

LOCAL ROUND-UP.

Col. Lounsbury has been admitted to practice law.

H. B. Lampman was down from the ranch yesterday.

Paul Schlerbeck has been on the sick list the past week.

District court has been adjourned to convene in this city on Monday, April 11.

Attorney E. F. Cox has been laid up the past week with an attack of "grippe."

Miss Page has gone to Fargo to take a course in the hospital there for a trained nurse.

"Lion Office" is very much in evidence on the 8th page of the Graphic this week.

J. W. Maloney, publisher of the Wheelock Tribune was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

The regular meeting of the board of County Commissioners will take place next Monday.

Philander Pollock, the Springbrook townsman, was in the city Tuesday between trains.

Editor Butler of the Herald was confined to his house a few days this week with a bad cold.

O. Q. Adams, of the "Big Meadow" north of Ray, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

The Great Northern railway is again in a normal condition, and trains are now making their regular runs.

A private dance at the Opera House was had on Friday evening, in honor of Miss Myrtle Williams of Minot.

We regret to learn that our fellow-townsman, Thos. Burgess, has suffered the loss of many head of his cattle.

Married—In this city, by Rev. Jones, March 29, 1904, Mr. Thomas H. Barney and Miss Jessie M. McDonald, both of Bottineau, N. D.

E. R. Brownson has just received one of the Warncke combination book cases, for use in the abstract office of Brownson & Brown.

The W. K. K. met at Mrs. Benton's on Friday evening. There was initiation of new members and a jolly good time was had by all.

Lyman C. Burk sold his ranch on the bottom west of town last week to J. Greenard, manager of the Bankrupt Sale Store, for the consideration of $1,500.

L. J. VanSlyke, son of dairyman John VanSlyke, returned to his home at Stony Creek last Thursday, after a winter's visit with relatives and friends at North Yakima, Wash.

L. H. Hurd, John VanSlyke's dispenser of lactal fluid, has completed the construction of a house on his claim three miles east of town, and established his residence on the land two weeks ago.

Ole Bryn seems to have a monopoly of the coal trade just at present, at least that's the way it seems, for his teams are about the only ones hauling that class of fuel into the city from east of the Muddy.

Another blizzard prevailed in this section last Thursday and Friday. Verily, it seems as though the earth had been pushed off its regular course and had failed to catch Spring in its flight through space.

H. J. Case, of Glendive, has accepted the position of pharmacist in S. Brownell's drug store in this city. Mr. Case is a young man of pleasing address, and bears high testimonials as an expert in the drug business.

Amateurs are to put on a play, the "Cheerful Liar," in Williston and they want one of the editors for the star role.—Fargo Forum.

We understand the manager has written Brewer of the Forum, offering him the leading role in the play.

Thomas H. Barney has bought out Fred Paulson's Coffee Palace restaurant in this city, and will take charge of the place to-morrow. Mr. Paulson has made a good thing of the restaurant business in this city, and has made the "Coffee Palace" rank among the best in the west.

W. S. Casselman, formerly of Bismarck, was a visitor in the city Tuesday. Mr. Casselman is now representing J. H. Bell & Co., of Chicago, Importers of teas, coffees, etc., and is working up trade for that old reliable house. The Bruenger Mercantile Co. of this city will handle Bell & Co.'s goods.

A mountain lion recently killed by Geo. Volts, has been mounted by O. A. Ruple, Williston's taxidermist, and placed in one of Hedderich Bros. & Co.'s show windows. The animal is encased in an imitation iron cage, and so perfect is Mr. Ruple's work, that at a first glance the animal looks as though alive and imprisoned in a real iron-barred den.

F. B. Chapman, who has been spending the past two or three months visiting in Illinois, Michigan, etc., returned home on Tuesday morning, looking as fresh and hearty as an English Earl. Among other noted places of interest, "Chappy" visited the pleasure resorts of Florida and Cuba, and taken all in all, he says he never enjoyed himself so fully as he did on this trip.

The worst blizzard of the winter passed over the country on Wednesday night, Thursday and Friday of last week, with a wind velocity of nearly 50 miles per hour. The streets of Williston were badly filled with drifts, through which, in many places, roads and passageways had to be dug. This is a condition never before experienced in this section of the state, and we hope never occur again. The coulees are nearly all filled to the brim with hard packed snow while the level prairie is left with only a moderate covering, with occasional drifts of inconsiderable size, which, while not absolutely impassable, are very inconvenient for the passage of teams.

School Entertainment.
Can a school entertainment hold the interest and attention of the general public? Come to the Opera House tomorrow (Friday) evening and see for yourself! At 8:30 p. m., the curtain will rise, and for the following two hours a company of the brightest, most alert, and accomplished young people that Williston affords will vie with each other in striving to give you a pleasant evening. "Diamonds and Hearts," a drama full of comedy, pathos, and life of the most wholesome nature, that never fails to please, will be presented with interesting specialties by pupils of the different departments of the schools. Tickets on sale at the usual place. Come, one and all, and see what the school can do!

The weather for a few days past has been decidedly mild, bringing with it the first glimpses of spring. The snow is rapidly disappearing, and wheels will soon be resorted to.

F. C. Campbell of the Fort Shaw Indian School will give an entertainment at the Opera House, Wednesday, April 8. This will be of unusual interest as the entire program is by full blood Indians, and will show to what extent it is possible to educate "Uncle Sam's wards." They are the champion basket ball players for the entire northwest, and have a repertoire of specialties consisting of music, staturary and scenes from "Hiawatha." The papers from Helena and Great Falls speak of their entertainment in highest terms. Watch for hand bills.

STOP!
Listen to the Merry Tinkle of the Cow Bell on April 2nd.
At the hours of 1:30, 2:30, 4:30 and 7:00 p. m., at Bruenger Mercantile Co.'s Dep't Store, we will give every lady in Williston a coupon and in a box the duplicate will be placed, and at the above hours if the holder of the duplicate coupon taken from the box is in the store, the Lady gets the first prize, $1.00 in cash, second drawing at 2:30 p. m., Sugar $1.00; third drawing at 4:30 p. m., 1 Large Box Funk's Fine Chocolates; fourth drawing at 7 o'clock, 3-Pint Nickel Plated Tea Pot. If the holder of the first duplicate is not in the store when number is called the one holding the second number will receive the prize.
Don't forget the date and hours and be "Johnny on the spot."
Those who have not received coupons please call or send for same.
Bruenger Merc. Co.'s Dep't Store.

Rev. Phillip Cook of Minot, held Episcopal services at the Congregational church in this city Tuesday evening of last week. It is hoped that sometime during the coming summer St. Peter's Episcopal Mission of Williston will be able to erect some sort of a church edifice of its own, and thus get in shape to secure the services of a resident pastor.

For those elegant automatic sewing machines go to West & Woodman's. (21)

The dramatic talent of Williston gave the citizens of Minot the opportunity to test their ability last Tuesday evening at the opera house. The play was a four act melo-drama, entitled "Lady Darrell"—considering the fact the members of the club are amateurs and the length and character of the play itself, a great deal of credit is due to the participants. There was not a hitch or brake in the performance, and in two or three instances where cues were not picked up quickly, instead of becoming nervous and flustered the character simply repeated the one. Minot did not turn out as well as it might have done, to encourage a sister town, but now that Williston's reputation is established, they may find a fuller house to greet them should they decide to come again. M. G. Coleman, as the villain, deserves special mention, as his acting was natural, easy, and showed decided talent. Mrs. Coleman seemed genuine as the fond mother. The specialties by Mrs. Van Dyke, Mr. Neutzel and Mr. Jeffreys received applause that recalled them for encores. Miss Lillie Sorenson as leading lady, and in fact all the members of Williston's dramatic club, helped to make "Lady Darrell" a very creditable performance. Between acts, the H. S. Orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Wolfe, rendered some good music and an improvement is noted in their work each time they appear in public. After the curtain had fallen on the last act, and Mr. Bacon and a corps of assistants had cleared the floor, the Williston and Minot orchestras alternated in playing splendid music for the dancers. The visitors from Williston and many home residents enjoyed a merry social session until train time and the dramatic club returned home well pleased with their reception.—Minot Optic.
