

LITTLE COLOMBIA IS ANGRY WITH U. S.

Condemns Action American Naval Forces at Colon.

CONSUL TORRES INTERVIEWED

He Says Colombia Was Prevented from Sending Troops to Panama and Fulfilling Her Treaty Obligations to Maintain Order.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Patrie this afternoon publishes in a dispatch from Antwerp, Belgium, an interview with General Torres, consul general of Colombia, who says he has not received a dispatch from Colombia announcing that 7,000 troops are about to arrive at Savannah on their way to Colon. Among the number are 500 men from the department of Antioquia.

The department of Boyaca is also furnishing its contingent.

Consul General Torres adds that the action of the American naval forces at Colon prevented Colombia from sending troops to Panama to suppress the uprising, thus preventing Colombia from fulfilling her treaty obligation to maintain order. He further declared that in spite of American interference Colombia will fulfill her treaty duties and will march troops by land to Panama.

The Patrie asserts that the foregoing interview discloses that Colombia has decided "not to permit the United States to take art of her territory under the pretext of creating a new republic."

Appointed Diplomatic Agent.

Panama, Nov. 9.—M. Philippe Buzon-Varela has been appointed diplomatic agent of the republic of Panama at Washington.

He is one of the financial agents of the Panama company. His first official act was to officially notify the United States that the United States has recognized the de facto government of the republic of Panama. The news has caused great rejoicing here and was telegraphed throughout the country.

Preparations are being made to celebrate the event with great enthusiasm. M. Philippe Buzon-Varela is now in New York.

Trouble at Bogota.

Washington, Nov. 9.—A dispatch to the state department from Minister Beaupre, dated at Bogota, Nov. 4, says there were rumors of trouble and insurrection there on that date.

REPUBLIC OF PANAMA.

Before Recognition France Demands Specific Declaration.

Paris, Nov. 9.—Before the recognition by France of the republic of Panama, Foreign Minister Del Casse has decided to secure a specific declaration that the new regime will carry out Colombia's former obligations in connection with the canal and other French property interests. Until this declaration is unmistakably given, French recognition will be withheld, but as soon as it is given there is the best reason to believe that France will recognize the independence of the new state.

Cable inquiries are now proceeding to secure the specific assurance requested. The French consul at Panama cabled yesterday that Panama would assume Colombia's former treaty and legal obligations. This is considered by the officials here as making practically certain the intentions of the new state towards French property rights, but in order to remove the slightest question of doubt, a definite declaration from the new regime is awaited.

When this is received it is expected that the French course towards the recognition of the new state will follow substantially that taken by Washington yesterday, the French consul at Panama being directed to enter into relations with the new authorities, and formal letters of recognition following later. The officials here construe the action taken by the United States as being equivalent to a full recognition of the new state.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLS COMRADE

Florida Youth Causes Death of His Playmate.

Palatka, Fla., Nov. 9.—The 8-year-old son of J. H. Merriday, was accidentally shot and killed here.

Albert Marvic was endeavoring to unload a shotgun when in some manner it was discharged, the entire load entering the little boy's breast.

He died without speaking or moving, except that he turned his eyes to look at his mother, who rushed to where he lay. Young Marvic, who held the gun, is prostrated.

Both boys were of prominent families.

WAR ON BAD BLACKS.

General Movement Along Mississippi River to Oust Bad Element.

New Orleans, Nov. 9.—The lynching at Pass Christian was the culmination of the development of negro outlawry in that section, and may be followed by a general movement along the Mississippi coast to get rid of the bad element.

The woman outraged was Mrs. Peter Labouisse, who was Mrs. Osgood Peel, a society belle of New York, having been Miss Isabel Townsend before her first marriage.

She is in a serious condition.

HE MASQUERADED AS A MILLIONAIRE

Imposter Impersonated Robert Goelet, of New York.

TO WIN HAND OF YOUNG GIRL.

Goelet Family Employs Detective to Clear Up Mystery in Which Young Millionaire's Name, Figured Extensively in Rumored Nuptials.

New York, Nov. 9.—Convinced that an imposter used their name to gain the hand of Miss Eleanor Anderson, a telegraph operator in an uptown hotel, the family of Robert Goelet has employed detectives to find the man, with instructions to leave no stone unturned to clear up the mystery which a day or two ago took the form of an announcement that the young millionaire was about to wed Miss Anderson.

The latter story was denied, but the Anderson family insisted that a man representing himself as Robert Goelet had been presented to their daughter with letters of introduction and he also used cards bearing that name.

It has been learned that the letters still in the possession of the Andersons were forgeries.

The imposter went so far as to show Miss Anderson her future home on Fifth avenue, and all preparations were made for the wedding when the story got into the newspapers and thus reached the man who was supposed to be taking the leading part in the romance. Thus far no trace of the man's true identity has been secured.

VERDICT AGAINST EVANS.

Fined $500 for Shooting at Bryan, Doss Paid Fine.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 9.—Nat Evans, the third member of the gambling fraternity in Savannah to appear in the superior court this week, was found guilty of shooting at another and recommended to the mercy of the court.

Judge Pope Barrow fined him $500 with an alternative of serving six months on the chain gang. The judge told him he would impose a light sentence, as he thought Evans had been led into the affray by James L. Doss, who has already been sentenced. Doss promptly paid Evans' fine. Evans shot Gad D. Bryan, Jr., twice during the fracas.

Tomato Butter.

Tomato butter is a delicacy put up by some western housewives. To nine pounds of tomatoes peeled and sliced allow three pounds of sugar, one pint of vinegar, three tablespoonfuls of cinnamon, one and a half tablespoonfuls of allspice and one tablespoonful of cloves. Cook until thick, stirring often to prevent scorching.

In the Curtain Line.

Egyptian net is one of the recent things in the curtain line. Its distinctive decoration is a star on a groundwork of net. Curtains of this fabric are ruffled along the edge and are particularly good for bedroom or boudoir use.

attention. A very pretty design and one also easy of accomplishment is shown in the cut.

It is equally suitable for muslin, cashmere or silk, a spotted border of cambric or silk forming its only decoration. The material is laid in box plaits, through which a ribbon matching the border in color is threaded, ending in a chou on the left side, where the negligee fastens.

Receiver Appointed.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—A receiver has been appointed for Landreth & Sons, seed merchants. The liabilities are about $150,000, and assets much less. The house is one of the oldest in the country, having been founded in 1784 by David Landreth, who came from England.

The Fastidious Man And the Waiter

"I was much amused the other day," said the man with the raveled cigar, "by a conversation that took place in a certain little cafe downtown between a fastidious patron and the waiter assigned to the task of serving him.

"As I was sitting near the fastidious patron I could not fail to overhear his orders, the exactitude of which were most edifying. I saw that the waiter had, as I had, too, immediately sized up the man. He had a nasty, irritating little cough, and he sipped ice water while giving his order. The conversation ran about this way:

"Bring me a pot of coffee," said the finicky customer, "a pot, mind you, not a cup of coffee, but a pot of it. And it must be hot—hot and strong. Don't forget that. Also a tenderloin steak, rare. Please remember that, waiter. And don't have any fat on it. I can't bear the sight of fat in the morning."

"Very well, sir," said the waiter politely; "no fat."

"And bring me some dry toast; hot, remember—hot toast—and have it made of stale bread. And see that it is toasted outside and not soggy within. I hate soggy toast. Please bear that in mind."

"Very good, sir," replied the waiter; "not soggy within."

"Also some sliced tomatoes," continued the man. "And take the ice from them and drain them. I want my tomatoes dry; understand, dry, not wet! Don't forget."

"Yes, sir," responded the waiter; "tomatoes must be dry."

"And now let's see, let's see. Oh, yes. Bring me some fried eggs. Be sure that they are perfectly fresh—perfectly fresh. And I desire them fried on one side only. You won't forget that?"

"Oh, no, sir," ejaculated the waiter; "I'll not forget. And which side, sir?"

The Sarcasmic Father.

Old Attorney—Another blunder! I am almost discouraged with you. There is but twice a day that I feel you to justify the term "rising young attorney."

All the Better For Her.

Freddie—I told Kitzie Kicker that the governor was awfully mad because I had no bowties.

Algie—And what did she say, dear boy?

Freddie—She said she'd be awfully mad if I had.

Sailors Are Fond of Sweet Things.

Sailors are very fond of sweet things, and to one who knows little about them it is surprising to learn the quantity of candy they consume. In the ship's store are kept buckets of this article, which is one of the chief commodities in exchange for which a sailor parts with his pocket money. On large ships several thousand pounds of candy are frequently consumed on a cruise.—Gunton's Magazine.

Economical in Theory.

Hill—I suppose my wife is the most economical woman that ever stepped.

Dale—So?

Hill—Yes; she never spends money for anything that she does not say she will save it in something else.

Dale—And does she?

Hill—Well, you see, we never have got so far as that yet. But it is the principle I was talking about.—Boston Transcript.

Wage Increase Offered.

Chicago, November 7.—Representatives of the packing interests at the Union Stock Yards have offered the striking sausage makers and canners an increase in wages to a minimum of $1.75 a day, which probably will be accepted by the employes, preventing a general strike in all the centers of the industry.

All There Was Necessary.

"Charley never thinks of playing the races any more," said young Mrs. Torbins.

"I'm glad to hear it," said the friend. "How did you persuade him to quit?"

"I didn't persuade him at all. I accepted it in a spirit of patient resignation and told him that if he lost any more I was going to do the cooking myself."—Washington Star.

Russo-Japanese Negotiations.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—The negotiations between Russian and Japan have so far advanced that the Associated Press is officially informed that the announcement of a settlement may be expected soon.

War on Moonshiners.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 7.—The state authorities have at last taken active steps to wipe out the illicit distilleries in Yadkin county, where the moonshiners have been so defiant since the first of last July, when the Watts law went into effect. The result of the crusade is that four moonshiners have been convicted and sentenced to penitentiary, these being the first convictions for this offense ever effected in the state courts. The sentiment which used to be so strongly in favor of the moonshiners, who were helped up by many political speakers to the victims of federal oppression, is now rapidly changing, and the friends of the moonshiners now have are among the lawless element. Yet in some counties the sheriffs, afraid of the power of the liquor element, have failed to make any arrests.

Landslide Blocks Road.

Astoria, Ore., Nov. 7.—As a result of the late heavy rains a landslide has occurred at Bugby's point quarry near this place and the Astoria and Colombia railway track is covered with several thousand tons of rock. Travel will be interrupted several days.

Women's Kidneys

A Common Mistake which Causes Much Suffering

Women are just as likely to have kidney or bladder trouble as men; in fact, they are more so; but very often they attribute indications of disorders to complaints peculiar to their sex, while the real cause of their trouble is some distressing kidney or bladder disease.

Nervousness, headache, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, pain in the back, profuse or scanty supply of urine with strong odor and a frequent desire to pass it, with scalding or burning sensation, sediment after standing in a bottle twenty-four hours, are all signs of kidney or bladder trouble, which soon wear out the most robust.

If you have any of these symptoms FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE will cure you and restore your health.

We know there are thousands of women who are never well and who have almost lost hope of ever being well again, who would be speedily changed to bright, happy women, glowing with health, by taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE; thus removing the real cause of their misery instead of doctoring for "female troubles."

Mrs. FRANCES L. SALES, of Missouri Valley, Ia., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney trouble five years; had severe pains in my back and a frequent desire to urinate; when riding I experienced much pain over the region of the kidneys. I tried five physicians without benefit and then concluded to try FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. After taking three $1.00 bottles I was completely cured."
