J. W. McGuiness manager of the Orpheum theatre in this city was at Minot Saturday where he superintended the putting on of the great masterpiece "movie play" the "Eternal City" at the Lyceum theatre in that city. The play took well and the house was crowded to the doors at all performances. Our Minot neighbors can rest assured that when Mr. Mc-Guiness stands back of the play they are going to see something good.

In honor of Mrs. E. J. Greenup who expects to leave shortly for near Spokane, Wash., where her husband is engaged in business the Mesdames Penson and Calderwood gave a farewell party at the home of the latter last Thursday afternoon. It was with many feelings of regret when the going home hour came that the ladies said their good-byes to their esteemed neighbor and friend although wishing for her all the joy and happiness possible in her new home.

A number of the boys had a good time at a Badger fight Monday evening. The question is who the joke was on. It was planned to give the entertainment for an insurance man and of course a number of other insurance men got busy to see that he was given a good time. The only trouble was that the man they planned the joke on was one who had pulled it off a good many times himself so the laugh was somewhat on the jokers. We won't mention any names but the initials of one of those getting stung are McKee.

his sister. Mr. Duell expects to be away for a week or two.

Carl Johnson of Bonetrail, is transacting business in the city today and we acknowledge a pleasant call. Mr.
Johnson dropped in to pay his subscription and when told the amount he just handed us double what we asked for. We are sufficiently recovered at this time to stand a few more such shocks. They are rare but pleasant. We just wonder who will be next. We have carried one or two along for several years and when asked to pay they felt offended and stopped the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Craighill were summoned to Cresco, Iowa, last Friday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his father due to an accidental fall from a wagon on which he was riding. A letter from Mr.
Craighill states his father passed away before his arrival. Funeral services were held Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Craighill will arrive home Friday. The friends of the family extend their sympathy to them in their hour of affliction.

DIDN'T WANT A DEAD ONE

There was a call on the telephone a few days ago—never mind which one—and a party in the room upon answering the call heard a female voice which asked for a certain young man. The young man spoke up and said to say that he died about a half hour before. This was told to the party on the line and they said all right tell him "to never mind then."
No dead ones wanted you see.

STUDENTS VISIT COMMISSION

A number of the High School students attended the City Commissioners meeting last evening for the purpose of getting information about the running of a city. Word of their coming had been received and after a rehearsal the various officers were able to make a good showing and give the students a good idea of city government.

ENTERTAINED CLUB

Mrs. L. L. Lampman and Mrs. Os-
