

The Eminent Kidney and Bladder Specialist.

The Discoverer of Swamp-Root at Work in His Laboratory.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Then the richness of the blood—the albumen—leaks out and the sufferer has Bright's Disease, the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root the new discovery is the true specific for kidney, bladder and urinary troubles. It has cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases, after all other efforts have failed. At druggists in fifty-cent and dollar sizes. A sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling about Swamp-Root and its wonderful cures. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. and mention this paper.

Tribute to William Bachelder.

Mr. William Bachelder, who died at his home in Ocala on the 20th of last month, was a man of most exemplary character in every respect—a man whom we could ill afford to lose from our midst.

Mr. Bachelder was of a quiet and retiring disposition, and consequently was, perhaps, more difficult to get acquainted with than some others, but those who did know him loved him, and those who knew him best loved him most.

In business, as in all other relations, he was the soul of honor and integrity. He had been a partner with Mr. R. E. Yonge in the plumbing business in Ocala for about twenty years, and their relations were always of the most pleasant nature.

As a citizen, he was always found advocating and assisting in every movement for the city's good.

As a christian, his life and influence cast a glorious halo of brightness, purity and love on every side that will widen and deepen throughout the boundless realms of eternity. He was a zealous and devoted member of the M. E. church, south, always never happier than when engaging in the service of his church.

Mr. Bachelder was indeed a christian at home, and his was a christian home in its truest sense. There he taught and impressed upon his household the importance of this life and the necessity of preparing for the life above. There he ever kept aglow the altar of family prayer. How they will miss him at home! Our deepest sympathy goes out to the stricken ones there. May divine comfort and strength sustain them.

And how he will be missed in the church, in business, in the community at large!

Mr. Bachelder was a man of high intellectual attainments, and was continually surprising and delighting his hearers with his elegant and masterly flow of language when induced to speak on any subject.

During the last few years of his life he passed through much physical suffering, but endured it all with sublime patience and fortitude; and when the death messenger called for him, he gladly welcomed and obeyed the summons to come up higher.

He has passed from earthly care To the blissful land above. Let us strive to meet him there In that land where all is love.

Home.

"Home, how sweet that word sounds upon the listening ear.

"Answer this question, dear friend? Is there any place like home, for a man who is worn out with the anxiety and cares of the day.

"You may visit, but make a tour of the old world, but can anything be as pleasing to the eye, as sweet to the soul as home.

"I can easily see why the song, 'Home, Sweet Home,' has been and always will be the sweetest song ever sung by mortal tongue. I take pleasure in quoting those beautiful words, 'Be it ever so humble, there is no place like home.'

"Girls may be reared in poverty, but when they grow to young womanhood they marry, perhaps rich; they have every luxury wealth can afford but still they look back and say, 'Oh! for one day in that old home.'

"Children may visit their playmates, but if they get angry with each other the first word of the child is, 'I am going right home.'

"A boy may drink and fall so low that no one welcomes him to their home, he then turns in despair and asks himself, 'Where shall I go?' Then the answer comes from some unknown place—come home.

"You may perhaps be taken sick in some distant city, you are cared for, and every attention possible is given, but still you murmur, 'If I was only home.'

"So, kind friends, always consider a home with a dear family a blessing that you would not like to forfeit."

The above beautiful and touching composition written by Miss Kibbie DeVane, of this city, with an hour's time for its preparation. It was awarded the prize of $20.00 at the Georgia State Fair recently held in Savannah.

Mulligan-Vogt.

A marriage of interest to many that will occur Thursday evening is that of Mr. St. Julien Ernest Vogt and Miss Mary Berton Mulligan. The ceremony will be performed at the manse of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Dr. Plunket officiating. No invitations have been issued and only the immediate relatives and a few friends will be present. Mr. and Mrs. Vogt will leave on a trip to Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Ocala and other points of interest in Florida.

There are few people in Augusta with more friends than Miss Mulligan and Mr. Vogt. Though the latter is a native of Florida, he has lived in Augusta for some years and has made hundreds of friends by his gentlemanly, quiet demeanor and universal courtliness. Miss Mulligan, too, is very popular, uniting in herself many excellent qualities of heart and mind.

The best wishes of many will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Vogt on their life's journey.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

Mr. Vogt, who is a native of Ocala, has many friends here who will be glad to learn of his marriage, which occurred last night. Mr. Vogt and his bride will spend a few days here on their wedding journey.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. L. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of liver and kidney trouble, nervous prostration and general debility, but "three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction guaranteed by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store. Only 50c.

An ex-Ocalian Wins Honors.

Mr. Alfred Allen, who, it will be remembered, resided in this city during the halcyon period of the phosphate era and edited a magazine entitled "Florida," has recently won high literary distinction as the author of a play written for "Town Topics" entitled, "Chivalry" and for which he received a prize of $1,000 offered by that publication for the best play.

Mr. Allen's production seems to have struck a popular chord and he is just now the literary lion.

While living in this city Mr. Allen wrote a novel entitled, "The Iron Heart" and since leaving here wrote a second one entitled, "Judge Lynch" the scene of which was located in Citrus county and was based on the lynching of the murderer of Mr. Stevenson, a Canadian, who was a resident of Ocala.

How to Cure Croup.

Mr. R. Gray, who lives near Amenia, Dutchess county, N. Y., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine I have ever used. It is a fine children's remedy for croup and fails to cure." This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

Scott's Emulsion is the right help. It breaks up such a combination. First it sets the stomach right. Then it enriches the blood. That strengthens the body and it begins to grow new flesh.

A strong body makes rich blood and rich blood makes a strong body. Each makes the other better. This is the way Scott's Emulsion puts the thin body on its feet. Now it can get along by itself. No need of medicine.

Ladies' Ready-Made Garments.

This is the line that so many of our competitors have been hard at work to learn how we can sell so low and yet keep it up. The mystery will now be explained. It is a known fact that if you sell "BELOW COST" you can't keep things a-going. We do not sell below cost, but as our sales are so many we can afford to sell at a very small profit.

We don't think much need be said regarding this line, but simply that we are always up to date on all styles and prices to correspond with our other goods.

FINE DRESS GOODS.

If space would allow us to tell you about this line it would take up much more time to read about this than any other news in this paper, but as our space is limited we will only say that we carry a more varied and up-to-date line than any other store in Central Florida, and as to our prices, you may consult your neighbors, for some of them must surely have traded at our store if ever in Ocala.
