HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Warren Holtzclaw, of Candler, was in the city Monday.

Col. W. B. Wilson, of Charleston, is again at the Ocala House.

Mr. Josiah Varn returned Tuesday from a business trip to South Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Hatton have returned to their old home in Paris, France.

Fred Weibe returned Tuesday from a visit of several weeks in Jacksonville.

Miss Mamie Love left Wednesday for a visit to Ocala.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Cecil's Corn Salve cures your corns without making them sore. Ask for it at Tydings & Co.

On the 4th day of July all roads will lead towards Ocala and everybody will be headed in this direction.

Mrs. J. M. Gates and son, Frank, went to Lake Weir Monday afternoon to join Mr. Gates. They will remain all summer.

The reading club held a pleasant meeting with Miss Sara and Miss Violet Harris Tuesday afternoon. Kipling was studied.

A full line of Whiting's fine stationery may be found at Tydings & Co's drug store. All shades and qualities are included in our stock.

Mr. R. L. Ivey, who has been quite ill for several weeks, left Tuesday for White Springs, where he will spend some time recuperating.

Mrs. Bulloch, of Bartow, who has been in Ocala for some time visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. M. Eaton, returned home Monday afternoon.

Judge W. S. Bullock is holding circuit court at Inverness. His sons, Willie and Julian accompanied him and will spend several days fishing on Lake Tsala Apopka.

The Club House continues to maintain its popularity. Among the arrivals Tuesday were H. S. Chambers, C. L. Sistrunk, H. G. Eagleton, B. E. Raynor, city; and A. W. Burnett, Pittsburg.

No good health unless the kidneys are sound. Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys right. Post Office Drug Store.

Mayor Fishel, chairman of the Fourth of July finance committee, reports that he has already collected over a hundred dollars for the big blowout on that day.

At the Baptist church Sunday morning Miss Hattie Mae Porter sang most delightfully. This was the first time Miss Porter had sung in public since her return home and as usual all were charmed with her voice.

Arkansas Chill Tonic is the best chill medicine on the market. Tydings & Co. have sold during the past nine months 1488 bottles of this excellent tonic.

Miss Carrie Samford, of Opelika, Alabama, who is the guest of Mrs. R. G. Blake, delighted the congregation at the Presbyterian church Sunday night with a beautiful vocal solo. She has a splendid voice and her singing was greatly enjoyed.

Hon. and Mrs. C. M. Brown returned from Tallahassee Sunday afternoon. Mr. Brown said that several of his bills were killed per force of parliamentary tactics. He says he is going to devote the next two years to the study of parliamentary law in order to get even with some of his colleagues.

During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. Post Office Drug Store.

Dr. E. Van Hood returned home Monday morning much to the delight of his many friends. He has been absent seven months and during this time toured Arizona, Colorado, California, New Mexico, Texas and other states. He visited the Yosemite Valley and many other beautiful places in the west. He is in splendid health and his travels have been most delightful.

"I have been troubled for some time with indigestion and sour stomach," says Mrs. Sarah W. Curtis, of Lee, Mass., "and have been taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets which have helped me very much, so that now I can eat many things that before I could not." If you have any trouble with your stomach why not take these tablets and get well? For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment, and when applied to cuts, bruises and burns, causes them to heal without maturation and much more quickly than by the usual treatment. A PLEASANT EVENING WITH MRS. HOCKER.

Miss Venable and Miss Porter Guests of Honor at a Lovely Party.

A delightful event this week was the party Monday night at which Mrs. William Hocker entertained complimentary to her guest, Miss Elizabeth Venable, of Jacksonville, and Miss Hattie Mae Porter, of this city.

Mrs. Hocker's lovely home is beautifully adapted to entertaining and her guests spent an ideally pleasant evening.

Everywhere about the house, on the mantels, tables, pianos, were placed vases of "brown eyed Susans" which lent added attractiveness to the rooms.

The guests were met at the door by Miss Frances Anderson and Miss Hazel Hiller and were shown into the parlor where Mrs. Hocker and the fair guests of honor welcomed them most cordially.

Miss Venable, a tall and stately brunette, looked handsome in white. A touch of color was given her costume by the red geraniums in her hair and her bouquet of red and pink roses. Miss Porter wore a lovely gown of white lace over yellow satin and Mrs. Hocker was also in white.

After the guests had all arrived Miss Venable and Miss Porter chose sides and charades were acted. This was a very novel mode of entertaining and proved most delightful. The dining room was used as the stage. The charades were all good ones and were splendidly carried out and each side kept the other guessing and thinking hard but in the end all of them were solved.

In one of the charades a recitation was given by Miss Bessie Porter, who is quite a talented elocutionist.

After the acting of the charades delicious peach cream and cake was enjoyed and later in the evening Miss Porter rendered several vocal solos which added more pleasure to a most pleasant evening.

"How noseless falls the foot of Time,
That only treads on flowers."

It is a matter of sincere regret that Miss Venable's visit in Ocala was of such short duration and it is hoped that she will make Ocala another visit at an early date.

The following were Mrs. Hocker's guests: Misses Elizabeth Venable, Hattie Mae Porter, Mrs. Edward Hiller, Misses Hattie Dye, Esther Weathers, Mary Reardon, Bessie Porter, Florrie Crook, Louella Gary, Marie Bullock, Sara Harris, Violet Harris, Sallie Camp, Jessie Palmer, Pauline Sullivan, Annie Davis, Valeta Potter, Frances Anderson, Hazle Hiller, Mattie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller, Messrs. W. W. Martin, S. E. Hiller, Arthur Masters, B. S. Weathers, W. T. Wheeler, E. J. Crook, W. T. Gary, C. V. Miller, G. H. Ford, C. L. Anderson, Clifton Camp, W. W. Condon, Emmett Robinson, Robert Mathews, J. H. Taylor, J. H. Mathews, O. B. Howse, Eugene Cox, Leon Hanlon.

His Last Hope Realized.
(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mon.)

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889 the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad weather, which, together with severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed, and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders suggests this item. For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

THE FOURTH.

Ocala Will be "It" on the Nation's Birthday.

The various committees selected to arrange for our big Fourth of July celebration are hard at work and everybody who is so fortunate as to be within our gates on that day is promised a time that will be remembered till time shall be no more.

The "committee on public comfort" have arranged all the details in this line, so our guests are respectfully notified that they can get plenty to eat—a sandwich this size for a nickel.

K. of P. Memorial Exercises.
The Knights of Pythias lodge, No. 19, held memorial exercises Sunday afternoon.

This is one of the largest fraternal orders in the city and is constantly adding new names to their list of members.

In response to announcements printed in the local press the Knights met in Castle Hall promptly at three o'clock Sunday afternoon and marched in regular order, wearing their regalia of office, first to the old cemetery. On reaching there Chancellor Commander, T. J. Owen, read the beautiful memorial service and Mr. O. T. Green, in the absence of Rev. J. A. Hendry, delivered a beautiful impromptu eulogy over the dead. He mentioned in touching language the names of those Knights who lie buried in our cemeteries.

The lodge was organized in this city in 1890, since which time fifteen of its members have passed over the river to that undiscovered country. The following is a list of the departed Knights, viz: Mr. Kingman, Geo. Vinal, Edward Badger, R. B. McConnell, J. A. Rowell, James J. Hill, Chas. Witzig, Philip Kellogg, Walter Stevens, B. Dupree Hodge, O. H. Perry, C. H. Colby, A. J. Witt, M. L. Tuttle, C. J. Garrett.

At the close of the memorial exercises the Knights visited the graves and decorated them with flowers.

They then took carriages and went to Greenwood cemetery and strewed flowers over the graves of the Knights who are buried there.

The ritual is a very beautiful one and the exercises Sunday afternoon were very impressive and largely attended.

Cupid Brings Ocala and Miami Together.

The Miami Metropolis of June 5, gives an interesting write-up of the marriage of Mr. Joe F. Chaile and Miss Minnie Hall.

The home was elegantly decorated with exquisite pot plants and flowers. The Metropolis says:

"Mr. Chaile is a young man who enjoys in a marked degree the esteem and respect of all our citizens. Starting with a modest beginning he has built up a successful business, thus evidencing his capacity and energy; while all who know him attest his sterling worth of character, his integrity and high moral reputation. The bride is one of the loveliest, most amiable and cultured young ladies who ever graced this community and in winning her for a bride the groom has secured a treasure verily better than great riches."

The wedding presents were numerous and embraced many useful and elegant articles.

HON. C. M. BROWN

Holds up the Hunds of the Executive Committee

OCALA, FLA., June 10.

To the Editor of the Ocala Banner.

Since my return from Tallahassee I have heard much regarding the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. E. P. Thagard.

I desire to say, through your paper to the voters of Marion county and to the executive committee in particular, that I think the governor's action when the time comes will be satisfactory to them and to us. I can see no reason why it should be otherwise, for his whole administration has been marked with good and wise appointments and, as yet, no stain or blemish can be found upon the escutcheon of his executive ability.

Now, as to my position touching this matter, I feel that the voters of this county have honored me by their confidence with a high and honorable position, and I will never betray that trust.

The action of the executive committee meets with my approval, and to the extent of my ability, I sanction and uphold them.
