

The Surgeon's Knife. To the Editor of the Ocala Banner. The Ocala Banner kindly and humanly suggests the surgeon's knife as a cure for rape, this of course after the act. The writer would offer an amendment: That the knife be employed before the consummation of the deed and most contemptible of all the long list of crimes, which are purely the result of insanity or brutal ignorance, almost generally both, and the result of lasciviousness during the period of gestation on the part of the parent.

This remedy, if employed in childhood, say the years between three and five for all males showing traces of African extraction will also undoubtedly solve this grave and ever growing race question in the south. But if Count Tolsti is right and the extinction of the entire humanity desirable, then let us extend the law to all races under the stars and stripes, hoping that all other civilized nations will soon follow suit; if the near future has nothing better to offer to mankind, than a so-called Christian civilization, it were better Count Tolsti's method of extermination be adopted and absolute abstinence and chastity be made as easy as possible. An antropomorphic ape either black, white, red, yellow or brown, can be trained, schooled, educated and polished into a gentleman of the genus homo by employing the methods of horsebreeders, or he can not and until the fair trial is made the burden of proof to the contrary lies on the shoulders of those who seek to perpetuate scientific and wholly absurd methods.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is on a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant drains which are often consequent on marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the check of its freshness and the form of its fairness. As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Half a million women and more have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.
