Decoration Day.

The Decoration day exercises were successfully carried out as planned by the committee. At 10:30 Gates hall was well filled and the appreciative audience listened to an interesting program, every number of which was well rendered. Captain Knauf acted as chairman. After the exercises in the hall the line of march was formed—the band, the militia, veterans, fire department, fraternal orders, school children and citizens, and proceeded to the cemetery. The band played some appropriate selections there, the salute was fired and the graves of the dead were decorated with the floral offerings provided. Nine old soldiers lay at rest in the quiet city on the hill and Williston turned out splendidly to do them honor.
