OCALA, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1904

DOLLAR A YEAR

LARA ELIZABETH HARRIS, Local Editor

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN.

The price of automobiles is sure to take a tumble.

S. A. Standley left yesterday for a visit to St. Petersburg.

Mrs. L. W. Moore and children are visiting in the country for a few days.

Mrs. George Eugene Bryson, of Cuba, visiting Mrs. Frances A. Howse.

Mrs. L. P. Miller will leave in a few days for South Carolina to spend the summer.

One Ocala firm's Fourth of July retail trade amounted to two thousand dollars.

The Ocala postmastership seems to be in a tangle and Postmaster Groves continues to hold the fort.

Mr. Frank Harris, who, attended a meeting of the board of trustees of the University of Florida, in Jacksonville on Wednesday, returned yesterday.

Mr. Joseph McArthur, of Gainesville, arrived in Ocala yesterday and will spend a week the guest of his friend, Mr. Harry Izlar on Carolina Heights.

Miss Lucile Ansley, of Thomasville, Ga., it the guest of Miss Cornelia Ahlum in Jacksonville. Later on in the summer Miss Ansley will spend several weeks in Ocala.

Mrs. J. D. Williams, who has been visiting her daughters, Drs. Elizabeth and Mary Steele Ewing, will return to her home at Ocala, this week.—Atlanta Journal.

Rev. W. J. Carpenter, of Gainesville, one of the best known preachers in the Methodist conference, passed through Ocala yesterday en route for South Florida.

Mrs. Edward Holder left yesterday for Atlantic Beach to spend some weeks at the Continental Hotel. Mr. Holder will make frequent visits to the beach while Mrs. Holder is there.

Mr. Frank Teague, one of the best posted men in the state on lands, says the "flat woods" are rapidly coming to the front and are destined soon to be classed as the most valuable.

Mrs. H. C. Gates left yesterday morning for Fort Valley and Perry, Ga., to spend the summer with her two married daughters. The Gates House will be closed during her absence.

Mr. Ralph T. Birdsey, of Macon, Ga., arrived yesterday afternoon on a visit to his many Ocala friends who are delighted to see him. He is a guest at the home of his uncle, Mr. W. L. Jewett, on Ft. King avenue.

Mrs. S. L. Patterson and infant daughter, Annie Lester, who have been the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barco, for the past two weeks, left yesterday for the mountains of Virginia, where they will spend the summer. They were joined here by Mr. Patterson who accompanied them on their trip and will remain with them about two weeks.

Mrs. W. Lee Smith, of Gainesville, is in Ocala and paid this office a visit yesterday forenoon. Mrs. Smith is the author of a little book which has created something of a sensation in the "Oak City" so much so that an injunction was applied for to prevent the printers from turning the book over to Mrs. Smith, but it appears that the application for an injunction was denied and the book is now on sale. It caricatures some of Gainesville's prominent citizens and gives the outside and inside facts about the trial of the principal of the Gainesville public school for whipping Mrs. Smith little boy.

BASEBALL MONDAY.

TWO HOME TEAMS TO CROSS BATS ON THE DIAMOND.

The Evening Stars vs. the Ocala Banners—Three Match Games. Part of Gate Receipts to go to the Hospital.

Professional baseball as now played is so scientific that it is becoming uninteresting to the average onlooker, but the game among amateurs, where the players are all well known to the spectators, no game is more interesting and exciting than baseball.

Two amateur teams have been organized in Ocala and will play three games next week and the week after.

One of the teams has been named in honor of the Ocala Evening Star and one in honor of the Ocala Banner.

The Ocala Stars are made up of the following players, viz: Moses Liddell, catcher; Howard Clark, pitcher; W. T. Wheeler, first base; Fred Vogt, second base; Gordon Little, third base; Sanford Jewett, short stop; Pratt Morris, left field; Roberts, centerfield; Laurence Scott, right field.

The Ocala Banners are made up of the following players, viz: Don Ford, catcher; Charlie Moore, pitcher; Clifford Anderson, first base; Harper, second base; Frank Harris, jr., third base; Nathan Peyser, left field; Harry Bullock, short stop; J. S. Bristow, center field; Royal Cole, right field.

The first game will be played on the South Third street diamond Monday afternoon. Admission 25 cents.

We are requested to state that ten per cent of the gate receipts will be donated to the Marion County Hospital.

The friends of the players, the friends of the newspapers, the friends of the hospital and all lovers of the game are invited to be present and thereby aid the baseball association in helping to defray its expenses and help the city in having a little amusement to break the monotony of the dull summer season.

The Original

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitutes offered as no other preparations will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. Post-office Drug Store. m

Off to Lake Weir.

Wednesday afternoon a party of young people went down to Lake Weir to spend the afternoon and night. They returned yesterday. They carried tents, fishing tackle, picnic supplies and are anticipating a big time. The party was gotten up by Miss Sallie Camp for her guest, Miss Eleanor Cassidy, of Jacksonville. The others in the party were John Sullivan, Osco and Guy Zewadski, Misses Alice Bullock and Marguerite Porter, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Miller.

Ocala at the Metropolis.

Mr. R. E. Yonge, jr., spent a few days in Ocala this week, returning to Jacksonville Wednesday. He is now engaged in electrical contracting in Jacksonville, having within the past week opened an office on Laura street. He is at present employing ten men and business is on the daily increase. Rossie's many Ocala friends will be glad to learn of his success in the metropolis and join us in wishing him unbounded prosperity.

Temperate people should not use intemperate language.

For Miss Standley and Mr. Clark.

Miss Annie Mae Standley and Mr. Arthur Clark, whose marriage took place at 11:30 Wednesday morning, were entertained at a "heart party" Monday night by Miss Eloise Miller and Miss Grace Hatchell at the home of the former.

The lower floor of the house was very prettily decorated with palms and a great many red hearts scattered all about the rooms added a very suggestive and lovely touch to the decorations. The lights were all shaded with red, the color indicative of love and lovers, and the yard and front veranda were brilliantly illuminated with many Japanese lanterns.

Misses Miller, Hatchell, Standley and Mr. Clark received in the parlor. Those invited to meet the happy young couple were Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Miller, Misses Eleanor Cassidey, Sallie Camp, Beatrice Sinclair, Alice Bullock, Louise Scott, Florrie Condon, Jessie Palmer, Johnnie Liddon, Gertrude Peyser, Pauline Sullivan, Allie Van Juhan, Messrs. Harvey Clark, Bennie Condon, Emmett Robinson, Bob Mathews, Alfred Beck, Lee Cox, Dell Moody, Norton, Thayer Newman, Osco and Guy Zewadski, John Sullivan, Dempsey Mayo and Harry Palmer.

In the library suspended from the center of the room was a heart, to which was attached a number of ribbons. Concealed within the heart was a thimble and a bell, the young lady drawing the first was to be an old maid and the one finding the bell, to be the next bride. On pulling the ribbons it was found that Miss Peyser had gotten the thimble while Miss Scott blushing brought forth the bell.

After this the guests were all given little heart shaped books, on which they were required to write a sketch of the "soon to be" bride and groom. Some of the sketches were in verse and some in prose and all were good. The judges decided in favor of Miss Cassidey and Mr. Robertson, who were awarded the prizes, pretty stick pins.

The balance of the evening was spent playing hearts. Miss Beatrice Sinclair, winning the prize for being able to get rid of the greatest number of hearts.

Refreshments were served after the games by Misses Marguerite Porter, Caro Liddon and Mary Juhan.

Miss Cassidey, who possesses a very sweet voice, favored the guests with several songs before this delightful evening was ended.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers!

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, Oct. 27th, 1901: "During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle. Sold by Anti-monopoly Drug Store. m

Buys an Orange Grove.

Dr. Mary Steele Ewing, of Atlanta, Ga., daughter of Mrs. J. D. Williams, of this city, through Messrs. J. H. Livingston & Son, real estate dealers of Ocala, last week purchased a $7,000 orange grove near Arcadia in De Soto county and also a beautiful home in Arcadia. Dr. Ewing stopped over in Ocala for a brief visit on her way down to Arcadia. She has now returned to Atlanta.

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitable inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all druggists. m

Miss Louise Scott's Party.

On Tuesday evening at the lovely home of her parents on Fort King avenue Miss Louise Scott very royally entertained about thirty of her young friends. Everyone of Miss Scott's guests say that they never enjoyed an evening more.

Among the pleasant things done during the evening was what was called the "sky game." Each one present was given a large star on which was pasted tiny red stars and a certain number. Around the walls were stars and numbers corresponding to those on the big stars and the guests were required to hunt up the stars belonging to their cards. When this was done it was found that each set of stars spelled a word and in putting the words together by the aid of the numbers, the whole spelled the "Little Boy Blue" rhymes.

Another amusement was the guessing of "hidden books" from various pictures tacked around the walls. In this contest Miss Annie Atkinson won the first prize and Sam Teague got the "booby."

After this contest refreshments were served and afterwards various pleasant games were played and all had a happy evening.

At the Bowling Alley.

Wednesday afternoon the ladies bowled at the alley instead of on Monday afternoon, the regular ladies day. Those bowling on this occasion were: Mrs. William Hocker, Mrs. E. H. Mote, Misses Mona Hiller, Emily Ford, Johnnie Liddon, Polly Williams, Georgia Smith, Valeta Potter, Ethel Robinson and Sara Harris. Miss Liddon made the best score.

Mr. Chambers, who is now running the alley, treated the bowlers to ice cream, which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated. He is doing everything to make the alley popular with the ladies and it is hoped that a large number will be present on Monday afternoons at 5 o'clock.

A Shooting Scrape.

Ed Small and Dave White had a misunderstanding Tuesday about noon in Carmichael's up-town colored saloon and decided to shoot it out. Small used a shot gun loaded with buck shot while White held up his end with a 48-calibre revolver. Small fired twice missing White and shooting several bystanders, none seriously however. One of White's bullets struck Small on the forearm, breaking it.

Those who saw the entire proceedings say that Small was the aggressor and he is now in the county jail. White was released and left on the afternoon train for Inverness, where he acts in the capacity of a deputy sheriff.

Another Mysterious Killing.

As Mr. George Tyler was going from Ocala to the Hermitage Dairy yesterday about noon, he found a colored man lying dead in the road near the railroad crossing on Orange avenue. An examination revealed the fact that the man had been shot in the head by a pistol or rifle ball. The man proved to be Isiah Pitts, who had been engaged in driving a wagon for Mrs. J. J. Pyles. The body was brought to town and is now at the undertaking establishment of Messrs. McIver & MacMay. A coroner's jury was impanelled by Justice W. O. Waid, who will finish their investigations today.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

This remedy is certain to be needed in almost every home before the summer is over. It can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous of cases. It is especially valuable for summer disorders in children. It is pleasant to take and never fails to give prompt relief. Why not buy it now? It may save life. For sale by all druggists. m
