A basket social was held at the Palmer schoolhouse Thursday evening by the Rocky Ridge and Pherrin people for the benefit of Rev. Harris, and a purse of sixty-three dollars, received from the sale of the baskets was presented to Rev. Harris. A number of Williston people were present to assist with the musical program, and a dialogue was given by three boys of Rocky Ridge.

Mr. Gunder Ball and wife from the Gladys vicinity purchased a new Ford, and Saturday came to visit Mrs. Ball's sister, Mrs. Walter Amor; on Sunday in the rain and snow storm they had the misfortune to have a break down, but with the use of the telephone, they found help, and reached the city of Williston, on time. The auto and telephone are helps of pleasure to the farmers, a question which is always debatable only on the side of the affirmative, in times of trouble.

turned home Friday, also Paul Fredrick returned Thursday.
