THE NEWS RESUME

DIGEST OF THE NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

From the Capital.
Maj. Weller, who marched across Samar, has been made a lieutenant colonel.

Certain naturalized Italians who wished to visit Italy were barred out on the ground of contagious eye trouble.

The battleship Massachusetts, in firing with subcaliber guns at a moving target, distance 200 yards, made ten hits out of ten shots with a turret gun and six hits out of seven shots with a broadside gun.

L. H. Gilmore, a colored soldier of Washington, has been commissioned by the president a second lieutenant in the Philippine scouts. The president recently promoted Senator Pritchard of North Carolina that Lieut. Gilmore should have the first vacancy in the Philippine scouts.

There are a large number of petitions pending for the establishment of rural free delivery in Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Dakotas, but it will be impossible for the department to act on all of them. It is probable that from 500 to 600 routes will be established in Minnesota during the coming fiscal year.

Members of the committee on banking and currency of the house, who are still in the city, have had several talks with President Roosevelt in regard to financial legislation in the next congress to ward off financial stringency in the future. Students of finance fear that the lack of elasticity in the currency will cause some serious times in the financial world during the next ten or twelve months.

The department of agriculture is giving special attention to the matter of collecting seeds from pine cones, especially for the jack pine variety, for planting in the semi-arid and other sections of the West. It is found by the experts of the department that the jack pine is hardy enough to make rapid growth in the section where water is scarce. A large quantity of seed is being collected, especially for Nebraska and Wyoming.

Accidental Happenings.
D. D. McArthur, brother of J. D. McArthur, a contractor, accidentally shot himself and died almost instantly at Winnipeg.

The overhead trolley wire in the Bronx, New York, broke, falling on a motorman, who was instantly killed by the current.

Fire at Pepperell, Mass., destroyed M. C. Griffin's shoe factory early this morning and extended to several nearby dwellings.

A cave-in in the five-foot vein of the Delaware & Hudson No. 3 colliery, left a hole fifteen feet in diameter in Willow street, Edwardsville, Pa.

The Omaha through express on the Wabash, was wrecked at Elm Point, Mo., and nine persons were injured. All will recover. Among the injured are Mrs. J. L. McGee, Council Bluffs, Iowa, and D. R. Truehoff, Des Moines.

Crimes and Criminals.
There are rewards of $19,000 for the murderer of Policeman Mendelsohn at Waterbury, Conn.

Two men are reported to have been killed and several wounded in a pay-day spree near Baggaley, Pa.

Miss Julia Toombs, a twenty-three-year-old girl of Providence, R. I., was shot and killed by William Stevens Morse, a crazy rejected lover.

Bud Higgins, a mulatto, on trial at Chicago for the murder of Mrs. Annie Butler, confessed on the witness stand that he committed the crime.

Dr. J. F. Turner was killed and C. E. Bishop critically injured by two masked robbers who attempted to hold up Lostenau's cafe at Pueblo, Col.

Many physicians and business men of Indianapolis believe they have been duped by two young men forming a so-called medical alliance of America.

A duel fatal to both took place between James King and John Gibbons, prominent young men of Brazil, near Lobdel, Miss. They quarreled about a girl.

Detectives are trying to solve the problem of who sent a bottle of poisoned champagne to John C. Fisher, the theatrical man of New York. It came from Chicago.

Fourteen armed and masked men entered the house of Mrs. Jacob Reichelderfer, an aged and wealthy widow near Criderville, Ohio, bound the inmates and secured several thousand dollars.

Notes From Abroad.
A Chinese loan of $10,000,000, guaranteed by Russia, is announced.

A papal proclamation of the canonization of Joan of Arc is expected.

The French chamber of deputies has begun a debate on the religious orders.

The Dominion parliament will take up the question of grain transportation from the Northwest.

Prof. Behring of Vienna claims a serum by which children may be vaccinated against consumption.

In the Prussian diet $25,000 for Prussia's educational exhibit at the St. Louis exposition was voted after some sharp opposition.

Apprehension concerning German designs upon the sovereignty of the Netherlands continues to be strongly felt at The Hague and Amsterdam.

Very Rev. George G. Bradley, D. D., LL. D., dean of the Order of the Bath and dean of Westminster Abbey from 1881 to 1902, is dead. He was born in 1821.

Dispatches from two Hebrews in Russia were printed in a New York Jewish paper to the effect that the czar's recent decree proclaiming religious freedom will not affect the Jews.

Reynolds' Newspaper of London publishes a story that the prince of Wales, who is the recipient of $100,000 yearly in addition to $30,000 from the duchy of Cornwall revenues, is unable to live on that amount.

A son of Director Koch of the Deutsche Bank of Berlin was recently so severely beaten by his tutor that the land, who was fifteen years of age, died from the effects of the castigation. The tutor has been arrested.

Sir William Van Horn, while visiting President Palma at Havana, offered to purchase the state penitentiary property, valued at $500,000, his purpose being the erection of a $1,000,000 hotel. The president promised to take the matter to congress.

A government commission of mining engineers has discovered sixty-five miles northeast of the Piura railway, in Peru, a mountain of iron sesquioxide which is 50 per cent pure. The surrounding country is full of the same metal.

Personal Mention.
Admiral Tyrtoff, Russian minister of marine, died of heart disease.

Thomas P. Sanborn, an organ manufacturer, died at Indianapolis. He was born at Sanbornton, N. H., in 1823.

Commandant Joubert, one of the members of the visiting Boer delegation, is at Mexico City visiting in search of health from the results of a wound received in the South African war.

Former Congressman John W. Candler of Brookline died of heart disease at Providence, R. I. Mr. Candler was interested largely in the Florida Southern and other railroads. He was born in 1828.

Maj. Weller, U. S. M. C., who was with the first relief force to enter Peking, and afterward marched with the United States forces across Samar, which resulted in a court-martial, has been promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Robert G. Hedrick, commissioner of Indian affairs under President Lincoln and brother-in-law of Caleb B. Smith, who was Lincoln's secretary of the interior, was buried at Indianapolis from an undertaker's establishment. He died in poverty. He was born in Baltimore in 1821.

Otherwise.
The Missouri legislature refused to move the capitol to St. Louis.

The shipbuilders of Chicago won their strike for nine hours and a 10 per cent raise.

A band of about 200 whitecaps has undertaken the moral regeneration of Northwestern Ohio.

James S. Harlan, attorney general of Porto Rico, resigned his office and sailed for home. He received a great ovation.

The strike is on in the Cripple Creek district in Colorado. President Meyer of the Western Federation of Miners notified the miners.

The Dickinson electric light plant is to be improved, despite the talk of a new franchise.

The man with seed potatoes for sale is becoming arrogant now in the place of the fellows that have been "extortionating" the people on coal.

Contest Notice.
Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Minot, N. D., February 9th, 1903.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Frank DuMars, contestant, against homestead entry No. 6167, made October 11th, 1900, for the sec. 4, section 55, township 153, range 99, by Joseph J. Connor, contestee, in which it is alleged that said entryman has wholly abandoned said tract of land for a period of more than six months last past, and has never improved or cultivated said land according to the homestead laws nor ever established a residence thereon; that said land is practically in the same condition now as when the same was surveyed except that he has caused to be erected on the place a small shack which he has never occupied as a home; that said abandonment still exists; that said entry was fraudulent and speculative; and that said alleged absence from said land was not due to his employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer, seaman or marine during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 9th, 1903, before W. T. Smither, a Notary Public, at Kenmare, N. D., and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 13th, 1903, before the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office in Minot, N. D. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed February 9th, 1903, set forth facts which show that after the due diligence, personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
