

BELLEVIEW WHISPERETS

Special Cor. Ocala Banner:

Mr. W. B. Hicks, our new school principal, arrived in town Thursday, the 6th, from Hampton, and assumed charge of the school Monday morning, August 10. His assistant, Miss Snyder, has not yet arrived, but Miss Ella Lyles will take her place until such time as Miss Snyder gets here.

Thirty-five pupils appeared for enrollment, which, considering the number that were absent on account of the Tampa excursion, makes a good showing.

Mrs. Nott, accompanied by her two children and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Pelot, left here last week for an extended visit to friends at Clearwater, Fla.

Mr. Freeman has finished the hard road running from Lake Lillian to the county road, and a good job it is.

Mr. J. A. Freeman and family paid a visit to Shady Grove last Sunday, and on account of the rain stayed over night, and came back Monday morning.

Judge Hopkins finds great rest and recreation in his lake cottage, spending a great part of his time there. This place surely ought to prove a popular resort with our people, and the judge's efforts to provide a place of refuge these hot days should be appreciated.

We are glad to see Miss Pauline Cauthen back from her visit to Georgia and Alabama—still free.

A number of our people went on the Tampa excursion last Monday, including Mr. and Mrs. Millson and son, Will, Mr. and Mrs. Gross, Dave Stanley's family, Mr. Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith, the whole Tremere family, Isaac Nix and Miss Ada Nix, and a bunch of others. Altogether over one hundred tickets were sold by our energetic agent, Mrs. McPhaul.

Mr. George Proctor has bought Prof. Green's house in the west end of town, and will move into it in the near future.

Judge Hopkins meted out justice to one of the still hands Tuesday morning by giving him a six months' sentence for carrying a pistol and creating a small reign of terror Monday evening at the still.

ELECTRA

Special Cor. Ocala Banner:

Mr. L. H. Pillans of Martel was in Electra last week on a visit to his parents. We were much pleased to see our old chum, in our burg once again. He is a wide-awake business man, and has also been successful in wooing one of Martel's most charming daughters, and will this evening (the 12th) lead her to Hymen's altar to make her his own fair bride. We wish them a long and happy life.

Mr. C. P. Pillans, wife and little son were also in our burg Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ella Armstrong of Madison is visiting her cousins, Misses America and Dixie Pillans.

Miss Agnes Holly and aunt, Mrs. Annie Holly, left last week to visit friends and relatives in Palatka and Jacksonville.

The F. E. & C. union is still growing. Last meeting two new members were initiated, one of them our county commissioner for this district, Mr. Norman A. Fort. Delegates were also elected to attend the county meeting at Griner Farm on the 15th inst.

The farmers of this section are smiling over the prospect of good crops.

We are glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Smith back home again. They had a most delightful visit to their old home in South Carolina, where peaches, apples and other fruits were in great abundance. JOHN PETER.

KENDRICK

Special Cor. Ocala Banner:

Some little excitement prevailed in our town Wednesday morning when Oliver Johnson, colored (better known as Tartar) was killed by No. 300, local freight, while doing some switching here. He was one of our oldest and most respected colored citizens.

Mr. B. C. Webb went down to Lake Weir to join his wife. They returned Tuesday.

Mrs. J. J. Guthrey are visiting relatives at Rochelle this week.

Miss Elma Grace visited her uncle, C. J. Grace, at Evinston, last Sunday.

Miss Lillie Syms is spending a few weeks with relatives in Jacksonville.

Mr. J. M. Vesner, who has been quite sick for some time, left for her old home in Seville, Ga., Tuesday.

THE LINOTYPE MACHINE

The Linotype and I are friends, Our partnership is great; I tell her all the breezy news— She puts it into plate.

I touch her on the tender nerve, She answers every call, And as I tell her what I want She lets the letters fall.

She never disagrees with me, No matter what I think, She reads my thoughts from fingertips, And fixes them for ink.

She judges I know how to spell, And spells the words as I do; She never criticizes me— The best of friends to tie to.

I keep her in the best of trim; I polish, dust and oil her; She all my care appreciates, Attention does not spoil her.

She never treasures up a wrong; She melts all blunders down; She takes the bad and makes it good, A model for the town.

She helps me pay my board and keep, And serves me every day; She helped me earn this dollar, too, My debt of love to pay.

THE BIG FLEET AT ANCHOR

The fleet of United States battleships has made another record-breaking run, and today rides at anchor in the spacious harbor of Auckland, New Zealand, where officials and the general public alike have given themselves over to a reception the like of which has rarely been seen under the Southern Cross.

The distance from San Francisco is almost exactly six thousand miles, by way of Honolulu and the Fiji Islands, and the last leg of three thousand, eight hundred and fifty miles, from Honolulu to Auckland, was made without a stop for coal or repairs or anything else.

No such fleet ever sailed the South Pacific, and no such run was ever made by a fleet of battleships since time began.

Throughout the greater part of the course the big fleet has been beaten and buffeted by storms, and yet the run from the Golden Gate has been made in thirty-three days, including the stay at Honolulu, and the fleet arrived at its destination hours before it was expected, and yet within twenty minutes of the time which Rear Admiral Sperry had fixed three days before.

Whatever doubts may have been cast upon the sincerity of the Anglo-Saxon bond of union during the Olympic games must have been dissipated by the ovation which has been accorded our ships and sailors in this outlying dominion of the United Kingdom.

There are less than a million inhabitants on the islands which make up the dominion of New Zealand, and of these forty-seven thousand are Maori aborigines, and yet forty thousand citizens were on the shore to extend a welcome to the fleet when the first faint curl of smoke was seen on the horizon. The program for this morning consists of an official reception by the prime minister, on behalf of the government, on landing, and presentation of address from the harbor board. Presentation by the government to President Roosevelt and admiral on behalf of the people of New Zealand.

Procession to drill hall, where the visitors will be accorded a civic reception by the mayor on behalf of the citizens of Auckland. Ambulance association to provide men and nurses during the procession in case of accident. Address on behalf of citizens of Auckland, accompanied by an artistic inlaid souvenir portfolio to be presented to the admiral.

Principal officials lunch with the mayor at "Cintra," Symonds street; the remainder of the officers of the landing party to lunch at the Northern and Auckland clubs.

Afternoon—A military review, to be arranged by the government.

Evening—Official government banquet at the drill hall to about seven hundred guests, tendered to the admiral and officers of the fleet.

Fireworks display for one hour at railway wharf, possibly in conjunction with searchlights and illuminations of the American fleet and Australian squadron.

For Tuesday Morning—Land one thousand men. Tram trips and lunch. Men return to the ships after the lunch.

The tram excursions will be to Onehungra, Mount Eden, etc. Afternoon—Reception by mayor and mayoress at the drill hall to guests, visitors and citizens of Auckland.

Entertainments for men to be arranged. Evening—Governor's state ball at government house.

Arrangements for smoke concerts for men at various halls.

New Zealand is one of the most interesting countries in the world. It has been the scene of a greater number of experiments in government than any other place on the face of the globe, some of which have turned out successfully and some of them otherwise. The government ownership of railroads is one of the most notable and successful features of the country. More than two thousand miles are in operation and the net profits in 1906 were more than four million dollars. Universal suffrage, which extends to women, has long been in operation, and a movement is now on foot to allow them to sit in the dominion parliament, but female suffrage on the whole is not looked upon as an unmixed blessing.

Compulsory arbitration of strikes is another question which has attracted the attention of the world, and it is not stating the case too broadly perhaps to say that it has been a failure.

Old age pensions also prevail, supported by endowment of crown lands. The newspapers of New Zealand extend a hearty welcome to the fleet and one of the most prominent says that the alliance between England and Japan is but a temporary expedient; that the United Kingdom and the United States will stand together to resist the tide of Oriental expansion, which is sure to come in the future.—Atlanta Journal, Aug. 11.
