Mrs. Galyen and children left Wednesday evening for Belfield. Mr. Galyen went also on Thursday evening, as the school enjoyed a vacation on Friday, the day being Good Friday.

The Easter program given at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon by the Sunday school was well attended. The children did well and the singing by the choir was fine. Rev. P. A. Dean, our pastor, was not present on account of the roads.

HENDERSON TAKES OVER
SOULES HARDWARE STORE

R. E. Henderson, for thirteen years employed by the Walton-Davis Company, formally took charge of the hardware store located at 122 East Villard Street, this city, on Monday morning. The business was purchased recently from James Soules, who erected the structure which houses the hardware business in 1907, and conducted it until the sale to Mr. Henderson. Mr. Henderson is well and favorably known in Dickinson and vicinity and carries a complete stock of hardware with which to supply wants of the community. He has a full line of oils, threshers' supplies, shelf and heavy hardware.
