It is announced that temperance—anti-liquor drinking—is to become the fashion the coming winter. What will become of the population of Paducah, who must guzzle whisky or die?

Taber Brothers, having obtained for their watch department some of the very best workmen to be found, are now prepared to turn out work in that line with but little delay.

The popular boot and shoe maker, William Ehler, on Twentieth street, has received a large stock of leathers, and invites to them and his facilities for turning out all kinds of work.

A merchant of this city while being shaved at Alba's barber shop lately, lost his pocket book containing $300. It dropped on the floor and was found by the proprietor, who returned it to the owner after he was satisfied that the careless gentleman did not know what had become of it.

The furniture factory of Eichoff Bros. is doing a large amount of work of every description, and we wish to add our testimony that it is done in the neatest, cheapest and most substantial manner.

THE MUNICIPALITY.

The drive well pump plan is to be put through the council. It is better than no plan, but is far from what the necessities of the city demand.

Henry T. Martin has been permitted to step into the policeman's shoes out of which Mr. Sumner stepped a month or two since. We hope and believe Henry will wear them worthily.

Councilman Hurd is anxious to have the railroad track matter fixed up, and proposes as the best way to that end a joint committee of members of the council and citizens to ask the Illinois Central what they are willing to do about it.

Jailer McHale has been ordered to get the hog pound into a proper condition for the reception of porkers, and Chief Myers is to be reinforced while he is engaged in arresting hogs, human and the other kind, detected infringing the ordinances.

The council, by vote, requested the mayor to vote at the meeting on Friday night in confirmation of his own nomination of a policeman. No matter; but the proceeding was, in our opinion, odd—like the heathen Chinese, peculiar. The charter authorizes the mayor to appoint certain officers by and with the advice and consent of the council. We doubt his right to vote that he consents to allow himself to make an appointment; but as we have said, no matter. Who cares?

Everybody has been away from town—that is lots of people have, but they are all back—Baker, Green, Allen, Gilbert, Linegar, Munn, Lansden, et al. And now we wish it to be distinctly understood that our people must remain more steadfastly at home than they have been doing for some time past. There has been altogether too much gadding about.

Signor Farini, during the few days he has been in Cairo, has won the good opinion of many of our citizens, and secured the personal friendship of not a few. These friends are very anxious to induce the Signor, who is a master in his profession, to establish in this city a conservatory of music, and he has the proposition under consideration with an inclination to comply with the wishes of his friends. We hope he may do so. There is in Cairo the material out of which to manufacture a paying conservatory, and a "bully good one," too, and Farini is the man to handle it to his own profit and our credit.

The family grocery store of Bixby & Koehler is being patronized largely by people who like fine groceries. Their location on the north side of Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, is a central one, and their stock has been selected with discrimination, therefore this new candidate for public patronage meets exactly the wants of the people. Messrs. Koehler & Bixby propose to keep up their reputation by always selling the best of all sorts of groceries to their patrons and the public, knowing that people generally are aware of the fact that really good articles of any kind are always the cheapest in the end.

Who lost it? A very small sum of money, it is—a bill, which being described satisfactorily to the finder, will be returned to the owner. Apply at THE BULLETIN office.

Judge Cross, when he was in Chicago, said to a burnt-out friend: "What can I do for you?" "Send me a barrel of Cairo flour," was the reply. Yesterday the judge received a letter of thanks. The flour, the letter said, made the best of bread.

Everybody seemed in good humor last night. As a class, our citizens are honest, sober and industrious. Therefore when Saturday night comes, everybody has a little of the needful, and apparently every one turns out, some to market for Sunday; the ladies—who don't believe that "beauty undimmed is adorned the most"—to buy feminine nick-nacks, and others to provide themselves with reading matter for the Sabbath. As a matter of course, the largest crowds are to be seen at those stores and groceries advertised in THE BULLETIN.

The merchant tailoring-shop of Messrs. Lehnig & Kobler, on the south side of Eighth street between Washington and Commercial avenues, opposite Hanny's dry-goods store, has been open only a few weeks and already these gentlemen are obtaining a fair share of the patronage of the public. They are both practical men—first-class mechanics—and are willing to guarantee satisfactory work. They keep on hand always a full line of piece goods, to which they direct the attention of all who wish to have made clothes that are worth the money paid for them. Cleaning and repairing done neatly at low prices.

It has been ascertained that Murry, the burglar who escaped from the jail in this county a couple of weeks since, is a noted desperado. His home is at Wellburg, West Virginia, but he is a bird of passage and does not linger long at any place. About three years ago he killed a man over a card table at Cincinnati, but in some way escaped punishment. Last year he took advantage of a rise in White river and stole a large raft of valuable lumber, which he succeeded in converting into cash and vanished from that part of the country. He is a very earnest radical and supporter of President Grant to whom he made application for office immediately after the General's inauguration, but his relationship with the Dent family was too remote and his application was rejected, which fact is to be regretted since the remarkable ability he has displayed in the noble art of thievery would have made him a bright particular star in the galaxy of radical place-holders.

OUR FOLKS.

Go to Jorgensen's for imported Dundee orange marmalade, the celebrated London crystal vinegar, in quarts, and choice Genoaese figs.

Justice Allen, while in Shawneetown, was requested to address the people on public issues, but the illness of his family hastened his return home and he could not gratify his Gallatin friends.

The agent of the Burger family—his name we have forgotten and it don't matter—is in the city. The family, favorites with our people, will, during the present month, sing for us and play for us some dulcet melodies.

The Rev. Mr. Friend, formerly of the Christian church of this city, was married at St. Louis, on Wednesday last, to Mrs. Walker, lately matron of the orphan asylum. We congratulate the bride and groom and wish them years of happiness.

Captain Hambleton attacked us yesterday on suspicion, obtained our authority for the insinuation we had made, and armed with a navy revolver started in search of Dr. Casey. We sent a small boy after him with a large bucket to catch the blood.

A jovial party, having in their charge a celebrated musician, visited Mound City yesterday on a tour of inspection. After contemplating the beauties of nature along the route and feasting their eyes on the magnificence of the home of Casey and Hambleton they returned sadder but wiser men.

Everybody has been away from town—that is lots of people have, but they are all back—Baker, Green, Allen, Gilbert, Linegar, Munn, Lansden, et al. And now we wish it to be distinctly understood that our people must remain more steadfastly at home than they have been doing for some time past. There has been altogether too much gadding about.

Signor Farini, during the few days he has been in Cairo, has won the good opinion of many of our citizens, and secured the personal friendship of not a few. These friends are very anxious to induce the Signor, who is a master in his profession, to establish in this city a conservatory of music, and he has the proposition under consideration with an inclination to comply with the wishes of his friends. We hope he may do so. There is in Cairo the material out of which to manufacture a paying conservatory, and a "bully good one," too, and Farini is the man to handle it to his own profit and our credit.

The following persons were at the St. Charles hotel yesterday: A. B. Safford, city; E. L. Curtis, F. B. Lathrop and G. A. Curtis, St. Louis; Dan'l Hogan, Mound City; John A. Kelly, Mound City; A. S. Palmer, Blandville; W. A. Boebe, St. Louis; M. Young, Charleston, Mo.; John Suallo, Cape Girardeau; H. W. Squires, Lansing, Mich.; Jos. Guss, New Orleans; Frank Chappell, London, Eng.; J. Holgate, London, England; T. B. Vallette, St. Louis; Jas. M. Scantlin, Evansville; J. W. Steale, New York; H. S. Wheeler, Chicago; D. W. C. Gates, Paducah; N. E. Brown, Paducah; Capt. H. Lorey, St. Louis; J. Strand and wife, Paducah; Geo. W. Banker, New York; F. E. Peobles, city; J. A. Coaster, St. Louis.

The following were the arrivals at the Delmonico hotel, Win. Winter, proprietor, for the twenty-four hours ending at 9 o'clock last night: Mrs. H. B. Heron, Bloomington, Ill.; John Parry, Mt. Vernon, Ill.; S. W. McNeill, Vienna, Ill.; J. Anderson, Capt. Ray and A. Perkins, Mound City; W. S. Wikfield, Cincinnati; W. Williamson, St. Louis; James Gordon and wife, St. Louis, Missouri; Thomas Winchell, Cincinnati, Ohio; Wm. Thomas, city; C. B. S. Jones, Galena; J. C. Crow, Chicago; C. H. Sieger and wife, Philadelphia; S. H. Almon, Tamaroa, Ill.; John A. Hook, Columbia, Pa.; L. H. Cordry, St. Louis; J. M. V. Allbright and C. W. Finn, Elgin; L. W. Cameron, Des Moines; G. A. Babbitt, Grand Junction, Iowa; Thomas Moore and P. A. Halliday, Metropolis.

It is a colored man hasn't the right to talk of what use to him is his boasted liberty? And yet, yesterday, in this land of the free, West Labou, a Creole nigger, was fined by Squire Shanessy, $10 and costs, because he had talked a little. His only offense was calling a white man several hard names—such as thief, scoundrel, puppy, dog, etc. Romeo, Italian, guilty of a like offense—too much tongue—was fined only $5 and costs. This shows that the old sentiment still lingers in the breast of the administrators of the law, and it is high time Grant were sending a military force to occupy Cairo.

John upon the walk too drunk to talk fell down. The town reeled round; the ground flew up. A cup too much for such had he—ah! me. Again A. Cain passed by; his eyes fell on our John. "Come on," said he. "What me?" "I'm blue now if you do." McHale in jail John has, and on the sidewalks he will work six days and then will learn to shun the drunkard's ways. Terrible.

RELIABLE AND SAFE.—Dr. Henry Root and Plant Pills are mild and pleasant in their operation, yet thorough, producing no nausea or griping. Being entirely vegetable, they can be taken without regard to diet or business. They arouse the liver and secretive organs into healthy action, throwing off disease without exhausting or debilitating the system. Try them and you will be satisfied. Price 25 cents a box. Sold by druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. Prepared by the Grafton Medicine Company, St. Louis, Missouri. my9dm

Where are you going? To the place number 53, Ohio levee, where they keep the best fresh oysters, fish and game, and the finest wines, liquors and cigars to be found in the city. Open at all hours, day or night. J. E. PARKS.
