

Do They Result in Good?

Rev. Sam Jones' colleague in Savannah is Rev. George R. Stewart. He is more than an apt scholar in throwing hot oil-driest bricks of the Sam Jones variety.

In his Sunday afternoon sermon among other things Mr. Stewart said: "I tell you the highest society in this land is in too many respects like the lowest. I mean what I say. You go into the house of the highest in society and into the vilest den in this city, and you find the people in both doing the same things."

At this point, Rev. Sam said in an undertone of mock reproval, but loud enough to be heard by everybody in the building: "George you are getting vulgar now."

Fish and the Alphabet. Perhaps the funniest thing to be told respecting the antiquity of fishing relates to the holy wars which were waged in ancient Egypt over the funny denizens of the water.
