

THE OCALA BANNER.

THE NEWSPAPER—"WHAT IS IT BUT A MAP OF BUSY LIFE; ITS FLUCTUATIONS AND VAST CONCERNS."—COWPER.

VOL. 40, NO. 38.

OCALA, FLORIDA, FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1906.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

KODAK

SARA ELIZABETH HARRIS,
Local Editor.

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN.

The Star has dropped its colored column.

Mr. Nathan Mayo, of Belleview, spent Friday in Ocala.

Miss Annie Fienburg, of Dunnellon, spent Friday with friends in Ocala.

Mr. J. W. Kimbrough, of Webster, spent a few days in Ocala during the week.

Col. Burham, of Waco, Texas, who spends his winters on Lake Weir, was in Ocala Friday.

Robert Murrell came down from Jacksonville Sunday to spend a few days.

Mr. Dan Miller, Jr., who has been quite ill for several weeks, is able to be out again.

Mr. Wm. D. Thomas went out to Pine Monday afternoon to visit his parents for a short while.

Dr. R. D. Sistrunk has returned to Dade City after spending a few days at Ocala and Fellowship.

Mr. Fred Gaskill came up from Candler Monday and spent the day with some of his friends in Ocala.

Mr. E. T. Livingston returned home Monday afternoon from a ten day's trip to New York City.

Miss Eula Durrance went down to Tampa Sunday afternoon to visit her parents for a short while.

Mrs. Mamie E. Fox and her sister, Mrs. Frank W. Ditto, went down to Fruitland Park Monday afternoon.

Miss Allie Epperson, of Williston, spent last week in Ocala, the guest of her friend, Mrs. Arthur Masters.

Miss Ernestine Brooks went home to Marel Friday afternoon to spend the week end with her parents.

Mrs. Fanny Stone went down to Crystal River Friday afternoon to spend a few days with relatives.

Mr. R. D. Sistrunk, of Dade City, was in the city the guest of his cousins, Messrs. S. T. and Carlos Sistrunk.

Dr. G. Stalberg, of Dunnellon, spent Friday in Ocala with his brother, Mr. Harry Stalberg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Driggers, of Ocala, were doing some shopping and other business in Ocala on Friday.

Mrs. D. W. Tompkins and little daughter arrived in Ocala to join Mr. Tompkins and make this their home.

Mrs. Thomas Mann, of Webster, formerly Miss Bonita Barco, returned to her home at Webster Sunday afternoon after a brief visit in Ocala with her aunt, Mrs. W. K. Zewadski.

Mr. J. D. Williams, of Coton Plant, several days ago shipped a car load of beef cattle to a Tampa dealer and received therefrom a handsome profit on his investment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Shuford, of Asheville, N. C., are the guests of the former's brother, Mr. Joseph Suford, and his wife.

Miss Sara Agnew, who came up from Lake Weir a few days ago and was the guest of Mrs. M. C. Looney, has gone to Jacksonville, where she expects to spend a few weeks.

Mr. Willie Frierson, who now lives at Chattanooga, Tenn., has been spending the past week here at his old home with his grandmother, Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. William P. Haisley came up Friday morning from Belleview, and spent the day in Ocala. She reports that Mr. Haisley is not improving as rapidly as they had hoped for, which will be bad news to their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. D. Harrison, of Atlanta, who have been visiting their son, Rev. George Hendree Harrison, rector of Grace Episcopal church in this city, left Friday afternoon for their home in Atlanta.

Sheriff Henry Gordon and U. S. Marshal T. Bishop, than whom there are no more popular men in the county, were in our city last week and bird hunting in the vicinity.—Dunnellon Advocate.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Gates and their children spent a most delightful day Sunday at Lake Weir. They went down in their automobile and enjoyed their trip hugely.

Schemes for electric railroads are springing up all over Florida and we would like to see realized our scheme for a trolley line from Port Inglis, through Dunnellon to Ocala. Such a road could place merchandise in Ocala cheaper than it now comes from Jacksonville.—Dunnellon Advocate.

Miss Myrtle Lychman, of Chattanooga, Tenn., who has been spending the past two months in Ocala with her aunt, Mrs. Abe Brown, left Friday for St. Augustine and Atlanta, where she will spend a couple of weeks before returning to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rheinauer, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Rheinauer and Miss Gertie Rheinauer returned home Friday from a few days' fishing trip to Homosassa. They had excellent success with the finny tribe and enjoyed their outing immensely.

Mrs. C. M. Harrington, of Augusta, Ga., who has spent the past ten days in Ocala with her friends, Mrs. W. S. Durst, left Monday afternoon for a visit to Bartow and other places in south Florida before returning home.

Miss Louise Nixon, of Gainesville, the attractive daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. J. Nixon, of this city, arrived in Ocala Monday afternoon on a visit to her aunts, Mrs. George L. Taylor and Mrs. W. C. Bull.

Mrs. E. H. Mote will again sing at the Baptist church this morning. Mrs. Mote is spending a few weeks in the city at the Royal Palm, and delighted all two weeks ago with her beautiful voice.—Miami Metropolis Sunday.

Mr. J. D. Robertson has recently planted a row of palmeto trees around his property on Ocklawaha avenue, both inside the yard and out and when they begin growing will be a wonderful improvement to this already beautiful avenue.

Mrs. Dean, of Plant City, who has been spending several weeks in Ocala with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Crosby, was called home Friday. Mrs. Crosby had had a very delightful all day picnic at Silver Springs for Mrs. Dean Saturday but owing to her departure Mrs. Crosby has recalled her invitations.

A Scientific Wonder. The cures that stands to its credit makes Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Mulford lecturer for the patrons of husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa., of a distressing case of piles. It heals the worst burns, sores, boils, ulcers, cuts, wounds, chilblains and scalds. Only 25c. at T. Dings & C., druggists.

Mrs. J. C. Nelson and her son, Mr. Fred Eichenlaub, former residents of this city, who have been spending the past three weeks very pleasantly in Ocala with their friend, Mrs. Charlie E. Taylor, left Monday afternoon on the Seaboard Air Line for their home at Belleview, Ohio.

A California subscriber in renewing his subscription to the Ocala Banner says: "May the Banner continue to wave above all her contemporaries in old Marion and all Florida."

Mr. A. Y. Strunk and family moved Monday into Mrs. Sallie Reddick's house on Main street. Mrs. Reddick is now making her home in the country. Mr. Strunk will also in a few days begin the erection of a house on the lot just back of Mrs. Reddick's place.

Mrs. Wallace Kelsey and little girl, who have been visiting relatives in Ocala and at Inverness for several weeks, went down to Stanton Monday afternoon for a week. Mrs. Kelsey will visit at Tampa before returning to her home in Jacksonville.

They are telling of a Tallahassee girl who received a proposal of marriage by telegraph. She went to the office and asked the clerk how many words she could send for a quarter. He said ten, and her answer was: "Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, yes, YES!"—Tallahassee Capital.

Mrs. D. W. Tompkins and little daughter went up to Micanopy Monday to stay at their old home during the absence of Mr. Tompkins, who left Monday for Tennessee and Kentucky to purchase horses for his stable in this city.

Miss Minnie G. Burroughs, of Jacksonville, left Monday afternoon for her home. Miss Burroughs has spent the past two weeks in Ocala with Miss Sara Harris and was a much admired visitor. She was the guest of honor of quite a number of pretty affairs and made many friends during her short visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wiltse and their daughter, Miss Grace Wiltse, of Lealand, Ill., after a week's visit in Ocala with their cousins, Mrs. Thomas Sexton, left Monday afternoon for Fellowship, where they will spend a week with Mr. Hat Barnett and family. Mr. and Mrs. Wiltse and Miss Wiltse will then visit the east coast and Cuba before returning to the north.

Rev. Charles Epperson Powell, of Lexington, Kentucky, who is visiting relatives in this city, preached at the Christian church Sunday night. Mr. Powell at one time was the pastor of the church here and was exceedingly popular with his members. Sunday night he preached a fine sermon and his friends were greatly pleased at the opportunity of hearing him again.

Mr. N. White, brother of Mr. Thos. W. White, of Ohio, the sewing machine man of world-wide fame, died at Beloit, Wis., the other day. Mr. White was a man of many peculiarities. One of them was that he would never trim his whiskers. His whiskers were probably longer than those of any other man in the world, and they would drag a foot on the ground when he allowed them to hang down.—From the January Modern Woman.

W. D. Carn, of this city, has gone to Louisville, Ky., to attend the meeting of the National Educational Association in that city. The state superintendent and a large number of the county superintendents and other educators of the state left over the Southern Railway Sunday night from Jacksonville in a special Pullman car.

The following party left Friday for Lake Weir: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gray, with their guests, the Misses McClellan and Turnley; C. E. Ball, W. A. Gallaher and M. W. Carruth. Whiel gone the party will be the guests of Mrs. Gray's brother, Mr. Carney, and will spend several days enjoying the hunting and fishing in that vicinity.—Tampa Times.

Miss Dalton, of Philadelphia, a very efficient trained nurse, who has been in Ocala for several weeks nursing Mr. Hibbert Weathers, returned to Candler Friday afternoon, where she will spend several weeks with her sister before returning north. The friends of Mr. Weathers will be so glad to know that he is very greatly improved and able to sit up.

Mr. Alfred Ayer, Marion's affable and excellent tax assessor, was in Ocala Tuesday and remarked that he observes a vast difference in the home life of the people now as compared to that of thirty years ago. They now live in better houses, they are better furnished, the tables are better supplied and the cooking is immensely better. Mr. Ayer attributes this improvement in the homes of our people largely as the fruit of our public schools.

MONEY TO LOAN

To Every Customer, Based on Business and Responsibility.

MUNROE & CHAMBLISS,
BANKERS.

Ocala, Fla., Jan. 27, 1906.

Mr. R. B. Campbell is at Valdosta, Ga., for a few days' business visit.

Mr. J. E. McIlmurry, of Jacksonville, is in the city for a few days.

Judge Hopkins, of Belleview, was a prominent visitor to the city Tuesday.

Miss Virginia Mayo has returned home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Jesse Neely at Lake Weir.

Miss Pansy Souter, after a short visit in Ocala, returned to her studies in Gainesville Tuesday afternoon.

If it is a bilious attack take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and a quick cure is certain. For sale by all druggists.

Mr. E. S. Upham is up from Lake Weir to attend the Sunday school worker's convention at the Methodist church.

Mr. Oscar J. Keep, representing the Dodson Printers Supply Company of Atlanta, has been in the city for several days this week.

Mr. Frank J. Ansley, of Thomasville, Georgia, was in Ocala Tuesday. Mr. Ansley is in the mill business with headquarters at Jacksonville.

Mrs. W. R. Glendining, (formerly Miss Nina Burnett) of Springfield, Mass., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burnett. She is accompanied by her little daughter.

Dr. H. C. Howard and Miss Mary Howard, of Champagne, Ill., returned from their trip to the east coast and Cuba and are again the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Howard.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Hamill, of Nashville, Tennessee, who are conducting the Sunday school workers conference in this city this week, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson during their stay here.

Mrs. Edd Carmichael and her guest, Mrs. Susan Cates and her little son, of Georgia, have gone to Jacksonville to visit friends. They went on the "Hiawatha" by way of Silver Springs and the Ocklawaha river to Palatka, and from there by rail.

A Lively Tussle. With that old enemy of the race, constipation, oft ends in appendicitis. To avoid all serious trouble with stomach, liver and bowels, take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They perfectly regulate these organs, without pain or discomfort. 25c. at T. Dings & Co., druggists.

Miss Nan Williams to Wed Dr. Lobenstein, of New York.

Mr. Ralph Waldo Lobenstein, of New York City and Miss Anne Munroe Williams, the second daughter of Mr. David S. Williams, of this city, will be united in marriage on March the eighth at Flushing, New York, and will probably include a visit to Ocala on their wedding trip.

Dr. Lobenstein is a graduate of Yale and also of the college of Physicians & Surgeons, of New York, and is a practicing physician of much prominence in New York, his native city.

Miss Williams, who is a very handsome and charming girl was a graduate of one of the New York hospitals as a trained nurse and for several years has been practicing her profession in that state and her approaching marriage to Dr. Lobenstein is the result of a very pretty romance.

The Best Cough Syrup. S. L. Appex, ex Probate Judge, Ottawa, Kan., writes: "This is to say that I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup for years, and that I do not hesitate to recommend it as the best cough syrup I have ever used." 25c. 50c. and $1.00. All druggists.

Married Ladies Card Club.

The Married Ladies Card Club met this week on Tuesday instead of Wednesday afternoon on account of its being Ash Wednesday, the beginning of the Lenten season. Miss Minnie H. Gamsby was the charming hostess and the games of whist and the dainty menu served afterwards were greatly enjoyed.

RINGS

We Have Now in Stock the Most Complete Line of RINGS that Can Be Found Anywhere.

Call and See Them.

Fred G. B. Weihe,
The Jeweler.

Death of Mrs. Simmons.

The sad news was received in this city Monday of the death of Mrs. Simmons, mother of Mrs. William P. Haisley, of this city, which occurred at the home of another daughter at Lewes, Delaware, Sunday.

Mrs. Simmons lived in Ocala until a year or two ago and was our oldest citizen, she having celebrated her ninety-sixth birthday some months ago. She was a member of a very old and distinguished family, one of her brothers having been one of the prominent bishops of the Episcopal church, of New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Haisley, who have been spending the greater part of the winter at Belleview, left that place Monday for Lewes to be present at Mrs. Simmons's funeral Wednesday.

Mrs. Simmons lived a very active life and was a woman of many virtues and splendid characteristics and she will be greatly missed by her many relatives and friends.

Mr. Lester's Big Purchase.

As already mentioned in these columns Mr. P. R. Lester, of this city recently purchased an immense tract of land in Sumter county from Eugene E. West, of Jacksonville. The other purchasers of this property with Mr. Lester were Mr. E. W. Blount, of Tampa, formerly of this city, Mr. G. A. McLeod and Mr. George Weeks, of Tampa, and Mr. Leslie Wilder, of Lakeland.

The tract embraces 55,000 acres of turpentine and saw mill timber lands and the deal was made through the West-Riley-Rammie Company, of Jacksonville.

The price paid for this excellent tract of timber by Mr. Lester and his associates was $125,000, and it is said that the timber is well worth the price paid. Besides the timber there is nine miles of railroad which was included in the deal.

The deal has been on foot for some time, but was not closed until Saturday morning.

Wedded in a Lion's Den.

Behind the heavy iron bars that imprisoned two huge lions with more than 5,000 people witnessing this most unique of marriage services, Mr. Herbert Warner, of Westfield, Mass., and Miss Annie McMahon, of Patterson, N. J., were married Sunday afternoon at the Florida Ostrich Farm, in Jacksonville.

The wedding march was played by Newsom's First Regiment band and the ceremony was performed by Justice E. E. Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner were presented a purse of $100. They will go to Miami and Cuba on their wedding trip and will then return to Jacksonville and will probably make their home in that city.

FOR SALE.

Forty acres of desirable land, with in the city limits will be sold cheap. I will subdivide and resell for purchaser. Apply to W. C. Jeffords.