SPLENDID PROGRAM AT THE ORPHEUM
 The Orpheum Theatre is offering some extra fine films this week and next. "Judith of Bethulia" a four reel Biograph feature is the attraction for Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee of this week. The picture is said by a number of motion picture critics to be one of the best films that has ever been released. This is a pretty broad statement when a person will stop and consider the excellent films that have been exhibited in Williston alone during the past year. Anyway if it is not the best it comes pretty near to be it and is at least one of the best so the Orpheum Theatre patrons will be well repaid after seeing this picture. The Saturday night performance is under the auspices of the Episcopal Guild.

For Napoleon and France is the title of a six reel Kleine feature that will be shown at the Orpheum on Monday June 1st. only. "Quo Vadis," "Antony and Cleopatra," "Last Days of Pompeii" are among the Kleine pictures recently shown here and it is claimed that "For Napoleon and France" is the equal of any of the above features. It will be shown on Monday only.

You'll never feel "doubtful" about yourself if your tailor is all right.
 And you'll never feel "certain" about yourself if he isn't.
 For there are tailors and tailors—just as there are doctors and doctors, actors and actors, singers and singers!
 You exercise critical judgment in selecting your doctor, in patronizing your actor or singer.
 Is not the selection of your tailor or equally important—at least?
 We are thoroughly selfish and "designing" is urging you to find the BEST tailor.
 We also make a specialty of French dry cleaning.
