A Thrilling Tale of Adventure in the Canadian Northwest

JACK CHANTY

By
HULBERT FOOTNER

Author of "Two On the Trail," Etc.

The story opens with Jack Chanty floating idly into camp perched upon his raft singing to the accompaniment of his banjo, little dreaming that while he had hidden himself from the world—the world, or at least an important part of it, was coming to him. For on that day Garrod and Linda found his retreat. And Jack Chanty was the last man Garrod ever wanted to see again.

Mr. Footner knows and loves the wilds and he has here told a very dramatic story of the adventures of Garrod's party guided by Jack Chanty, of the mystery at home that Garrod tries so hard to hide and of the jealousy of Linda and the trader's daughter.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE

WHEREAS, default has been made in the terms of the mortgage herein-after described, by reason of the failure of the mortgagor to pay the amount due and interest on a prior mortgage, and the assignee of said mortgage having, by virtue thereof, elected to declare a default in the terms of said mortgage, and the amount secured thereby immediately due and payable.

NOW THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given that certain mortgage made, executed and delivered by George S. Hunter, and Annie Hunter, his wife, mortgagors, to the Bank of White Earth, N. D., a corporation, mortgagee, dated on the 3rd day of January, A. D. 1910, and filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Williams County, North Dakota, on the 18th day of January, A. D. 1910 at 9:16 o'clock A. M. and duly recorded in book "94" of mortgages on page "565," which said mortgage was thereafter and on the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1910, by an instrument in writing, duly assigned to Julia M. Linde, which said assignment was filed for record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Williams County, North Dakota, on the 17th day of August, A. D. 1913, will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises in said mortgage, and hereinafter described, on the 3rd day of September, A. D. 1913, at the front door of the Court House in the City of Williston, County of Williams and State of North Dakota, to satisfy said mortgage and costs.

The premises described in said mortgage and which will be sold to satisfy the same are described as follows—to-wit:—
