Owing to the manner in which Ed. Jack was turned down as a candidate for the nomination of sheriff, at the late republican convention, we understand that his profanity was only equaled by his absolute disgust with the political dishonesty of his party friends in Williston.

John F. Cowan for Judge.

It is a well-settled fact that John F. Cowan is a candidate for the position of district judge of this 21 judicial district, and it is also a well-settled fact that if he receives the republican nomination at the Rugby convention, a very large per cent of the democrat and independent votes in Williams county will undoubtedly be cast for him. Mr. Cowan makes a good official in any position you may place him, and if he is nominated for Judge the Graphic will heartily endorse him.

A play from way down East, the story told in "Uncle Josh Spruceby" the scenes of which are taken from farm life in the Vermont hills, is charming in its simplicity and homely humor. The characters are not overdrawn, but are true to life. Uncle Josh the honest old farmer; Aunt Jerusha, the "just over Dutchman" and the "green goods" man are some of the characters introduced. The startling realistic saw mill scene, the farm yard, hunking bee, and old fashioned country dance are scenes which are introduced. The production is handsomely staged, a full carload of scenery and mechanical effects being carried. Many new specialties are introduced and a superb orchestra of 16 soloists are one of the features. Watch for big parade at noon.

The Williston (N. D.) Graphic of Aug. 30th, proved interesting to W. B. Overson's old friends here, where he was born and reared and where everybody knows him from childhood up. The fact that some of his enemies out there are trying to make him out a democrat in his canvass for state's attorney, is so ludicrous and yet so disgusting, that to refute it is but to do justice to one who was born and bred a republican. Mr. Overson has always been in the ranks of the republican party, a worker for the cause, and he who is so ungrateful as to accuse him of being otherwise is unworthy to be classed in the rank and file of the party. We hope Mr. Overson will win out as states attorney as he is a bright young man, worthy the honor, and will prove himself a credit to the state and the republican party.—Cambridge (Wis.) News.

E. O. and O. C. Westcott were up from Nesson last Saturday.

David King who has been to St. Paul, Minneapolis and Chicago on business returned yesterday morning. In all of these cities he transacted business and saw a number of contractors relative to the line of work he intends to engage in. As some of the buildings are very large and there are quite a number to be moved, Dave will find use for the expensive moving apparatus he purchased on his trip.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Brownell last Friday evening.
