

JEWISH HOLIDAY MONDAY

Monday—Yom Kippur—is the Jewish fast day and the stores of our Jewish merchants were closed in observance of this sacred day.

Yom Kippur is the day, according to rabbinical allegory, upon which God commands the recording angel to close the books of each one's sins and merits, which had been opened on Rosh Hoshanah, or new year. Rosh Hoshanah, which with the Jews is a day of remembrance, was celebrated last Saturday.

Ten days after Rosh Hoshanah comes Yom Kippur or fast day. This day among the Jews is a day of fasting and "affliction of the soul." Faithful Jews, the world over, do not partake of any food or drink from sunset to sunset, this occasion being more generally observed than the Jewish holiday.

Mr. A. W. Allan and Mr. S. Lehman, two prominent citizens of the Lake Weir district, were among the out of town visitors to Ocala Saturday. They came via Belleview over the new road and say that when it is rolled once more it will be in a most excellent condition, and with the exception of a few projecting rocks it is already in very good shape. These gentlemen are elated over the fact that the Seaboard railway has completed its spur to the south side of the lake, and traffic has already begun on it, a carload of oranges having been shipped over the spur a few days ago.

Mr. T. E. Jordan, formerly of this city, has been promoted to the position of assistant cashier of the Florida National Bank in Jacksonville, this promotion having been made at the meeting of the board of directors on Thursday. Mr. Jordan has been with the Florida National Bank since its organization, and prior to that time occupied important positions with other banks in the state, and has a thorough knowledge of the workings of a bank.

Mr. Henry Bates of Martel was among the visitors to Ocala Saturday. He said that his neighborhood is rejoiced over the fact that they are enjoying such excellent religious services. Besides the services of the stationed ministers, Rev. C. C. Carroll and Dr. W. H. Dodge of this city have regular monthly appointments there and they are always greeted with large congregations. Both of these gentlemen are greatly beloved in the Martel neighborhood.

Mr. Lafayette Miller of the Cotton Plant section, was another of our out-of-town visitors Saturday. He has a large tract of grazing lands which he has fenced, and says that 'possum and coon hunters are in the habit of building fires in the woods and leaving them, and as a result of this fires have broken out and he has lost a good deal of fencing. He had notices printed Saturday morning warning 'possum and coon hunters to keep off his premises.

Mr. F. E. Haskell, who left his beautiful home at South Lake Weir some months ago and went north for the benefit of his health, is now at a sanitarium in New York City, and his friends will be glad to know that he is rapidly improving, and will soon be able to return home. As soon as he leaves the sanitarium he will go to the Hotel Woodstock, where he and Mrs. Haskell will remain for several weeks.

Messrs. Harvey and Howard Clark, proprietors of the O. K. Grocery, began moving Tuesday into the corner store, next to the one they now occupy. The rear of their present store will be used as a warehouse. The Clark Brothers expect to have a very handsome store when they get everything properly arranged, which will be within a few days. They are bustling young business men, and are making every effort to make their store attractive to their patrons.

Mr. John S. Franz, of the Franz Safe and Lock Company of Jacksonville, was in Ocala Tuesday and registered at the Ocala House. Mr. Franz is an Ohio democrat, but like a great many democrats did not vote for Mr. Bryan in 1896 or in 1900, but is not hot for him this year. He predicts his election. Mr. Franz is just back from Tonawanda, N. Y., where he and Mrs. Franz had been to witness the marriage of their son, Mr. Gerard Franz, to Miss Annie Carroll.

Mr. C. J. McCranie of Linadale, game warden for the county, was in the city Saturday and said that when the game season proper opens in November, he predicts that game will be more abundant than for many previous years. He said that the evidences are that deer and quail will give the hunters all the sport that they can possibly desire.

Mr. W. L. Armour of Panasoffkee was in Ocala visitor Saturday, being here on business. Mr. Armour has charge of the Harris grove on Lake Panasoffkee.

Mr. John L. Carney, of the Carney Investment Company, was a visitor to our city Tuesday. He speaks in enthusiastic terms of the success of this company. He has already ordered 17,000 crates, and expects the output of the grove to exceed 20,000 boxes this season, which will be 100 per cent greater than last season. The trees are yet young and are just reaching maturity. If the relative ratio continues the crop next year will reach more than 40,000 boxes. The Carney Investment Company have made it a point to graft none but the finest varieties, and the fruit commands the top prices in the markets. Mr. Carney was literally reared in an orange grove, and there is no man in Florida who better understands the business, and it is no surprise to his friends that the Carney Investment Company, under his direction, has made such a phenomenal success.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow and daughter, Annie Blair, passed through Ocala Saturday afternoon en route to Woodmar, where they will spend the winter. Since the first of the week, when Mrs. Woodrow and daughter returned from Baltimore, they have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Terry at Fort George. Their Ocala friends will be delighted to know that Mrs. Woodrow and Annie Blair are very greatly improved. Mr. Woodrow returned to Ocala Monday.

Mrs. James Hicks Hill, formerly of this city, spent Tuesday in Ocala, the guest of Mrs. Thomas Sexton. Mrs. Hill and little son have been spending the summer at Clarksville, Tenn., and have recently returned to Lake Weir, where they will spend the winter. Mrs. Hill is a charming woman, and her visits to Ocala are always a pleasure to her friends here. She was accompanied to Ocala by her brother, Mr. John Carney.

The Uruguayan bark Catalina, which was run aground off the St. Johns bar eight or ten months ago and deserted by her captain and crew, was sold by the United States marshal in Jacksonville a few days ago, and was bought by Mr. John W. Dodge for $1700. Mr. Dodge expects to sell the vessel or charter it to some responsible persons. Mr. Dodge is a son of Dr. and Mrs. Dodge of this city.

Mr. T. E. Pritchard of Candler was in Ocala Saturday and says that the orange growers of his section will not begin gathering oranges until November. The fruit will then be thoroughly matured and well colored. Mr. Pritchard is the member of the democratic executive committee for his district, and will send his contributions to the Bryan and Kern fund next week. All contributions must be in by the fifteenth.

Messrs. Knight & Lang are enlarging their wagon, buggy and harness business, having rented the store adjoining their place of business, which has just been vacated by Mr. W. D. Tompkins. This firm is doing a very fine business and in their new quarters will have a better opportunity of displaying their splendid line of wagons, harness, buggies, traps, whips, carriages, robes, etc.

Mr. Fred Barnett of Jacksonville, who has been in this city for some time with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. H. Barnett, has gone to Green Springs for the benefit of his health. Mr. Barnett is a bright young lawyer, but a year ago had a nervous breakdown and was compelled to give up his practice. He hopes to be able to return to his work the first of the year.

Mrs. H. A. Ford and her son, Mr. Donald Ford, have returned home from Canada, where they have been spending the past two months with relatives. Mrs. Ford's daughter, Mrs. Ralph T. Birdsey, of Macon, Ga., also was with them during their stay in Canada, and en route home Mrs. Ford and Mr. Ford spent a week in Macon with Mr. and Mrs. Birdsey, who have a most attractive home in that city.

Mr. William Haddock, who is an inmate of the Soldiers' Home at Jacksonville, attended the meeting of the Confederate Veterans Tuesday. He speaks in excellent terms of the conduct of the home. That the inmates are entirely satisfied, have ample literature and their only cause for complaint is an occasional lonesomeness. Mr. Haddock will return to Jacksonville Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harder of Lacoia, New Hampshire, parents of Mrs. Geo. C. Pasteur of this city, and former Ocala residents, are here on a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Harder expect to spend the winter in Florida, but have not decided definitely on a location, but will in all probability remain in Ocala.

Judge Joseph Bell separated Mr. Louis Lang from five dollars of his wealth Saturday because he was not in his seat on the jury when the case was called, after being duly summoned.

Mrs. James Freeman, a white woman, who acted in the capacity of a nurse for Mrs. William Tucker, was in town yesterday and called at the home while in a state of inebriation and created a disturbance. Mr. Tucker told her that he would not stand for it and that she must cease her visits. She became indignant, went down town, purchased a buggy whip and proceeded to his place of business, threatening to whip him. She was intercepted by Mr. Tucker's sons and prevented from carrying her designs into effect. She then procured a shotgun and started in the direction of the market when she was arrested by the marshal, and was locked up, but was afterwards released upon the payment of ten dollars and promising to depart from the city. When arrested it was discovered that she had a bottle of whiskey concealed in her stocking.

James Verner, who was employed by the Sumner Lumber Company at Zuzer, was arrested Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Hutson for forgery at Clearwater. When he saw the officer coming for him he ran, and was shot in the arm. He was brought to Ocala for medical attention, and will later be carried to Clearwater for trial.

Several crops of noted politicians have been "laid by" the past week. Foraker was kicked out; then Haskell resigned; then Dupont, the powder king, was fired. And the campaign still goes merrily on.—Lake City Index.

Yes. And the president has been silenced and his big stick broken and laid up for repairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Precht are busy this week packing up their furniture preparatory to leaving the last of the week for Savannah, Ga., where they will hereafter reside. Mr. E. P. Thagard and family, who now reside in the Benjamin House, on Oklawaha avenue, will move into the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Precht as soon as they leave.

Mr. T. F. Harrison of Citra, who is now a Pullman conductor on the line from Jacksonville to St. Petersburg, passed through Ocala Tuesday on his first run. Mr. Harrison has been with the Pullman company for six years, but has been running out from Atlanta, and has just been transferred to Florida.

Capt. S. R. Pyles returned home Monday afternoon from Hague, where he spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Holstein. The pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holstein accompanied him home for a visit with her grandparents at their lovely home near Ocala.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley and daughter of Ocala, parents and sister of the Haley boys of our town, have taken a lease on the newly finished Coachman cottage on Fort Harrison avenue, north, and will arrive here very soon to make this their home.—Clearwater Press.

Mrs. A. F. Kellogg and her daughter, Mrs. Jean Kellogg Austin, who have been spending the summer in the north and east, have returned home for the winter. On their way back home they stopped in Atlanta, where they left Miss Jean Austin at the Washington Seminary.

Mr. E. S. Grace, an Ocala Banner subscriber from Citronelle, was a visitor to Ocala Tuesday. He is an enthusiastic Bryan man, and was among the first to send his dollar to the Banner's campaign fund. He gives a good account of the present condition and future outlook of Citrus county.

B. K. Thrower, Jr., is the proud owner of a handsome new automobile of the Buick make. The machine is of thirty horse-power, enameled in white, and will be used by Mr. Thrower in making a good many of his trips throughout the country.—Gainesville Sun.

Mr. D. H. Irvine of Orange Lake was greeting his Ocala friends Monday and remained Tuesday for the meeting of the Confederate veterans. It is his first visit here since last May. His friends will be glad to learn that his health is very much improved.

Mrs. Avington C. Faucher came up from Bradentown Monday and went on down to Lake Weir, where she and her mother have rented a cottage and will remain there all winter. Mr. Faucher has sold his drug business at Bradentown and will travel for a wholesale drug firm.

Mr. R. L. Turner, superintendent of public instruction for Citrus county, and who has recently entered the mercantile business with Mr. Harry Palmer, was a visitor to Ocala Tuesday.

Mr. C. Y. Miller of Leroy, one of Marion county's best known citizens, was transacting business here and greeting Ocala friends on Tuesday. He is recently back from a trip to the "old country."
