time should be cut short. The spectacle on a public railroad car, of an infuriated drunkard flourishing a loaded revolver in a dangerous manner, and ending up the exhibition of his contempt for law and order by wounding, with a double-barreled shot gun, severely and perhaps fatally, two innocent persons, is one of a species of outrages that ought not to be tolerated much longer by a long-suffering public. They occur too frequently for the peace and comfort of society. The law has no terror for the offenders. They hold themselves beyond law, a sentiment in which the public has tacitly agreed. The fact that the most of these outrages are committed when the offenders are under the influence of liquor is generally regarded as the palliating circumstance, when, in truth, it should be regarded as a crime and punished accordingly. The man whom liquor makes a madman has no right to indulge his propensity at the risk of the lives and limbs of the indiscriminate public.

We ask the Sun to answer: Did not Mertz, while the Orange riots in New York city was threatened, say that every Irish Catholic, priest and all, ought to be hanged or driven out of the country at the point of the bayonet?

Has not Mertz frequently declared that a negro was a better citizen and had more right to enjoy political preferment in America than Irish Catholics and German beer guzzlers?

Did not Mertz, during the Muncie-Crebs canvass for congress, muster a company of negroes before the post-office in Mound City, and did not those negroes, with Mertz at the head of the column, march to the polls, while they were cheering and crying, "Death to the man that scratches the republican ticket?"

Is Mertz a fit man to represent an intelligent constituency anywhere?

Is not Mertz a bitter, tricky and underhanded wire-pulling politician of the meanest kind?

Has not Mertz frequently declared that he would make the south a desert if necessary, to get rid of the people of that section—that, if he had his way, he would drive all the southern whites into the sea at the point of the bayonet, and give their lands and other property to members of the republican party?

Aint he, on general principles, a rather small potato man?

The Sun favored us with a few questions about Bowman the other day, which we courteously replied to. Will the Sun now return the compliment?

A strange case of madness has appeared in Yonkers. Two young men, inseparable companions, have been attacked with what seems to be hydrophobia, but which a physician says is not. One of them was bitten by a man with whom he had quarreled some weeks ago, and in one of his paroxysms bit his friend, who is now afflicted like himself. The case is a remarkable one, and notwithstanding the declaration of the physician, it hardly seems probable that it is aught else than hydrophobia.

It is said that a considerable number of Communist prisoners on the hulks at Lorient died of dysentery and typhus fever last month, the average mortality being seven per week out of 1,200 prisoners. Much fear is entertained that the first cold weather will cause many deaths from inflammation of the lungs.

Radical conspirators and explosive bombs and firearms concealed in Barcelona must tend to render Amadeus uneasy in Madrid. The Spanish officers blame the members of the International. The conspiracy may be national notwithstanding.

In Europe the recurrence of summer weather in late autumn is styled St. Martin's Summer, from Martinus, or St. Martin's Day, which falls on the 11th of November, and which is marked by eating roast goose in England, while in France it is kept as a kind of carnival.

"You can't do too much for your employers, man," said somebody to a big-fisted, strong backed man of all work, on the wharf one day. "Arrah," replied Pat with emphasis, "neither will I."

The Scandinavian club of Houston, Texas, has issued an appeal to their countrymen in Chicago to come there, and is making arrangements to provide them with labor.

There are in Paris 2,300 streets, 113 avenues, 84 boulevards, 46 quays, 130 places, 25 principal churches, 22 theatres, 38 hospitals, 8 railway termini, and 27 bridges.

A Boston mother-in-law, who spitefully persisted in living to the age of 108 years, was turned out of doors by her long-suffering daughter's husband.

In Sierra county, California, the fruit trees are breaking beneath the weight of fruit. The yield is larger than ever known before.

General Sherman is going to Europe on the United Steamer Wabash next week.

"TRIFLES LIGHT AS AIR."

—Autumn hues—cutting wood for winter. —After Alexis, the next sensational arrival from Russia may be the cholera. —The ball season has begun in Vermont —boys were snow-balling there, last week. —Measures are on foot for stocking the open plains and prairies of the West with trees.

—Very naturally the National Police Convention in St. Louis attracted General Attention. —When a Californian has a hundred thousand so invested in a good mine, he rests on his oars. —It is not true of trouble, and some other things, that "the more you have, the more you want."

—Hercules was a model husband; rather than stay out late at night, he invariably carried his club home with him. —Mr. McCormick lost $750,000 in Chicago, and is ready to admit, no doubt, that the great is the champion reaper.

—A sergeant or a corporal asleep on post might claim exemption from punishment on the ground that he was a retired officer. —It is reported that Eugenio is about to sell her Spanish property; Louis Napoleon, however, still clings to his "castles in Spain."

—Every cat in Paris is to be taxed three francs a year. From which it may be surmised that there will be fewer cats in the houses and more rabbits in the restaurants. —People laugh at the "New-York central woman's suffrage organization" for making a man chairman of the "standing committee." That's all right; everywhere especially in ferry-boat cabins and street cars, men form the standing committee while the women sit.

—After all, the day may not be so very distant when Macaulay's New Zealanders shall sit on London Bridge to look at what is left of St. Paul's. A Paris journal announces that two hundred Laplanders are on the way to that city to "do" the ruins.

Gustave Tonnatz, long celebrated in Paris as the "awallower of sabres," has died of a throat disease. A natural sequence, one would say—and be mistaken. For Gustave was equally celebrated as a swallower of whisky, and while he survived the sabres, to the whisky he succumbed. One swallow does not make a summer; but a good many swallows made a summary end of Tonnatz.

MIXED. —The color of morbus—apple green. —"Pa de Deux"—The father of twins. —Georgia has a town named "Cousin John."

—The cup after the cup that cheers—the hiccups. —An Indiana chestnut tree is in blossom for the third time this year. —Female highwaymen are said to have appeared on the streets of Charleston. —A deaf mute beggar in Detroit recently got drunk and suddenly recovered his speech.

PERSONAL. —Cardinal Antonelli, the papal minister of state, is very sick. —Rocheport, it is said, intends to busy himself while in banishment by writing a history of Louis Napoleon.

—Charles Sprague, of Boston, who is known among his friends as the banker poet, celebrated his eighteenth birthday last Friday. It was fifty years ago that he delivered his prize ode at the opening of the Park Theatre in New York city. The theater was destroyed by fire some twenty-eight years ago. —Count Palikao, the last minister of state under the French empire, has published a pamphlet to justify his conduct during the crisis which resulted in the downfall of Louis Napoleon. To deliver themselves from the charge of being knaves or fools seems to be the chief business of prominent Frenchmen now-a-days.

—Louis Napoleon is said to have recently answered a letter from a little boy of Wilmington, Del., who in some strange way has conceived great admiration and sympathy for the French Cezar, thanking him for his friendly words, and expressing the hope that his little friend might live more quietly and happily than himself.
