DEATH OF TWO Ocala RESIDENTS

Mrs. J. P. Galloway

The Death Angel has invaded the homes of five Ocala families within the past ten days, and deprived each one of a much loved member. The first visit was to the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Schreiber, when their aunt, Miss Emily Tatham, passed away. A few days later Mrs. C. O. Fox died at the home of her parents in Alabama, and Saturday morning we announced the death of Mrs. Hannah Rawls.

Again are we called upon to chronicle the death of two of our citizens.

Sunday night Mrs. Galloway, the wife of Mr. John P. Galloway, who is a candidate for sheriff in today's primary, died, after being ill only twelve hours. She was taken suddenly and violently ill just after breakfast. Physicians were immediately summoned and everything possible was done for her, but she passed away at half past eight o'clock, after having suffered intensely. The cause of her death was congestion of the brain.

Mrs. Galloway was married at Sumterville in 1886, having recently removed there from Lake City, S. C. Her maiden name was Marion Hanna, and at the time of her death she was forty-six years old.

Mrs. Galloway had lived in Ocala for a number of years, having come to this city from Lake county with her husband and children.

For several years she has not been in very good health, but for months prior to her death she had been in better health than usual, so her death came as a very great shock to everyone. She was a devoted wife and mother.

Besides her husband, she leaves four children, Mrs. Robert Flynn of this city, Mrs. Herbert Hester of Augusta, Ga., and Roy and Jack Galloway, the latter having been born in Ocala.

Mr. J. Culverhouse

The news that Mr. B. J. Culverhouse had died at eleven o'clock Monday morning was not unexpected, but was none the less regretted and lamented. For twenty-one days he had been very sick with typhoid fever, and on Saturday and all day Sunday he was very low, but not until Monday morning did his relatives and friends give up hope. He was a bright and buoyant young man, and made a valiant fight for life. He was only thirty-three years of age, and was born in Elmore, Alabama. Six years ago he was married in Savannah, Ga., to Miss Mattie Culverhouse of this city, moving back from there to his Alabama home.

About a year later he moved to Ocala, and has ever since resided here. At the time of his death he was the proprietor of the Seaboard Air Line restaurant, which he managed in a very creditable manner and made many friends by his obliging manners to all with whom he came in contact, and his death just when he was in the prime of life and when he had so much to make life worth while, is universally regretted.

He leaves, besides his young widow, three small children, two sweet little girls and a bright boy, to whom the sympathy of everyone goes out.

Mrs. Culverhouse has been ill for a week with fever, brought on by nursing her husband, and his death has so unnerved her that she was moved Monday afternoon to the home of her grandmother, Mrs. G. A. Carmichael.

FOR TWO POPULAR COUPLES

Wednesday evening, in the cozy parlors of the Snyder Memorial church, the Baracca and Philathea classes gave a reception in honor of two newly married couples—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pace and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gardner.

Receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Pace, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Dr. and Mrs. P. Ross Parrish, Mrs. S. W. Steele and Mr. E. Stover.

Miss Katie Williams and Mr. Edgar Stover, assisted by several young men, served punch, while the cake was daintily served by Miss Edna Nooney and Miss Mable Mathews, with the assistance of some other young ladies.

Dr. P. Ross Parrish made a very beautiful address of welcome to the brides, and then presented each happy couple with a handsome picture, the gift of the Baraccas. Toasts were made by Mr. Fred B. Noble and Mr. J. H. Kooker.—Jacksonville, Me-tropolis.

Mrs. Pace was formerly Miss Frankie Ross of this county.

Miss Lydia McDougald is the guest of her relatives, Mr. R. S. Hall, and family.

DEATH OF MRS. RAWLS

We are being constantly made aware that all who live must die. Mrs. Hannah Norman Rawls answered to this summons early Friday morning. All that was spiritual and immortal of her was conveyed by the invisible messenger to her eternal home.

Mrs. Rawls was the mother of Mrs. J. R. Hewett, at whose home she died, and Mr. Samuel A. Rawls, formerly of this city, but now residing in Jacksonville. She was nearing the biblical limitation of the span of life, and some months previous to her death was confined to her bed by several strokes of paralysis and her death comes as a relief to her sufferings, especially as she had a sweet and abiding faith in the resurrection after death.

The funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Bridges and were largely attended. The funeral offerings were numerous and bore silent testimony of the esteem in which she was held in this community.

Rev. R. H. Barnett of the Methodist church and Rev. W. H. Dodge of the Presbyterian church conducted the funeral services. Mr. Dodge had known the deceased for more than thirty years and gave a most sweet and touching tribute to her many endearing virtues. He told of her devotion as a mother, her loyalty as a wife and her piety as a Methodist, and above all the lovely manner in which she trod in the footsteps of the Master. Mr. Dodge's oration was full of pathos and tenderness.

Mr. Barnett offered also some appropriate observations and told of the happiness of her life and the triumph of the death of those who held fast to the hope of the beauty of the life to come.

Mrs. Rawls was, indeed, a most worthy and estimable woman and her death will be universally mourned by all who had the pleasure of her friendship. Her life will be as a milestone pointing to the path which leads to eternal righteousness.

The pall bearers were Judge Richard McConathy, Mr. C. L. Bittinger, Mr. Thomas Sexton, Dr. J. C. Boozer, Dr. William Anderson and Mr. Frank Harris.

The body was taken on the early morning train to Fernandina for interment.

MRS. H. N. RAWLS

The funeral of Mrs. H. N. Rawls, who died in Ocala Friday, took place in Fernandina Saturday, and was largely attended, quite a number of the friends of the family going over from Jacksonville to attend.

On arrival of the train from Jacksonville at 11:30 a. m. the arrangements for the funeral were taken in charge by Mrs. Estelle Rogers, funeral directress. The services were conducted by Rev. E. W. Way, pastor of the Fernandina Presbyterian church. The pall bearers were Judge H. J. Baker, T. B. Clark, G. L. Balzell, F. W. Hoyt, J. W. Simmons and Mr. Heise.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful, and testified to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

The funeral was attended by her son, Mr. S. A. Rawls of this city, her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Hewett, of Ocala, her brother, G. G. N. McDonell of the Georgia Methodist Conference, and Capt. A. O. McDonell of Fernandina, and by her children and other relatives, as well as by a large number of friends of the family.—Times-Union.

OUR COUNTY JAIL

To the Editor, Ocala Banner:

While our county commissioners are making marked improvements on many lines—the new court house and miles of new hard roads—they have also made some needed improvements on the county jail and grounds.

After painting the house, repairing the fence, filling in the yard with hard material and building a hard street in front of the county lot, we can see by the electric lights that all darkest times are now over. This is last but not least. The end is not yet.

Our county commissioners are progressive, up-to-date business men. Their steps are upward and onward, and in the near future the Marion county prison will be heated by steam, fitted up complete in all respects, and with a hard street to the new court house. JAILER.

T. H. Harris of Ocala, Fla., is in the city, having been waterbound to points north. Mr. Harris is a son of the editor of the Ocala, Fla., Banner, the oldest paper in the state. This is his first trip to the new state.—Ardmore (Okla.) Democrat.

OCALA IN THE LEAD

Ocala does not show up so well in the census, but in all other directions she shows up all right. In the amount of trade; in the number and magnificence of her residences; in the number of votes polled on election day; in the beauty and style of her public buildings; in the size and number of her hotels; in her daily and weekly newspapers; in her public schools; in her churches, and all along commercial, industrial, educational, religious and potential lines she shows up to most excellent advantage.

And now comes Postmaster Crom and gives us Ocala's standing in the receipts of the postoffice for the quarter ending October 31, 1908, as compared with other interior towns.

The receipts are as follows:
Ocala... $19,418.86
Gainesville... 17,797.90
Tallahassee... 18,641.81
Live Oak... 10,020.62

ADMITTED TO THE BAR

Mr. Emanuel H. Martin, son of Rev. Harmon C. Martin, a bright young man who has been reading law for some time in the office of Mr. E. W. Davis, has been admitted to the bar, having stood a most creditable examination before the supreme court of the state of Florida. These examinations are now all written. There are a large number of questions in all the different branches of the law, and to be admitted now the applicant must be a scholar.

Mr. Martin has formed a co-partnership with Mr. Davis, and this paper predicts for the new firm a splendid success.

WOODMEN MEMORIAL SERVICES

The Woodmen of the World, which is one of the most popular and rapidly growing orders in this city, in accordance with the custom of their fraternity, held memorial services Sunday afternoon in their lodge rooms at Yonge's hall.

After the pretty ritual of this order was concluded a committee of Woodmen proceeded to Greenwood cemetery and decorated the graves of the dead brothers with beautiful flowers that had been sent in especially for this occasion.

The bid of Messrs. McIver & McKay was accepted. The building will be a brick one and will cost in the neighborhood of $8000. The school will be occupied by the primary department, including the first, second and third grades, which are taught by Misses Nellie Stevens, Fannie Clark and Margaret Taylor.

BLIND TOM DEAD

"Blind Tom," the famous negro musician, died Sunday in Hoboken, N. J., where he has been living for years in retirement and subsisting on charity. "Blind Tom" performed in Ocala to a large audience some years ago, and his playing was truly marvelous.

Miss Nellie Hooper of Jacksonville and her niece, Miss Lucy Moorhead, of this city, left Monday for New York City, where they will spend the summer with Miss Hooper's sister, Miss Louise Hooper.

A BEAUTIFUL AUTOMOBILE

Mr. Edward Holder's fine Franklin automobile arrived Monday, and quite a number of friends went around to the garage to inspect it and all pronounced it a beauty. It is a five thousand dollar machine. As soon as Mrs. Holder saw it she was so much pleased with it she told Mr. Holder it was hers and he could not have it, and he immediately wired for a duplicate of it, so Ocala will have two of these magnificent machines instead of one. The machine was seen on our streets Monday afternoon and attracted a great deal of attention.

BASEBALL EXCITEMENT

Asher Frank is getting busy in the baseball field. He proposes to organize a team that will play any other team in Ocala for $25 a side. Not a man on the new team will be taken from the team that played last Thursday. Remember the new team will play the line-up of last Thursday for $25. Now let the baseball fans get busy and we will see some fine sport.
