HEFFERNAN MAY BUILD BIG APARTMENT HOUSE

With the news of a new hotel to be built on Second street and First avenue east, comes rumors that John Heffernan, who owns the property directly east, across First avenue east, will move off the buildings now occupying it and build a large and modern apartment building on the site. When seen, Mr. Heffernan, in common with others, was feeling elated over the assurance of the new hotel building and admitted that he would remove his stables to another more suitable site he owns but declined to either confirm or deny the apartment house rumor.

'GRAUSTARK' HERALDED AS ONE OF WORLD'S GREATEST DRAMAS

The whole nation is ringing with the success of "Graustark," Essanay's six-act feature. In New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Atlanta and, in fact, practically every city throughout the country, "Graustark" has been the big drawing card for many weeks.

This great photoplay, dramatized from the novel of George Barr McCutcheon, is one that has brought out the enthusiasm of every spectator who has viewed it. Exhibitors say that never have they had a photoplay that has brought such universal approval, nor one that has created such universal comment.

Theaters have been thronged night after night with crowds, who left declaring it was the best photoplay they had ever seen. Repeated calls for re-bookings have been made.

Critics on newspapers and magazines everywhere have joined in praising this play. They have lauded it for its excellent production, its scenic beauty, its dramatic and thrilling action, the exceptional acting of Essanay players, and for its intense plot that holds all spectators spellbound.

And "Graustark" is a play that finds a sympathetic chord in every heart. It is the story of a love behind a throne. There is no man or woman not interested in a love scene. When it becomes the love of conquest of a young American for a princess, it attains a romanticism which is overwhelming in interest.

It is no ordinary love, but a love of a man who is willing to sacrifice all, his life, for the woman to whom he has given his heart. This is what raises "Graustark" from an ordinary play and places it in the class of one of the world's greatest dramas. "Graustark" will be shown at the Orpheum Theatre on Monday, Tuesday, November 22-23.

CLAYTON NEWTON APPOINTED ON POSTAL INSPECTION FORCE

Eight years of faithful and efficient service in the local post office bring recognition and promotion to Clayton Newton. Only about a month ago he took the civil service examination for appointment as postal inspector and this week he received his commission. The position carries a much better salary than his present one with an allowance for traveling expenses.

Mr. Newton will be eligible to assignment to territory in any part of the United States but has received no instructions as yet. Until after the holidays, however, on account of the heavy mails, he will remain on the local force. He is receiving many congratulations on his deserved good fortune.

MORRIS-WALTERS NUPTIALS

George B. Morris of Gladys and Frances Walters of Bonetrail, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the M. E. Parsonage yesterday morning, Rev. Harris performing the ceremony. The bridal couple were accompanied by Louis Marmon and by J. C. Walters, a brother of the bride.
