BREVITIES. Attend the lecture to-night. The Ohio river continues to rise.

Prof. Denton will lecture at the Athenaeum to-night. His is one of the best lectures of the age.

The St. Louis Democrat says: "Mr. Macevoy, with his beautiful dramatic views of Ireland, a small company of comedians and vocalists, still entertains goodly audiences at the Temple.

—Where are you going? To the place number 53, Ohio levee, where they keep the best fresh oysters, fish and game, and the finest wines, liquors and cigars to be found in the city.

—A grand masquerade ball is being talked of among some of our German friends. It is proposed to make it the happiest occasion of the season, and if we know anything about it, the gentlemen who are taking the lead in the matter are just the men to make a success.

—Rev. Dr. Collyer, of Chicago, will lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association, in this city, on the 17th of the present month. This announcement will be hailed with delight by the citizens of Cairo, as Dr. Collyer is one of the most prominent as well as eloquent lecturers of the present day.

—We have received a copy of Commodore Rollinpin's River Almanac for 1872. After careful examination of its pages we wish to add our tribute to its merits. Apparently, it has been compiled with extraordinary care, and at considerable expense. It is a work that cannot fail to meet with favor in river circles. It is full of fun.

—Mr. H. T. Gerould has procured the services of a bell hanger, who will attend to all calls for work in his line with promptness. Bell hangers repaired, ropes adjusted, etc., in first class order.

services of a bell hanger, who will attend to all calls for work in his line with promptness. Bell hangers repaired, ropes adjusted, etc., in first class order. Leave orders at Mr. Gerould's office, Winter's block, corner Seventh street and Commercial avenue. dec24-d-1f.

—Great inducements to any one wishing to buy a first-class piano or organ. E. & W. Badler offer their entire stock in the piano and organ line at the actual cost of the instruments. They are anxious of closing out the stock so that they may use the room for jewelry manufacturing purposes.

—The Young Men's Christian Association of this city, have secured the following gentlemen to lecture in this city: Rev. Robt. Collyer, January 17; Dr. J. G. Holland, (Timothy Titcomb), January 27; Hon. B. F. Taylor, February 7; Hon. Wm. Parsons, February 14; Dr. A. A. Willets, March 19. The list is a good one and will be sure to meet with the approval of the public.

—The business man who makes a business of borrowing his next door neighbor's paper, is a fraud upon the community in which he does business. It not only proves a lack of enterprise on the part of the business man who does it, but it is a swindle on the publisher of the paper. Any man who is too close to subscribe and pay for the paper he reads, ought not to borrow his neighbor's.

—There will be a meeting of the city council in joint session to-night. We understand that an effort will be made to appoint fire wardens, and to come to an understanding as to the workings of the fire companies. This is a step in the right direction. The scene at the recent fire on Eighth street was enough to convince every one that our fire department as it now stands, is of little or no service, and needs remodeling.

—The Budder Brothers, corner Eighth street and Washington avenue, have received a brand-new lot of the latest-styled breast-pins, ear-rings, finger rings, bracelets, watches, clocks, etc., and invite the public to call and inspect the stock. They are also agents for the Davis' sewing machine, Burdett organs and St. Louis pianos, and offer to the public the best bargains to be obtained at any place in Southern Illinois.

—Readers will recollect the murder perpetrated in Happy Hollow over a year since, when Jack Smith, a negro, killed another negro named Robinson. It was a most brutal and unprovoked murder. The murderer ran away and escaped arrest until last Tuesday, when detective Arnold, of Cairo, nabbed him and brought him to this city. He is now reposing in jail awaiting a session of the circuit court.

—From the river column of the Paducah Kentuckian, we learn that they have a marine hospital at that place, and that during the month of December 132 patients were treated. Dr. Thomas J. Griffiths has charge of the hospital. We are glad there is such an institution so near us, and yet so far from us. Paducah is a proper place for a pest house, and all cases of small pox, itch, and the hundred other loathsome diseases peculiar to river roustabouts should be sent there.

—We have no hesitation in recommending William Ehlers, boot and shoe maker, as worthy of most liberal patronage. We know whereof we speak when we say his work is done in a masterly manner at the lowest prices. He uses nothing but the best of stock, and he cannot be excelled in the delicate task of making an exact fit. Give him a call at his shop on Twentieth street, between Washington and Poplar streets, and we will guarantee satisfaction.

—And now comes the Cairo Casino, and promises the public a grand masquerade ball. At a meeting of that society, held a night or two since, it was resolved that they would celebrate their anniversary this year by a grand masquerade ball to eclipse anything of the kind that has come off this winter. The ball will be held on Monday evening, February 5th, 1872. The following gentlemen were appointed as a committee of arrangements: Herman Meyer, Carl L. Thomas and Louis Blattau.

—It is true that Blankenburg's Excelsior saloon is now one of the institutions of the city. All drinkers who like really excellent liquors—whiskies, wines, beer, etc.—go to the Excelsior saloon, which is fitted up in splendid style. Blankenburg who knows how to keep a saloon, spreads a fine free lunch every morning and evening, and, as he forcibly expresses it, "Sweetens the lunch with music." He has employed the services of a first-rate pianist, who makes the grand piano speak out in musical tones. Everybody is invited. The best order is maintained and all improper characters suppressed with neatness, cheapness and dispatch. Everybody knows that the Excelsior saloon is at the corner of Washington avenue and Fourteenth street.

—A good joke—if it may be so called—was played on a gentleman of this city a few days ago. Wishing to have some paper hanging done, he engaged the services of a man who follows that trade to do it. The gentleman and his family were to be absent from the city, and the work was to be done during their absence. The paper hanger went to his work, and in his perambulations about the premises came across a jug of fine Bourbon whisky—a present to the gentleman of the house from a friend in Louisville. The paper hanger drank freely of the whisky and, of course, got drunk. He quit work and donning a suit of fine black broadcloth, also the property of the gentleman for whom he was working, went out for a stroll through the city. Tired of walking, he returned to the house, and hunting for the best bed in the house jumped into it, boots, clothes and all. About this time the proprietor of the house came home, and learning the situation of affairs, put what in common parlance is called a "horse's head" on the paper hanger, and then threw him out of the house.

PERSONAL NOTES. —Rev. Mr. Thayer, with his family, arrived in the city yesterday, and will at once enter upon his duties as pastor of the Presbyterian church.

—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. Miles Parker, who has been confined to his bed for several days. It has been necessary for watchers to be with him night and day.

—Sol. Silver has been re-appointed passenger agent at this port for the Memphis and St. Louis packet company, for the year 1872. Sol. has made a good agent, and as we are told, is well liked by the officers of the company.

—S. G. Robinson, Kanawha; Geo. Anderson, Saline; Jas. Morris, Cape Girardeau; H. London, Memphis; R. M. Cannon, Shotwell Mines; T. F. Garrett, A. C. Rozier, H. W. Brodski, N. S. Green, E. C. Solomon, D. H. Morey, St. Louis; A. C. Sherman, Allenville; G. A. Primister, Cape Girardeau; R. McDonald, Chebaux; C. J. Stockton, Philadelphia; C. R. Stockton, A. S. J. THE LECTURE. There was a good audience at the Athenaeum last night, to hear Prof. Denton. However, the audience was not such a one as the merits of the lecture demanded. Prof. Denton, is beyond doubt, one of the most learned men that ever addressed an audience in this city.

VINCENTS LOTTERY.

FURTHER POSTPONEMENT. Owing to other pressing business engagements Mr. F. Vincent has found it impossible to devote the time and attention requisite to have the drawing in his lottery take place on the 20th day of December, 1871, as advertised; but having secured the co-operation of the gentlemen named below and made arrangements by which every cent of the money realized from the sale of tickets will be deposited with W. Hyslop, Esq., of the City National and Enterprise savings banks of this city, who will act as a treasurer, he now positively assures the ticket-holders that the drawing will take place on the 10th day of April, A. D., 1872. The treasurer assures the ticket holders that if by any chance the drawing should not take place on the day now designated he will pay back to the holders the amount of their tickets with 6 per cent interest from the date of the purchase, the same being considered a special deposit from each ticket holder contingent upon the drawing on said day.

The undersigned have no hesitation in expressing their belief that under the arrangements made by Mr. Vincent, the drawing will take place on the day designated, say 10th day of April, 1872. But should any cause contrary to their expectations intervene preventing the same, the ticket holders are amply secure in being able to draw the money by them invested with interest.

Those persons who have subscribed tickets and have not paid for and drawn them, are requested without delay to call on Mr. Hyslop at the City National bank for their tickets.
