

Stop the Blight

It is a sad thing to see fine trees spoiled by the blight. You can always tell them from the rest. They never do well afterwards but stay small and feeble.

It is worse to see a blight strike children. Good health is the natural right of children. But some of them don't get their rights. While the rest grow big and strong one stays small and weak.

Scott's Emulsion can stop that blight. There is no reason why such a child should stay small. Scott's Emulsion is a medicine with lots of strength in it—the kind of strength that makes things grow.

Scott's Emulsion makes children grow, makes them eat, makes them sleep, makes them play. Give the weak child a chance. Scott's Emulsion will make it catch up with the rest.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.

Our Reasons For Giving Thanks.

The president of the United States and the governor of the state of Florida have issued proclamations setting apart Thursday, the 28th day of November as a day of thanksgiving.

The president sets forth the following reasons:

"The past year in particular has been one of peace and plenty. We have prospered in things material, and have been able to work for our own uplifting in things intellectual and spiritual. Let us remember that, as much has been given us, much will be expected of us; and that true homage comes from the heart as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds. We can best prove our thanksgiving to the Almighty by the way in which on this earth and at this time each of us does his duty to his fellow-men."

"We hope the president's suggestion will be liberally and everywhere followed."

The governor sets forth the following reasons:

"We have received from our forefathers the principle upon which is founded a government deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed. No people enjoy more freedom of action, wider individual responsibility and greater protection than those living within our borders."

"The justness of our laws and the stability of our institutions as means of securing personal liberty and of protecting life and property have been severely tested by those among us who were not reared under our form of government, and who have been taught to obey leaders instead of the law."

"We should feel profoundly thankful that the grave situations which have been presented to our officers and people have been met and controlled by peaceful means under the beneficence and power of our wholesome laws."

"During this year the state has suffered a disastrous conflagration that left ten thousand of our fellow-citizens homeless and temporarily without means. The sufferers had the hearty sympathy and the generous assistance of the people of our common country. This terrible calamity has been borne with heroic fortitude and its losses are being rapidly overcome."

"The population of the state is steadily increasing. Its resources are steadily being developed and its advantages are receiving more general recognition. Unusual and successful efforts have been devoted to preparing the youth of the land for better citizenship by providing increased and infant mortality is something rightful. Nearly one-quarter die before they reach one year, one-third before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen! The timely use of White's Cream Vermifuge would save a majority of these precious lives. Price 25 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

improved educational facilities within the reach of all.

"With excellent health and encouraging prospects our people are moving forward with confidence to a more extended prosperity."

"For all these and other blessings we should be devoutly grateful."

"On the day thus set apart we should lay aside our usual business affairs and unite in giving thanks and praise to a wise and merciful Providence, invoking a continuance of His blessings to our people."

Ocala as Seen through Gainesville Spectacles.

The editor of the Sun spent two days in Ocala and while there took occasion to take a look at the city and a portion of the surrounding country. He was agreeably surprised at the advancement made during the past two years. The people are united in their efforts to make progress. Evidences are seen on every side that Ocala is a live city, full of push, enterprise and public spirit. The people are wholesome and hospitable and make one feel at home.

We were informed by those who are in a position to know that the city has recovered from the effects of the great freeze and bank failures and is on a more solid and substantial basis now than ever in its history. The streets are well improved, the roads reaching out in the country are of the first class, and everything indicates that the growth of our neighboring city may be regarded as fully assured.—Gainesville Sun.

All exhibits should be placed in the depot they are to be shipped from, securely packed in boxes, packages or otherwise, with a shipping tag I have mailed to every locality of the county affixed to each package, on Thursday, the 14th inst., so as to insure the shipping of such exhibits the first train on Friday, the 15th. Exhibitors will also get the depot or express agent through whom they ship to make duplicate bills of lading and forward one to H. W. Long, care of G. P. Healy, General Manager State Fair, Jacksonville, so as to enable me to keep in touch with all exhibits sent, and enter them in a book that will be kept for that purpose. Observance of the foregoing instructions will simplify matters and aid me very materially in transferring exhibits and getting them in proper position in Marion county's space.

Growing Up With the Country.

Mr. Dan Hunnicutt, so well known to our readers, like Hon. Frank Clark, went to Oklahoma City to grow up with the country, and the Ocala Banner notes with pleasure that he is succeeding in doing so. It has an Oklahoma paper in which Mr. Hunnicutt's name appears as one of the delegates to a convention the purpose of which is to knock at the door of congress for immediate admission into the Union, and the Ocala Banner ventures to say that Mr. Hunnicutt can do as loud knocking as any man in the territory.

The Ocala Banner tips its hat to him and hopes that he will be the first to warm a seat in congress from this new star in our constellation of states.

Death of Clarence Sweets.

We are deeply pained to learn of the death of the above named gentleman which occurred at his home in Anniston, Ala., last Sunday.

The deceased was well known in this city, and learned the trade of printing as an apprentice in the office of the Ocala Banner. He was exceptionally bright and praiseworthy. At the time of his death he managed a printing establishment of his own and was prospering in business.

He visited Florida last winter and was a guest of the Florida state press association at its meeting in Miami. Mr. Sweets was about twenty-five years old. His death was very lamentable.
