Olathe, Kas., Sept. 21.—Bert Dudley, charged with the murder of Henry Muller, an aged German and his wife, was taken from the Johnson county jail here early today by a masked mob and hanged to a telephone pole. The mob came to Olathe in motorcars, supposedly from near Stilwell, where Muller lived. Sheriff Carroll refused to surrender the prisoner and the mob overpowered him. Then they battered down three jail doors. Several shots were fired but none were injured. The mob which was composed of about sixty men, thought to have been neighbors of the murdered couple, came into Olathe quietly. The sheriff was called from his house and seized from behind as he began firing his revolver. He was overpowered and his hands and feet tied. The sheriff was taken with the mob as they went to the jail and battered down three doors. Meantime the under-sheriff was also overpowered. He was struck on the head with a revolver and rendered unconscious.

Living on apples and water while passing through the rich farm regions of Illinois and Iowa, a foot, Paul Krum bach, wife and fourteen-year-old daughter did not find that there was still some of the milk of human kindness in the world until they arrived in the Dakotas. They claim the people further east would not assist them. They arrived in Carrington Tuesday morning, after a trip of three weeks and five days, all of which was walked on a meagre diet until Aberdeen, S. D., was reached. There they were given aid into North Dakota and got to Jamestown. Kind-hearted people of that city sent them to Valley City and Valley City people gave them the fare to Carrington. From here they were sent on one leg of the journey to Minot, where they go to live with an uncle by the name of Garrott, who will provide for them they say.
