During the absence of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Anderson at Lake Weir, Miss Marguerite Anderson has been the guest of Miss Mary Juhan at her home on Fort King avenue.

Mr. E. V. Blackman, writing from New York to the Miami Home Seeker says that every indication point to high prices for Florida potatoes, and advises the planting of the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Rogers, of East Springfield, are rejoicing over the arrival of a pretty girl baby, which arrived this morning to brighten and bless their home.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lyles have returned to their home at Archer, after a very pleasant visit in Ocala with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyles and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Freymouth.

Mr. Albert A. Graham, of Hood River, Oregon, formerly of Ocala, is now taking in the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland and says he will "hit the trail" from Genesis to Revelation.

Mrs. W. M. Nelson, of Jacksonville, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Morgan C. Looney for several weeks, returned home Monday. Miss Maude Nelson will remain with her sister for some time longer.

The Jewish holidays begin early this year. At 6 o'clock, Sept. 22, until 6 o'clock the following day, will be celebrated the feast of Yom Kippur, or the Jewish New Year, and ten days afterwards will be celebrated the feast of atonement, or Rosh Hoshana.

Moved from Los Angeles to Augusta. Mr. Beverly Pendleton and Master Allen Pendleton arrived on Monday from Los Angeles, Cal. They will be joined next week by Mrs. Pendleton and will make their future home in Augusta.—Augusta (Ga.) Cor. in Atlanta Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton formerly lived in Ocala and were married in this city, Mrs. Pendleton being Miss Daisy Nelson before her marriage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris left Tuesday night for Jacksonville and sailed Wednesday on the Comanche for New York city where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. Robert Sanders, of Dunnellon, was in Ocala Monday. He was on his way home from Macon, Ga., where he had been to take his daughter to Wesleyan college.

Mrs. S. S. Harris has returned to Citra after an absence of several months out west. She has again opened the Mansion to the public and is running the same in an up to date, first-class manner. It is one of the best boarding houses in the state and the traveling public particularly will be delighted to know that it is again open.

Mr. H. Benjamin left Wednesday for Atlanta on a very happy mission. On the evening of Wednesday, September the twenty-seventh, he will be married to Miss Ruby Steinheimer of that city. After an absence in the north and east of several weeks Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin will make their home in Ocala where they will receive a cordial welcome.

No greater privilege has been offered the people of Florida than the professional quarterly tours established by Dr. E. H. Armstrong, of Jacksonville, in connection with his practice. It enables the people of distant cities to obtain his services without the necessary expense of going to Jacksonville and permits of being constantly under his care and supervision, as those tours will be made every three months. The doctor will be here on his second quarterly tour October 6th and 7th and may be seen at the Ocala House. x

Mr. C. H. Dame, Special Organizer, of the Woodmen of the World, spent several days last week at Live Oak. That city already boasts of a big lodge, which has been greatly increased during Mr. Dame's visit. In speaking of the Woodmen, the Live Oak Democrat says that "it stands absolutely among the grandest and most solid fraternal orders of the country." And of Mr. Dame the Democrat says, "he comes to Live Oak more than highly recommended, and is known in his native town and county as the best of men."

Mrs. H. G. McDavid chaperoned a party of young folks on a straw ride to Silver Springs Friday night. The weather was just cool enough to be pleasant and the moonlight was delightful. This party was gotten up in honor of Miss Mamie Marshall, of St. Augustine, who is enjoying a visit in our city. All who participated in the straw ride had a splendid time.

Miss Afflick arrived in Ocala Monday and will be in charge of the millinery department which is to be added to the Helvenston-Pasteur company's store. Miss Afflick has just returned from a trip to New York, and the milliner, Miss Irene Smith, is at present in New York studying the styles and will arrive in a few weeks with all the latest styles in millinery.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Miller and Mrs. W. S. Bullock and her two sons returned home Monday from a visit to the delightful and popular resort Clay Springs. Mr. Miller who was quite sick before their departure is very greatly improved, which will be good news to his many friends. Judge Bullock will shortly begin the erection of a pretty little hotel at this healthful spring.

Five Ocala people sailed from Jacksonville Sunday on the Arapahoe, bound for New York, viz: Mr. T. B. Snyder, who goes to the metropolis to purchase the fall and winter stock of goods for the haberdashery; Miss Nellie Anderson, who will be in New York several weeks buying goods for G. A. Nash; Mr. Herbert W. Jones and Master Robert Clarkson, who go to Massachusetts to visit relatives, and Mr. Max Bloom, who goes to New York, where in a few days he will wed Miss Handelman.

One of the most delightful social events of the season occurred on Monday evening. Mrs. J. M. Jackson, Jr., of Miami, Fla., gave a dinner party at the Wheeler, at which the following ladies were guests: Mrs. Whitaker of Tampa, Mrs. C. F. Prentice and Mrs. Hearin of Quincy, Mrs. E. K. Shaw of Jacksonville, and Mrs. P. P. Wood of High Springs. Mrs. Jackson is a charming hostess, and always entertains in a most delightful manner. This dinner party was particularly pleasant, owing to the fact that the guests were at one time students of Wesleyan Female college, and this was their first reunion since leaving that famous old institution.—Hendersonville (N. C.) Cor. in Times-Union.

Mr. A. L. Glass, of the Atlantic Coast Line, was in Ocala Tuesday.
