HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Remember that Col. S. M. Sparkman will be in Ocala Saturday.

Mrs. D. G. Edwards, of the Ocala House, is visiting her father at her old home in Opelika, Alabama.

Mr. Carlos L. Sistrunk went down to Tampa yesterday for a short professional visit.

Miss Mary Anderson and Miss Sara Harris will go down to Crystal River this afternoon to spend the week-end as the guests of Mrs. C. E. Herrick.

Miss Lucy Camp leaves today for Norfolk, Suffolk, Roanoke and Franklin, Va., where she will spend a month with relatives and friends.

Mr. W. B. Bridges, representing the H. & W. B. Drew Company, of Jacksonville, spent yesterday in Ocala and was a caller at this office.

Robert Taylor, commercial agent of the Atlantic Coast Line railway, with headquarters in Ocala, was among the visitors here yesterday.—Times-Union.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. J. H. Livingston, sr. All members urgently requested to be present.

Mr. Theodore A. Carroll, of Jacksonville, representing Armour's fertilizers, was a pleasant visitor to Ocala yesterday, and among others sold Mr. George Close a fine bill of fertilizers.

Mr. J. H. Schroeder, of Atlanta, Ga., is in Ocala on his way to Tampa. Mr. Schroeder is a very pleasant young man and is traveling in the interest of J. H. Schroeder and Bro., Printing Press Machinists, of Atlanta.

We received a card yesterday from Rev. W. Rufus Rowland, pastor of the Christian church in this city, who has been in St. Louis for the past ten days. Mr. Rowland says he is doing the fair and finds it truly great. There are a number of Ocala people at the fair at present and they are having a delightful time.

The friends of Ocala's popular banker, Mr. Z. C. Chambliss, who was so sick Wednesday night that he could not be present at the K. of P. Agape, where he was to act as master of ceremonies, will be pleased to learn that he was able to be up yesterday. He had a sudden attack of neuralgia.

Rev. J. L. Stuart, of Richmond, Va., arrived in Ocala yesterday and is the guest of Dr. W. C. Lindsay at the Manse. Mr. Stuart preached at the Presbyterian church last night. He is a very eminent preacher and his sermon was greatly enjoyed by those present. Mr. Stuart is a representative of the foreign missions executive committee and was here in the interest of the same.

Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Judge Henry Bethune Phillips, of Jacksonville, was wedded to Miss Catherine Elizabeth Smith at the home of the bride's parents at Glen Springs, S. C. This was a very notable society event in South Carolina and was a double wedding, the bride's sister being married at the same time. Judge Phillips is well known in Florida and is receiving the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends.

Another Assassination at Micanopy.
Some days ago deputy sheriff Chamberlain was assassinated near Micanopy while out bird hunting with his wife.

We have information that yesterday near the identical spot Samuel Jenkins, a white man, was assassinated. We have not been able to ascertain particulars.

Mr. and Mrs. Camp Give Dance to Miss Liddon and Her Guest.

The young society people of Ocala are again under obligations to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Camp for another very pleasant evening.

At their lovely home last night on Camp Heights they gave a dancing party in compliment to Miss Johnnie Liddon and her guest, Miss Ollie Weeks, of Starke.

Mr. and Mrs. Camp, Miss Liddon, Miss Weeks and Miss Lucy Camp received the guests in the reception room and gave them a very cordial welcome.

Mr. W. S. Pike furnished the music for the dancing, which was kept up until midnight. The affair was informal and the evening was a particularly delightful one. Quite a number of the young married people were present and added much pleasure to the evening.

Those invited to Mr. and Mrs. Camp's last night included Misses Johnnie Liddon, Ollie Weeks, Lucy Camp, Esther Weathers, Hattie Dye, Ethel Robinson, Edith Piatt, Margaret Eagleton, Meta Jewett, Valeta Potter, Mattie Williams, Mary Anderson, Georgia Smith, Sara and Violet Harris, Mary Little, Sue Barco, Annie Davis, Gertrude Pereda, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoeker, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow and their guests, Mrs. Kerr, of Cuba and Miss Woodrow, of Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Camp, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marsh, Mrs. S. P. Eagleton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Drake, Mrs. J. C. B. Koonce, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gerig, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Welsh, of Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Miller, Messrs. Harvey Clark, O. B. Howse, T. H. Harris, Stephen Jewett, J. H. Workman, G. H. Ford, E. T. Helvenston, H. A. Daniel, W. D. and J. H. Taylor, E. J. Crook, W. H. Powers, W. A. Murphy, of Fairfield, Ardis Waterman, Sanford Jewett, J. H. Mathews, Howard Clark, C. H. Lloyd, of Holder, and Mr. Brewer.

Band of Mercy Rally.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last night a very pretty Band of Mercy rally was had at Grace Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Little, who is always fittingly in place, made a beautiful talk appropriate to the occasion which was much enjoyed and especially so by the little ones.

A number took the pledge to be "kind to every living creature," and quite a number of new names were added to the list of membership.

Each member had a little banner and the leader one of much larger size, made of blue silk and gold tassels, and as the little company filed into the church a pretty scene was presented.

The Band of Mercy is building up a nice sentiment in Ocala and is planting seeds that we hope will develop into glorious deeds in after years.

Will be in Ocala Today.

Hon. Stephen M. Sparkman, of Tampa, democratic nominee for congressman from the first congressional district, will arrive in Ocala this morning from Dummellon, where he addressed the people last night.

Mr. Sparkman will speak at the court house Saturday morning at 11 o'clock and during his stay in Ocala will be the guest of Hon. R. A. Burford.

Trees and Pavements.

If there is one thing more than another that Florida towns should have it is paved streets and sidewalks and shade trees. Without them the towns present an unenviable appearance. Everything of a natural kind in the way of streets in this state is sand, and deep sand at that. The sun is very warm here in summer and without the shade of an occasional tree along these streets man and beast both suffer. Why is it property owners do not plant trees in front of their property? By all means let us have more shade trees on the streets at Titusville.—Indian River Advocate.

Thrown From Horse and Injured.

J. S. Beery, living between Sharpe's Ferry and Heather Island, was thrown from a horse and badly injured Tuesday afternoon. He was brought to Ocala yesterday and is now lying in the hospital in an unconscious condition. He has slim hopes of recovery.

Mr. H. F. Dobbin, of Altoona, was a prominent visitor to Ocala Friday. Mr. Dobbin was formerly quite a prominent political worker in Lake county but afterwards moved to Jacksonville and then to New York City, where he lived for two years. He returned to Florida about two years ago and is now largely engaged in the mercantile business. He was here Friday to consult Dr. E. Van Hood, whom he thought had returned from his European tour.

The editor of this paper, in company with Maj. T. C. Hall and Dr. Andrew Sledd, visited Silver Springs yesterday. The waters are just as beautiful as they ever were. The author of the sentence, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever," must have written it after seeing Silver Springs.

Not the least attractive feature of the services at the Baptist church Sunday night was the solo, "Savior Hear Us," from Mascagni, sung by Mrs. Byrne. She has an exceptionally sweet voice and the congregation were greatly pleased with her singing. Mrs. Byrne, with her husband, who is a traveling man, has recently moved here and is stopping at Mrs. C. J. Phillips' on South Third street. She will be cordially welcomed to Ocala.

Even the storms treat us with consideration. Ocala is certainly in luck.
