LIBERAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HORACE GREELEY,
of New York;
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
B. GRANT BROWN,
of Missouri.

THE LIBERAL PLATFORM.

WE, the Liberal Republicans of the United States in Convention assembled at Cincinnati, proclaim the following principles as essential to just government:

1. WE RECOGNIZE the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of the government in its dealings with the people to mete out EQUAL AND EXACT JUSTICE TO ALL OF WHATSOEVER NATIONALITY, RACE, COLOR OR PERSUASION, RELIGIOUS OR POLITICAL.

2. WE PLEDGE OURSELVES TO MAINTAIN THE UNION OF THESE STATES, EMANCIPATION AND ENFRANCHISEMENT, AND TO OPPOSE ANY REOPENING OF THE QUESTIONS SETTLED BY THE THIRTEENTH, FOURTEENTH AND FIFTEENTH AMENDMENTS OF THE CONSTITUTION.

3. WE DEMAND the immediate and absolute removal of all disabilities imposed on account of the rebellion which were finally subdued seven years ago, believing that UNIVERSAL AMNESTY WILL RESULT IN THE COMPLETE PACIFICATION IN ALL SECTIONS OF THE COUNTRY.

4. LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT with impartial suffrage, will guard the rights of all citizens more securely than any centralized power. The people and the public welfare require the SUPREMACY OF THE CIVIL OVER THE MILITARY AUTHORITY AND FREEDOM OF PERSON UNDER THE PROTECTION OF THE HABEAS CORPUS. We demand for the individual the largest liberty consistent with public order, for the state self-government, and for the nation a return to the methods of peace and the constitutional limitations of power.

5. THE CIVIL SERVICE of the government has become a mere instrument of partisan tyranny and personal ambition, and an object of selfish greed. It is a scandal and reproach upon free institutions, and breeds a demoralization dangerous to the perpetuity of republican government.

6. WE THEREFORE REGARD A THOROUGH REFORM OF THE CIVIL SERVICE as one of the most pressing necessities of the hour; that honesty, capacity and fidelity constitute the only valid claims to public employment; that the offices of the government cease to be a matter of arbitrary favoritism and patronage, and that public station become again the post of honor. TO THIS END IT IS IMPERATIVELY REQUIRED THAT NO PRESIDENT SHALL BECOME A CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION.

7. WE DEMAND a system of federal taxation which shall not unnecessarily interfere with the industry of the people, and which shall provide the means necessary to pay the expenses of the government, economically administered—the pensions, the interest on the public debt and a moderate annual reduction of the principal thereof, and recognize that there are in our midst honest but irreconcilable differences of opinion with regard to the respective systems of protection and free trade. WE REMIT THE DISCUSSION OF THEM TO THE PEOPLE IN THEIR CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS, AND THE DECISION OF CONGRESS THEREON, WHOLLY FREE OF EXECUTIVE INTERFERENCE AND DICTATION.

8. THE PUBLIC DEBT MUST BE SACREDLY MAINTAINED, AND WE DENOUNCE REPUDIATION IN every form and guise.

9. A SPEEDY RETURN TO SPECIE PAYMENTS is demanded alike by the highest considerations of commercial morality and honest government. A WORD FOR THE SOLDIER BOYS.

10. WE REMEMBER with gratitude the sacrifices of the soldiers and sailors of the republic, and no act of ours shall ever detract from their justly earned honor, or the full rewards of their patriotism.

11. WE ARE OPPOSED to all further grants of land to railroads or other corporations. THE PUBLIC DOMAIN SHOULD BE HELD SACRED TO ACTUAL SETTLERS.

12. WE HOLD that it is the duty of the government in its intercourse with foreign nations to cultivate friendships of peace by treating with all on fair and equal terms, regarding it alike dishonorable either to demand what is not right or submit to what is wrong.

13. FOR THE promotion and success of these principles, and the support of the candidates nominated by this convention, we invite and cordially welcome the cooperation of all patriotic citizens, with no regard to previous political affiliation.

MRS. WOODHULL won't vote for Horace Greeley.
IN MASSACHUSETTS, returns from one hundred and sixty-two towns showed fifty-three in favor of licensing the sale of ale, beer, &c., and one hundred and nine for prohibition.

SOME FRIENDS to Grant says: "We all make mistakes and Grant, like his predecessor, has committed his share." This is true, but the objection to Grant is that his share has been so enormously big.

C. E. LIPPINCOTT, Auditor of State, in answer to a letter asking his position on the liberal movement, speaks of the war "which, under God and Grant saved the Union." It is a wonder this enthusiastic radical did not say "Grant and God."

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION of Tennessee met on Thursday in Nashville. It re-nominated Gov. Brown, the present incumbent, by acclamation, and passed resolutions declaring for Greeley and Brown and expressing the desire that the national democratic convention at Baltimore make no nominations.

AN INTERNATIONAL LECTURE of the East objects to the free love and social-theory questions being tacked on to the labor problem, sending danger to the international union of the two, "even as these ideas have rotted the noble movements of the female suffragists; for their infections are as devastating and malignant as the deadly asps."

"An intelligent and observing gentleman," says the St. Louis Times, "who has been in Southern Illinois since the Cincinnati convention, reports that he found the Germans of that section unanimous for Greeley and Brown. They are not to be led away from their duty to the country, and themselves, by any trifling side-issue, which is in no manner pertinent to the great campaign ahead. The intelligent Germans do not fail to see light through the dark clouds that now hang over us, and that light was kindled by the nomination of Greeley and Brown. In all southern Illinois there was found but one man to say a word against the honest candidate of the people, and that man was a postmaster."

A SPECIAL DISPATCH to the Missouri Democrat of Friday, from New York, contains this ridiculous twaddle: "It is rumored that Tweed and his friends will urge that no democratic nomination be made, on the ground that they will be more likely to escape punishment under 'Greeley than under Grant.' The wishes of 'Tweed and his friends' will have about as much to do with the nomination as the wishes of Grant and his friends, and an intelligent public would like to know what Grant or Greeley either as president, will have to do with the punishment of the New York city officials."

ON THE NINETEENTH OF NEXT MONTH, the Convention representing the narrow gauge railroad companies of the United States and Canada will meet in St. Louis. The friends of the narrow gauge system are interested in making this meeting large in point of numbers, as its deliberations, suggestions and conclusions will, it is hoped, exercise a large influence over the railroad system of the West. Representatives of the car and locomotive builders, Baird & Co., of Philadelphia, and of Jackson & Sharp, Wilmington, Delaware, will be present, and it is expected that all the narrow gauge roads now in existence and those in course of construction in the United States and the Canada, will be represented. Important practical questions relative to the system will be fully and fairly discussed, and it is believed correct conclusions will be reached. The sitting of the Convention is anticipated by railroad men throughout the country with much interest. The committee of arrangements will meet in St. Louis on the twenty-eighth of the present month to arrange the preliminaries for the Convention on the nineteenth of June. The following is a list of the Committee:

W. J. Palmer, President Denver and Rio Grande Railroad company; L. T. Smith, President Kansas Central railroad company; General Falkner, of Mississippi; General William Wallace, of the Memphis and Raleigh Narrow-gauge; Erasmus Wells, President St. Louis and Krenlin Avenue railroad company; N. B. Forrest, President Selma and Memphis railroad; S. W. Wilson, Pittsburgh, New York and Philadelphia railroad company; S. Staats Taylor, Cairo & St. Louis company; General D. C. Buell; D. W. Chipley, South and North Georgia road; A. B. LaDue, Kansas City and Memphis company; W. J. Sykes, of Tennessee; E. Hulbert, of Georgia; A. T. Shaw, of Arkansas. An excursion to Denver City to see the successful working of the Denver and Rio Grande railroad, will be a feature of the Convention.

Mrs. Partington entered the office of the probate judge (called "civilian"), and inquired in her blandest tones: "Are you the civil villain?" "Do you wish to insult me, madam?" said the judge. "Yes," replied the amiable old lady, "my brother died destitute, and left three 'infidel' children and I am to be their executrix."

THE CHICAGO TIMES' walk over the defeat of Judge Davis in the Cincinnati convention and returns to be comforted. The Times' singular devotion to Davis, who as a probable presidential candidate was never popular with democrats, who is as much a republican as Horace Greeley, and whose record as such is not half so unobjectionable to democrats as Greeley's, is explained by the Deatur 'Mag-net' thus:

It may be asked why the Times' was so much devoted to Davis? When the fact is stated that the judge spent from $50,000 to $100,000 to secure the nomination, and that from $8,000 to $10,000 of this amount went into the capacious maw of the Times, for its advocacy of his claims, the question is very easily solved.

The Times, has a right to use its columns as an advertising medium for the merits and demerits of any presidential candidate, and to take all the pay it can get for its services, but newspapers of the Times' standing do not generally devote their editorial space to this or any other sort of advertising. But, even if the Times did, it has no right to get mad because it will pay paid puff did not do any good. The large display of sulkiness and snappishness is indulging in now, does no credit to itself nor Judge Davis, under the circumstances.

That lovely old senecrow, A. H. S., (praise to God!) is out against Horace Greeley. It is a famous good sign. There are four great leaders of ideas in this country whom we always copper, and it will win eight times in ten. They are John Forsyth, Blanton Dancan, Alexander H. Stevens and James Alfred Dawson. Show us where they are, and we want to get on the other side.—Courier-Journal.

"Madam," said a husband to his young wife in a little altercation which will spring up in the best regulated families, "when a man and his wife have quarreled and each considers the other at fault, which of the two ought to advance toward reconciliation?" "The better natured and wiser of the two," said the wife, putting up her mouth for a kiss, which was given withunction.

OUR ST. LOUIS LETTER.

(Special Correspondence of the Bulletin.)
St. Louis, Mo., May 10, 1872.
Your correspondent, as usual, attended Rev. Dr. Nichols' Presbyterian Church, corner of Seventeenth and Locust, last Sunday evening, and was witness to a $19,000 collection. After the close of the services, Dr. Nichols said that after pronouncing the benediction he wished the congregation to remain seated for a few minutes; at which time he explained that there was a debt of over $18,000 due by the church, and that he expected to raise the whole amount at that time. He then went on to say that he had made out a list, as follows: Five to pay $1,000 each; three $700, ten $500, and so on down to $50. He then, after explaining his plan, asked those who would subscribe $1,000 to raise their hand. In less than two minutes the $1,000 list was full, and in the course of half an hour $18,300 had been raised. Dr. N. then stated that the interest and other expenses amounted to $700, which amount was immediately subscribed by D. Nicholson, Esq., the well-known merchant, which amount made the grand total of $19,000, the largest sum ever taken at a single church collection in St. Louis.

The city the present week has been unusually gay and lively. The magnificent weather has filled the streets and promenades with ladies in their tasty and beautiful spring costumes. "Dolly Vardens" are of course all the rage, though very properly mostly worn in the house, excepting among the children, who throng the streets with them. The "National Photographers' Convention" has brought a large influx of the "profession" among us, the members of the same being easily distinguished by each wearing a small Morse medalion on the left breast. Wednesday evening they gave a magnificent entertainment at Polytechnic Hall, when Black, of Baxter, charmed the large audience with a superb Stereopticon exhibition which was very enjoyable. The members of the Convention have been toasted and feasted to their hearts content, and will leave us well pleased with St. Louis hospitality.

Over one hundred men are daily at work on the monster Saengerfest building, which is rapidly approaching completion. This immense edifice occupies an entire block, the front on Twelfth street, extending from Washington avenue to St. Charles street. The approaching festival will draw a multitude of strangers to the city—one prominent member of the Saengerfest in Cincinnati informed us a few days ago that he might expect over 5,000 people from his city alone. The Saengerfest building has been already engaged by the Home-Path—who will hold a monster fair in the hall after the festival is over. The fair recently held by them in Boston to raise funds for building a Hospital showed a clear net profit of over $75,000. It is the intention to make the St. Louis fair one of the finest ever held in the city. In addition to the above, a number of societies have also leased the house for holding concerts, so that there will be no lack of entertainments there, which will probably culminate in the National Democratic Convention which it is now thought will take place in the Saengerfest hall on the approaching fourth of July.

(Since penning the above we notice that the Convention will be held in Baltimore, so that St. Louis will not have that honor.)
Ascension day (Holy Thursday) was duly commemorated here by the various commanderies of Knights Templar, with the exception of St. Louis No. 1, the oldest and largest commandery in the city, which from some misunderstanding failed to put in an appearance. A shower of the eight ticket, and he would give $26,000 to start it himself. There are a good many democrats of the Tweed order, ready to take money and help to keep the status quo which is profitable to them, follows who understand manipulating claims quietly; and the administration has the public purse at its disposal, and understands them and how to make the most of them. There were over one hundred office holders of them, Grant's emissaries in the Cincinnati convention working for Adams; they were nearly all from Washington. I can furnish the names of about fifty of these. The strategy of Grant's friends was to secure for him the Irish vote, by putting Adams on us, and so compensate for the loss of the liberal republican vote; but he failed, and they are furious. The majority of Adams' supporters did not understand it; but the public mind is now thoroughly aroused, and when this is the case the power of purchasable individuals and of the venal press is inconsiderable.

GREELEY.

WHAT HORACE SAID OF HIS NOMINATION.

THE SUN'S INTERVIEW WITH MR. GREELEY.

(From the New York Sun.)
The great economist was dressed in a black suit throughout. He wore a steeling coat. His pantaloons were drawn over his boots, and his cravat was not out of place. He wore no jewelry. Plain china shirt-buttons adorned on his bosom, and a black silk watch guard ran about his neck. He greeted his visitors with unusual urbanity.

Reporter: Did you expect the nomination, Mr. Greeley?
Dr. Greeley: (Thought Senator Trumbull would not.) It would have made an excellent candidate. I cannot say that I expected the nomination.

Reporter: Have you read the platform?
Dr. Greeley: I have read what has been telegraphed.
Reporter: I have not seen the platform. Have they run a tariff plank into the platform?
Dr. Greeley (with an honest smile): They have done just what I thought they should have done, and just what I advised—referred the whole tariff business to the people, to be settled in the congressional districts.

Reporter: If the people elect a majority of congressmen in favor of a repeal of the tariff bill, and the congress repeals that bill, would that be the duty of the next president of the United States?
Dr. Greeley (promptly): It would be his duty to sign the bill passed by congress.

Reporter: If you are elected president, will you sign such a bill if congress passes it?
Dr. Greeley: I certainly will. I shall endeavor to carry out the expressed wishes of the people despite my own impressions or convictions.

Reporter: If the convention had adopted a free trade plank would you have accepted the nomination?
Dr. Greeley: I would not. I telegraphed that if the free traders got control of the convention I would not accept the nomination. I could not have accepted the nomination on a high tariff platform, for I believed the whole subject should be referred to the people themselves. It was a matter that concerned the people more than the convention. The convention did right in referring it to the congressional districts. Our friends went into the convention with their colors flying, and came out of it with flying colors. The people are to decide the question of the tariff, and the people are the proper parties to decide it.

Reporter: I see you were nominated on the sixth ballot, Mr. Greeley.
Dr. Greeley: Yes, I think it more creditable to be nominated on the sixth than on the first ballot. It is an evidence that our friends had bottom, and that their leetions didn't fall out.

Reporter: Here the roar of cannon from the City Hall Park shook the windows. Dr. Greeley approached the closed window with a pleasant remark, and looked at the dissolving smoke. It was the first gun that had ever been fired in his honor. After the third discharge the clamor of peace resumed his old position.
Reporter: You will probably carry the south and west, Mr. Greeley, and Massachusetts will go for Grant. I feel quite sure of it.
Reporter: Grant might decline the Philadelphia nomination.
Dr. Greeley (smiling): It is two late. He ought to have done it six weeks ago. Now it is too late.

Reporter: If Grant declines the Philadelphia nomination, the Philadelphia man might nominate say Colfax for president and Wilson for vice-president.
Dr. Greeley (again smiling): In that case the campaign might be a very interesting campaign. But the time has past for such a ticket. It's too late.
