A DELIGHTFUL FUNCTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Entertain for Their Daughter, Miss Ethel Sayles Robinson.

On Friday evening a large number of the unmarried contingent responded to the invitations issued by Mr. and Mrs. George Kingsley Robinson, for the dancing party in compliment to their daughter, Miss Ethel Sayles Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and Miss Robinson met their guests on the large front veranda, which had been transformed into a summer parlor. Mrs. Robinson was gowned in white and blue Japanese silk and Miss Robinson was looking particularly well in a blue null over silk.

The house is well arranged for dancing, the five large rooms all being thrown together and the glasslike floors, making dancing delightful.

Delicious punch was served on the veranda between the dances. The back veranda was a charming rendezvous for the dancers, it being screened in with large ferns and palms and benches placed here and there made it quite cozy. These little cozy corners were also found out under the large oaks.

Mr. Leon Fishel furnished the enjoyable music, playing sixteen numbers and four extras. During the intermission refreshments were served and later Mr. A. C. Finzel sang several selections very sweetly.

The guests at this beautiful function were Misses Lucile Ansley, of Thomasville, Ga., Polly Williams, Eulalee Izlar, Violet Harris, Johnnie Liddon, Annie Davis, Pauline Sullivan, Edith Piatt, Mary Little, Valeta Potter, Sue Barco, and Mrs. A. A. Marsh, Messrs. J. H. and W. D. Taylor, E. T. Helvenston, J. H. Mathews, Sandford and Stephen Jewett, C. L. Anderson, Harvey Clark, B. H. Clark, W. T. Wheeler, E. E. Robinson, O. B. Howse, A. C. Thursday evening at her home on Ocklawaha avenue, Miss Johnnie Liddon very delightfully entertained the Good Time Summer Club and the following guests: Messrs. Mike Roess, C. L. Anderson, Stephen and Sandford Jewett, Howard and Harvey Clark, N. A. Weathers, G. H. Ford, E. T. Helvenston, W. T. Wheeler, J. H. Taylor, J. H. Mathews, O. B. Howse, E. J. Crook and Drs. E. L. Scott and H. A. Daniel. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Franck Crawford, of Montbrook, and Miss Lucile Ansley, of Thomasville, Ga.

Miss Liddon received her guests on the front veranda. Here the six tables for the whist games were placed, making the evening particularly pleasant and delightful.

During the games Misses Caro Liddon and Grace Hatchell passed refreshing fruit punch and at the conclusion of the games lemon ice and cake were served.

Miss Ansley captured the ladies prize a pretty white fan, and Mr. Weathers secured the gentleman's prize, a leather purse.

This was one of the most enjoyable meetings of this club, which has added so much to the summer's pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Emerson returned Sunday from a two weeks' outing on Lake Weir. They cannot say too many nice things about the lake as a place for a rest and good time generally.

BAD BASE BALL.

The Cyclones and Whirlwinds Play Another Game.

Friday afternoon on the South Third street diamond the Cyclones and Whirlwinds played a remarkable game of ball, remarkable for the errors and unusual amount of runs made.

The Whirlwinds were first to the bat and started the game by sending three men around the bases before a single man was put out, and before the side was out three more runs were made, making six runs in all. The Cyclones came to bat and tried to duplicate the trick, but only succeeded in making two runs.

In the second inning the Whirlwinds made a goose egg, while the Cyclones were more fortunate and added three runs to their score. In this inning Clifford Anderson, the Cyclones handsome first baseman, who has not been doing his accustomed good stick work this season, surprised the spectators (as well as himself) by making a beautiful two-base hit.

The game rocked along, both sides making quite a few errors, and the Whirlwinds a score or two each inning, while the Cyclones were only able to add one more now and then.

In the seventh inning, thinking that the umpire was not treating him exactly right, Liddell got savage and smashed the ball out for three bases easing his mind mightily.

At the end of the eight inning the game was called, the score being 19 to 8 in favor of the Whirlwinds.

For the Whirlwinds Clark pitched a nice game, while Moore, who has been sick and was not feeling very well, was not up to his usually good standard.

$20 Per Acre Rental.

Mr. James R. Moorehead has just returned from a trip to South Florida, where he has been doing some surveying for Mr. W. B. Blount, of this city, who has 2,300 acres of fine land near the growing city of Sarasota which he is preparing to have drained.

During his trip Mr. Moorehead visited the fine body of prairie lands of Colonel Camp's, which Mr. Moorehead says readily rent for $20 per acre and from which the renters receive very handsome returns on their investments.

Besides renting these drained lands for the price above named Colonel Camp cultivated on his own account a large number of acres the past season and the crops were so prolific he gave up the task of trying to market the whole output.

For many years past Colonel Parrish, of the town of Parrish, has been renting similar lands for $25 per acre and the renters have never failed to receive handsome profits on their investments and some have retired with independent little fortunes.

South Florida is forging ahead and the South Florida Fair will give an ocular demonstration of just how she is prospering.

Merlin Spaulding, one of our carriers now, has been spending the week at Fellowship and says he surely had a good time—sweet milk, butter milk, fried chicken, chicken pie, jellies and jams, and everything else that fascinates and satisfies a strong, healthy boy's appetite. he says he had in abundance.

The following item from the Star is perhaps the most remarkable notice a preacher ever received: "Rev. L. B. Warren returned today from his visit to Richmond and Macon—Oh! what a cinch tara tara tara con."

Sam W. Teague, of Ocala, was in the city yesterday. He was en route home from Lake City, where he has been on business. He reports the Brick City rather lively just now, despite the dull season of the year.—Gainesville Sun.

KENTUCKY HOSPITALITY.

Showed Florida's Lady Commissioners. A Royal Reception Given them in Lexington.

Times-Union Special.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 12.—Kentucky hospitality was aglow to-day. The mayor of the city appointed a committee of distinguished Blue Grass ladies to entertain the party while in Lexington, and the entertainment was complete from start to finish. Mrs. Desha Breckenridge, Mrs. J. R. Mortan, Mrs. William Houlehan, Mrs. Edward Farrell, Miss May Bryan, Miss Kate Billingsley, Miss Alice Bradley, Miss Ione Schaefer.

Mr. T. W. Crews, traveling passenger agent for the Southern, joined the party here, and assisted in entertaining them. Accompanied by the local entertainment committee and their chaperons, the young-lady Commissioners were taken to the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association track, where for a few minutes they watched the trotters and pacers wheel around the course that is famous all over the country.

On the way to Elmdorf the young ladies wanted to see the "blue grass," for which this section of Kentucky is famous. They were told that the grass is not always blue, but could not understand why green grass should be called "blue" grass.

Mr. C. H. Berryman, manager of Elmdorf, and Mrs. Berryman received the party at their residence, and showed them every courtesy. After a stroll over the beautiful grounds a visit was paid to the handsome brick and stone stallion barn, where are housed horses which have won the greatest races on the turf, and which money could not buy—twelve horses, valued at three hundred thousand dollars, were taken from the stable and led before the party. The party was then given seats on the lawn of Mr. Berryman's residence and liquid refreshments were served.

On returning to the city at 1:30 luncheon was served at the Phoenix Hotel. After luncheon private carriages were provided for the visitors and they were driven to Ashland, the home of Henry Clay, and to several of the stock farms about the city.

Judge and Mrs. Lamar Entertained in London.

Judge and Mrs. William B. Lamar, who have been traveling abroad since their marriage in June, have recently been in London, where they were beautifully entertained. Among the functions they attended was a brilliant reception given by Ambassador and Mrs. Choate, meeting there Senator and Mrs. Alger, of Michigan, and Commissioner General H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee.

They were guests at a luncheon given by Secretary Henry White, of the American embassy, at his palatial home, No. 6 Whitehall Garden. After luncheon, coffee was served in the second balcony overlooking the Thames and the beautiful gardens sloping down to the river's edge.

Judge and Mrs. Lamao are now in Paris. They will not return home before the last of October.

Hospital Closed.

The hospital is closed and will remain so for a period of six weeks or two months, and, unless material aid is given it, it will be compelled to remain closed indefinitely.

No one, outside the physicians, knows what a great blessing this hospital is to suffering humanity and it will be indeed unfortunate if it is compelled to remain closed.

We hope that special efforts will be made to keep it open after the necessary vacation given to the nurses is over.

Let's determine that the hospital shall continue one of Ocala's institutions.
