The auditing committee of the Truxax Telephone Company consisting of A. C. Long, Joseph Shannon and R. E. Pepple, met in Epping Tuesday to complete their task.

The Truxax "God Busters" crossed bats with the Wheelock "Emeralds" Sunday P. M. on the latter grounds. The "busters" succeeded in making 12 scores, but they claim the score card was lost and they didn't know just how many scores the "Emeralds" did make—a little later—score card found. Emeralds 27. Oh! My! We don't blame them for losing it.

Oh! No, that's simply an idea you have about that mosquito sting. We've been neither stung nor bitten to the best of our knowledge. Thanks awfully, for your unsolicited advice as to the application of that home-made remedy. If you consider it so good why not apply a little of it. We're sole agent for salve but never recommend it for mosquito bites. A swat at the offender was always sufficient for us.

That pen pusher for the Herald from Twelve Mile Hill must consider it has a monopoly on news dope from the way it ripped us up the back last week for getting in its territory. We were just congratulating ourselves on being able to steer past the jabs, thrusts, rifle bullets and mosquito bites of our own domestic circle when we were flanked and landed upon like a thousand bricks from this foreign quarter. However it was kindin this said scribe to notify the public of our normal condition and that we had "returned to our right mind etc." Well, we can smile and be happy that we have such a thing as a mind to return to occasionally, for it has been our misfortune to meet those who should thank the Lord for small favors, if they could say as much.

WHEELLOCK

Miss Cora Lough was a guest of Miss Urena Frank Friday night. She left Sunday morning for Ray.

FASHION FADS

Watermelon pink is a very pretty and a very popular color.

Mantels and jackets are gradually creeping up in fashion favor.

The wearing of white lace spats is a queer fashion that comes from Paris.

Great ruchings of silk or ostrich feathers are used to trim evening wraps.

Some of the newest bead necklaces are so long as to reach the bottom of the gown.

Fashion has decreed that there shall be all sorts and shapes and sizes of jackets.

The overdress of some of the very newest costumes is as light and filmy as air, almost.

Tailored suits have changed. The feminine silhouette is becoming more and more of the boneless kind.

The side-tilted hat is responsible for the new large veil which is triangular in shape. It can be easily draped.

Homian striped and plaided waistcoats are very smart, but with a suit of light-colored fabric the flowered waistcoat is prettier.

Foulard has reasserted itself as one of the leading silks, and there is the possibility that a foulard furure will occur in the fashion world.

Gabardine is the newest material of the year. It is a cross between a poplin and whipcord; very pretty for morning or afternoon dresses.

The prettiest silk hose has a tiny stripe or drop-stitch of a dark color. Others are quite plain except for embroidered blocks in the same shade.

American women used to go to Paris to see and to get pretty dresses. Now some of them are going to get their faces beautified. One of the new fashion fads is to have the forehead lanced across and a strip of flesh removed, so that the eyes are elevated and a calm, "saintly" expression achieved.

GLADYS

Mr. Charlie Jacobson and family of Williston, spent Sunday with Peter Mehus and family.

Mr. Peter Smith went to Williston last Sunday morning.

Albert Linsted is hauling grain to Williston for Carl Mehus.

Mr. Archie Mehus spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Svare.

The job cream social given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid at the schoolhouse Monday night was a financial success and the large crowd present enjoyed a good social time. A number were out from Williston. A short program including graduating exercises was given. Mrs. Tatem, our worthy county superintendent, gave a very interesting talk, which was enjoyed by all present, after which she presented diplomas to Harold Ford and Albert Anderson.

The Farmers Club met Thursday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Blankenship. Owing to it being a very windy day the crowd was not as large as had been expected as it was about sixty were present and the picnic dinner was served under the large tent of Rev. Shaw's which had been secured for the occasion. We were very glad to have with us, Rev. and Mrs. Shaw, Mr. George Farries, editor of the Herald, and Miss Blanche Rutledge, all of Williston. Visitors are always welcome at any and all of our meetings. After dinner was over a short but interesting program was carried out, after which the children had a potato throwing contest that got so interesting the older had to take part in it. When the potato contest was over the men, women and children each took part in some foot races which was very much enjoyed by all and every thing went off nicely with the exception that Mrs. Wagenman slightly sprained one of her wrists in one of the races. The next meeting will be held with Mr. and Mrs. John Lindholm in the afternoon of August 6th.

A PARABLE

Said Christ, our Lord, "I will go and see how the men my brethren believe in Me." He passed not again through the gates of birth, But made himself known to the children of earth, Then said the chief priests and rulers and kings, "Behold now the Giver of all good things! Go to, let us welcome with pomp and state Him who alone is mighty and great." With carpets of gold the ground they spread Whenever the Son of Man should tread, And in palace chambers lofty and rare They lodged him, and served him with kingly fare. Great organs surged through arches dim. Their jubilant floods in praise of him; And the church and palace and judgment hall He saw his own image high over all. But still wherever his steps they led, The Lord in sorrow bent down his head, And from under the heavy foundation stones The son of Mary heard bitter groans, And in church and palace and judgment hall He marked great fissures that rent the wall, And opened wider, and yet more wide, As the living foundation heaved and sighed. "Have ye founded your throne and altars then, On the bodies and souls of living men? And think ye that building shall endure Which shelters the noble and crushes the poor? With gates of silver and bars of gold Ye have fenced my sheep from their Father's fold; I have heard the dropping of their tears. In heaven these eighteen hundred years." "O Lord and Master! not ours the guilt, We built but as our fathers built; Behold thine images, how they stand, Sovereign and sole, throughout all our land, Our task is hard, with sword and flame To hold thine earth forever the same,

And with sharp crooks of steel to keep Still, as thou liftest them, they sleep." Then Christ sought out an artisan, A low-browed, stunted, haggard man, And a motherless girl, whose fingers thin Pushed from her faintly want and sin. These sat he in the midst of them. And as they drew back the garment-hem For fear of defilement, "Lo! here," He said he "The images ye have made of me!" —James Russel Lowell.

BROTHER VISITED HERE

E. S. MacManus, who has been visiting his brother Dr. MacManus in this city for several weeks, left Tuesday morning for his home in Boyne City, Michigan. Mr. MacManus is a railroad man holding the position of train master on one of the Michigan roads. The brothers had not met for twelve years and the visit was a source of great pleasure to both of them.

MOUNTAINS OF CULM DISAPPEARING

The mountains of culm or coal waste which break the sky line throughout the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania and which were for many years considered a nuisance are now being made to serve a very useful purpose. There is at present a market for almost any grade of anthracite that will burn, and no more coal goes to the culm bank except for temporary storage and subsequent recovery by washers. These ranges of artificial hills, unsightly monuments to former waste, are contributing their share to the total coal production and are rapidly disappearing. Even the waste from the culm-bank washers is being utilized, for it is flushed into the mines and partly fills old workings where it cements together and furnishes support to the roof when the coal previously left for pillars is removed.

OBITUARY

N. L. Zimmerman was born in Bedford Co., Virginia, June 24th, 1866, and died in the Wittenberg hospital in Williston, N. Dak., July 14th, 1914, at the age of 48 years and twenty days.

He was united in marriage to Mary Etta Whisler August 26th 1894. Eight children were born to this union. One preceeds him in death. He leaves a bereaved wife, three sons and four daughters to mourn his loss.

Funeral services were held at the church of the Brethren ten miles west of Williston Wednesday the 15th at one o'clock and were conducted by W. W. Keltner, assisted by J. C. Bright. The text was John 1: 1-4. The remains were interred in the Painted Woods cemetery.
