Terrible Disaster.

The little steamer Revolution for a long time run by Capt. David Hiner as a Cairo and Mound City packet, exploded at Mound City yesterday, instantly killing an invalid lady lying in bed on the deck, at which the ill-fated craft was flying, and wounding, more or less seriously, five or six other persons. The cause of the explosion is not stated.

Miller and Miller, the principal clothiers of the city, have an entire new stock of old goods in the house.

"Free Lunch every Morning."

Such is the caption of an advertisement published this evening over the name of Henry Lattner. Henry is noted for keeping a quiet, orderly first class house, and his patrons will all vouch for the excellence of his viands and beverages. His lunches will embrace quite everything the inner man craves in the way of libels, and will no doubt be extensively patronized. His place of business is the well known and spacious Egyptian Saloon, next door below the post office.

The most elegant, fashionable and best made clothing in the city, is to be found at Miller and Miller's. Nobody retends that he undersells them.

Don't Shake! use Alford's XXX Ague Remedy.

Now that a decided chill has been added to the atmosphere, most people desire to know where they can obtain a few fresh oysters. All demand that is likely to arise in that line Messrs. Walker and Sisson can supply most satisfactorily. They receive shell or canned oysters every day, and have fitted up a restaurant and dining hall that is surpassed nowhere in the country. It is under the supervision of attentive and obliging help, and will be first class in every particular.

For really fashionable clothing go to Miller and Miller's.

Grand Ball at Jno. Schick's Hall Cairo, Illinois, Monday Evening, October 20, 1869, given by the Members of the German Brass Band. Tickets, admitting Lady and Gentleman, One Dollar. Music by the German Brass and Wittig's String Bands. A cordial invitation is extended to the public; the Committee of Arrangements promising to do everything in their power to render the occasion a grand success in every particular.

"THE KIDNAPPERS."

A FOOLISH STATE OF ALARM AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE.

We do not know how or by whom the impression has been created among the colored population, that our city is infested by medical students, who snatch colored men and women from our streets and convey them across the river for dissection; but that such an impression exists and is wide-spread, we have sufficient proof. Many negro women will not venture out doors after night-fall, and even the negro men go in groups of three, four and five, some of them armed. Night meetings, that were wont to be held until 11 and 12 o'clock, unfitting servant girls for the duties of the next day, are being discontinued, only a few of the most courageous being willing to incur the dangers of the streets. On Sunday night the male portion of the Rev. Mr. Rix's congregation left the house in confusion, not unmixed with alarm, at the announcement that two or more of the "stugents," as they call them, had been seen loitering about the premises, having traced to that place a healthy female who they wanted that night for dissection. It is most religiously believed, in colored circles, that at least four colored men and women have fallen into the hands of the "stugents."

Of course there is not a shadow of foundation for all these wild rumors, yet so long as there are persons to circulate them there will be simpletons to believe them.

AROUND-ABOUT-CAIRO.

Messrs. Dodge, Lord and Co., have sued the Cairo and Vincennes railroad company, in the Pulaski circuit court, for the sum of $326,000. The Mound City 'Journal' expresses the opinion that if Messrs. D. L. and Co., recover their claim, the sub-contractors and other creditors will be paid. We understand that the payment of Messrs. Dodge Lord and Co.'s creditors does not depend upon such a contingency; that within a few weeks, at farthest, they will discharge all their obligations. We do not claim, however, to speak by authority.

Hugh P. Craig is the democratic nominee, in Pulaski county, for the office of assessor and treasurer. Hugh is the present incumbent of the office, and it is said that he fills it to the satisfaction of all concerned. While Hugh was a resident of Alexander county the people tried to foist the Sheriff's office on him, five or six times, but always so happened that some fellow stepped in and bore off the prize, thus depriving the county of Hugh's invaluable services.

Mrs. Dr. N. R. Casey and her two daughters were crossing Hess bayou bridge in a carriage, last Friday, when the horse became frightened at a hole in the floor of the bridge, and suddenly backed the carriage against the railing. The railing gave way, and the carriage with its occupants, and the horse, were precipitated to the ground, some ten or twelve feet below. The horse was badly injured, the carriage crushed, but, strange to say Mrs. C. and her daughters escaped with only a few trifling bruises. Their escape was almost miraculous.

The flags at the Mound City naval station were held at half mast, last Thursday, in respect to the memory of the deceased American statesman and soldier, Franklin Pierce.

Judge Davidge presented the editor of the Mound City 'Journal' with an apple, one day last week, that weighed 23 1/2 ounces. It was grown near Caledonia.

Elijah Depew is a candidate for assessor and treasurer in Pulaski county. He is the most uncompromising, fanatical and unrepentant radical in Southern Illinois.

A man of strong prejudices, he believes there is a "moral pollution" (if we may so speak) in democracy, that unfits those who espouse it either for heaven, or decent associations on earth. We hope the democracy of Pulaski will see to it that the domestic quiet, for which his age fits him, is not disturbed by the cares and distractions of office.

The regular democratic nominee for county judge in Pulaski county, is Geo. S. Pidgeon, esq. He is peculiarly fitted for the position, being an old resident of the county, a lawyer of good ability, personally interested in the prosperity of the county, and a democrat. His competitor is the present incumbent, A. M. Brown, esq., an excellent gentleman, socially; a lawyer, scholar and an excellent editor. If he could divest himself of his radicalism (which really sits unbecomingly upon him) we could wish him a better fate than the overwhelming defeat that is in store for him.

The fair at Centralis, which commenced last Tuesday and closed last Saturday, was a grand success in every particular. In some features it excelled our late State fair. There were about 3000 entries. The attendance was large, and would have been larger, but for the chilly and disagreeable weather of Thursday and Friday. One of the features of Friday was a game of base ball between the Lone Star club of Alma and the Great Western club of Mt. Vernon. The Mt. Vernon boys waxed their competitors easily, the score standing in their favor, 80 to 32. The heavy score indicates rather poor playing on both sides.

The Pinckneyville (Perry county) 'Banner' of last week records the death of Mr. Francis Anderson, a farmer who resided in the neighborhood of Pinckneyville. He fell dead in his wagon while driving along the public road.

Notice.

City Clerk's Office, Cairo, Ills., Oct. 19th, 1869.

To all whom it may concern, Notice is hereby given that hereafter no bill for supplies furnished the City of Cairo will be allowed by the City Council unless the supplies for which the bill is presented shall have been purchased by the City Comptroller, or upon his written order, being in conformity with section 17, of chapter 2 of the ordinance as follows.

SEC. 17. The City Comptroller shall be the fiscal agent of the city, and as such shall make all purchases for the city which may be necessary to carry on the public works, and other city improvements; shall examine all accounts which may exist against the city, before the same are presented to the City Council, claimants being required to present their accounts for proper endorsement as to their correctness to him at least twenty-four hours before the meeting of the council at which they wish their accounts allowed; shall have power to investigate, and by and with consent of council, to settle, collect and compromise all claims due or held against the city; shall see that all fines or other moneys due the city from police magistrates, collectors, harbor and market masters, and all others having charge of the collection of the funds of the city, are correctly accounted for and paid into the treasury; and shall also attest the correctness of the monthly reports of the different city officers.

Persons interested, take notice and govern yourselves accordingly. JOHN BROWN, City Clerk.

THREE SCOUNDRELS.

They Come to Sudden and Unexpected Grief.

We referred yesterday to a confidence game, practiced upon a countryman, by two men who had registered themselves at the Antrim house as Ford and Druning. The particulars of the villainy coming to Joe Arnold's ears, he and Sheriff Myers set about "working the case up." It appears that three rascals were concerned in the villainy who, after arrest, gave their names as Simon Warfield, Thomas Garrett and Henry Armstrong. Myers arrested Garrett, after an exciting chase, in the neighborhood of the barracks; Arnold arrested Warfield near the corner of Tenth and Walnut, and Armstrong in a saloon near Twelfth street. The victimized countryman, Ed Hodges, was about to leave, on a boat for St. Louis; but Arnold and Myers promising to send him forward on the cars, secured his presence as a witness. The story he detailed was straightforward and no doubt true, every word of it. Warfield and Garrett pretended to be the owner of a pile of goods on the wharfboat, and hired Hodges to watch them until they arrived at St. Louis, the purpose being avowed to send them forward on the boat on which he was a passenger. Shortly afterwards they requested Hodges to go up town with them and help carry down some boxes of candy. According to arrangement, of course, they met Armstrong, who demanded the balance due on the goods, and is usual with such villains, they were a certain amount short. In this case it was forty dollars. Hodges had fifty dollars, money that he had earned by laboring on a farm at $9 per month, and this sum the thieves got into their possession. They then gave their victim the dodge, and but for the vigilance of Arnold and Myers would have escaped unwhipped of justice. Bross fined them each $100 under the city ordinances, and under the State law ruled each in a bond of $500, to appear and answer the Circuit court at its next session. They failed to fill the bond, and are, therefore, inmates of the County Jail. About their persons were found sundry villainous trappings, three-card monte packages, express envelopes, chloroform and laudanum, etc., and so forth. When faced by Hodges they denied most stoutly and vehemently that they ever saw him before in their lives; but it so happened that credible witnesses had seen them in the young man's company. A small amount of counterfeit money was found on their persons, but no part of the money belonging to Hodges.

A prominent levee merchant was fined $25 yesterday, for acting in the capacity of auctioneer in selling his own goods. The prosecution was instituted in part to determine the right of a citizen under the ordinances, to dispose of his own property in that manner. The police magistrate held that no such right exists; that if its existence should be acknowledged, all protection to auctioneers would be swept away. Indeed the license law itself would be rendered a nullity, since the auctioneer could buy all the goods committed to his hands for sale at auction, and then sell them as his own.

The Accident to the Arthur.

The following paragraph prepared yesterday for our river columns, was crowded out. We regard it worth its room, although somewhat delayed: The splendid steamer W. R. Arthur, one of the largest on the river, met with a very serious accident last Saturday morning while on her way, with a full load, from St. Louis to N. O. During the dense fog which prevailed on the morning mentioned, she had been laid up, we believe near Cape Girardeau, and the fog lifted sufficiently to cause the pilot to deem it safe to proceed down the river. Soon after starting out, a bank of fog suddenly settled down, rendering it impossible for her pilots to reach the shore, or even be certain in what direction it lay. While thus lost in the fog, she struck some rocks about ten miles below Cape Girardeau, which knocked a hole in her bow and opened several butt seams, causing her to ship a large quantity of water. Her crew was immediately put to work rolling her freight into the river to lighten her off the rocks, upon which her great weight had caused her to slide a considerable distance. The Bismark came along side soon afterwards and conveyed the horses, mules and passengers from the Arthur to the shore, and then remained to assist her. At last accounts the principal hole had been stopped and Capt. Lusk was confident of saving his boat.

Orphan's Donation.

On Tuesday evening, October 19th, the management of the Orphan Asylum propose holding a Donation Party, at the Asylum, on 25th street, for the benefit of the Orphans in charge of that institution. The good citizens of Cairo, always so liberal in their charities, are called upon to aid in securing the necessary supplies for the maintenance of the Asylum during the coming winter.

All kinds of provisions are much needed. Articles of clothing, money or anything, be it ever so small, will be most gladly received. Those in want of transportation will please send their donations to the store of Mr. G. D. Williamson or Mr. D. Hurd anytime before five o'clock of Tuesday evening, October 19. It is expected that the ladies, will set a supper at the Asylum, suitable to the occasion.

Every one is invited to come and bring his or her mite for the Orphans. Oct. 15th

Alexander County Teachers' Institute.

A session of the above named institute will be held at Thebes, commencing Thursday, October 21st, 1869, at one o'clock p. m., and continuing two days, until Saturday noon, October 23d.

The programme will embrace exercises in all the branches required by law to be taught in the public school, to-wit: orthography, English reading, penmanship, arithmetic, English grammar, modern geography, and the history of the United States; with music and essays, discussions and addresses on educational subjects, interspersed.

Teachers and school directors will take notice that "no reduction of pay or loss of time will be incurred by the teachers attending" this institute; and the teachers from every school district in the county, outside of Cairo, (which exception is made because an institute will be held there sometime during the Fall or Winter) are expected to be present and take part in the exercises. The school directors of every district should require their teachers to attend, since it is to their interest to have competent teachers; and no better opportunity for testing their competence will be afforded than the exercises of this institute; and the county superintendent pledges himself to revoke the certificate of any teacher whose incompetency is made apparent.

Not knowing who at present compose the executive committee of the Alexander county Teachers' Institute, the county superintendent has taken this method of complying with the school law which makes it his duty to encourage the formation of teachers' institutes. All friends of education are cordially invited. L. P. BUTLER, County Superintendent of Schools.

RIVER NEWS.

ARRIVALS.

The Hammit, Columbus; Wm White, Paducah; Ben Accord, Mound City; Olive Branch, N. O.; Lawrence, Cincinnati; Luminary, Wheeling; Richmond, St. Louis; City of Alton, Memphis.

DEPARTURES.

The Hammit, Columbus; Wm White, Paducah; Olive Branch, St. Louis; Lawrence, New O.; Luminary, St. Louis; Richmond, N. O.; City of Cairo, St. Louis; Wauvita, Memphis; Ben Accord, St. Louis.

The weather became cloudy, cold and windy during last night, and a light sprinkle of rain fell this forenoon. It seemed too cold however for more. Snow would seem more probable.

The Mississippi and all the upper rivers are falling slowly, and the low water season is now slowly approaching—two months later than ever known before. There is about nine feet water to St. Louis.

The Ohio is falling everywhere, with 34 inches at Pittsburg and 3 feet 10 inches in the canal at Louisville.

Here the river has fallen three inches since last report.

Business was brisk yesterday, but not a solitary steamer has arrived or departed to-day.

The latest news from the Arthur reports that boat out of immediate danger but still fast on the rocks. She is probably afloat now.

The McPorter reported that the Commonwealth had a ground last night, at Sisters Islands 20 miles above Cairo. The Commonwealth has a big load from St. Louis to N. O.

The new boat building at New Albany for Messrs. Busouchet & Co. for the Cairo and Evansville trade, is to be similar to the Ben Franklin, now running between Louisville and Cincinnati, but it is said she is to have more power. We are afraid she is going to be a little too large, but hope the business in that trade will have increased sufficiently to support her by the time she is finished. If a good boat is placed in that trade by the late owners of the Cumberland, there will be a fine line, as Capt. Dexter's new boat is also said to be a very fine and large one.
