Farm Loans

It is our policy always to consider the interests of our borrowers—not only at the time a loan is made, but as long as it remains with us.

We are in position to do this because we are right on the ground and know conditions as they are each year.

For that reason many farmers prefer to deal with us rather than some broker who merely acts as agent for an eastern corporation with whom you will be required to deal afterwards.

If you want a loan on your land come in and see us, or if you cannot call, write and let us know where your land is and how much money you want to borrow.
