New Depot for Fargo

The plans and specifications for the new Fargo depot arrived there a few days ago and are available for the local builders and contractors. The new depot is to be one of the best in the west when completed.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our many friends who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our beloved child, Beatrice Lillian.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kight.

New State Admitted

Last Saturday afternoon the U. S. senate passed a bill admitting a new state to be called Oklahoma and to be composed of the territory of Oklahoma and Indian Territory. The bill was the house joint state bill with all provisions relating to Arizona and New Mexico stricken out. The motion to strike out the provisions in regard to these two territories carried in the senate by a close vote of 37 to 35 after having been lost in the committee of the hold by the closer vote of 35 to 36.

The admission of the new state will add one more star to the "Star Spangled Banner," and new flags will have to be made to be used for the 4th of July.

Marmon Items.

The present cold snap has put a stop to preparations for farm work.

The weather man should have given us this batch in January. It has a tendency to make the newcomers roll up and shiver and wish they had stuck in the mud in the east before starting for Dakota.

Some of the farmers have been putting in their spare time digging wells. Time well spent.

Joe Langford who has been getting out poles near Williston for his ranch, has returned home to begin farm operations.

Miss Ida Solberg left last Tuesday for her former home in Wisconsin for a few weeks visit.

Frank and Arthur Lefever, of Oblong, Ill., arrived last Thursday for a few days visit with their sister, Mrs. M. E. Celly and to look at the country.

The entertainment Saturday evening was a success in every particular and in spite of the cold weather the house was packed to its utmost capacity. After the program cake and coffee was served and as the good ladies had made ample preparations everyone had their appetite for cake and coffee satisfied.

Mr. and Mrs. Dussell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kelly Sunday afternoon.
